Desperate Stand Permits Bulk Of Reds To Escape

Tokyo, Tuesday (AP) — Allied troops trapped and destroyed two Chinese Red divisions in central Korea in the past four days, the Eighth Army reported today.

But the costly Red stand—12,974 killed or wounded, 5,028 captured—in the center may have allowed the bulk of the Communists to slip back north of the 38th parallel. Today the Reds had stopped their headlong retreat and even counter-attacked in places.

The two Red divisions were encircled and eliminated as a fighting force northwest of Chunchon 45 miles northeast of Seoul, from Friday night through yesterday.

"The enemy pocket in this area has been cleaned up except for a few scattered Communist groups," an Eighth Army officer said.

More than eight miles inside Red Korea, north of this scene of slaughter, 300 Reds were killed last night by an Allied armored force. The force attacked and drove off Reds who had rushed U.S. infantrymen from high ground north of Hwachon.

A prisoner haul of 2,558 was made yesterday by Allied forces who have driven the Reds from virtually all territory gained in the Reds' two turned-back spring offensives.

Red resistence stiffened yesterday and today on the central front near Hwachon. The Communists showed signs of standing still and trying to halt the General Allied push across the 38th parallel into North Korea.

An Eighth Army staff officer said costly Red delaying actions probably have permitted many troops to elude United Nations traps.

The Allies were hampered by mud. The Reds were able to slip up roads and trails before the sloshing Allies could cut them.

Pursuing United Nations forces were driving four to 14 miles inside North Korea across the 125-mile wide peninsula. The Allied positions were about the same they occupied just before the first Red hammer blow the night of April 22.

In one week the Eighth Army offensive has eliminated Red penetrations ranging up to 25 miles below the 38th parallel. The total Red gains were from 30 to 40 miles.

However, field dispatches said 3,000 Chinese were in action last night against U. S. troops on the central front, west of Hwachon reservoir. That was roughly seven miles north of the old political boundary.

Frontline officers believed Chinese rearguards were attempting only to slow the Allied advance. They expected nothing more than a local enemy counterattack.

Other Red rearguards including many North Koreans, tried to stop the Allied advances on both the western and eastern flanks of the battleline.

A pooled dispatch from the east-central front quoted an officer as saying "the rout phase of the Chinese retreat seems to have ended."

"The enemy," he said, "apparently has withdrawn the bulk of the Chinese troops. North Koreans are being thrown into the line and they are slowinng our advance."

Allied troops pushing northwest toward Yanggu on the eastern end of the sprawling Hwachon reservoir gained only two and one-half miles during the day. They were hit by small arms and mortor fire.

The Allies in Inje were under sharp Red artillery fire. Inje is four miles north of 38 and 28 miles inland from the east coast.

Congress Lays Foundation For UMT

Conferees Agree On Draft Bill

Washington (AP) — A Senate-House conference committee reached agreement on a new draft bill yesterday and laid foundation for universal military training (UMT) in the United States.

The compromise legislation would drop the minimum draft age from 19 years to 18½ and keep the Selective Service system going until July 1, 1955.

It would also set up the framework for universal military training, with the proviso that Congress shall take a second, long look at the idea before putting any program into effect.

Before the deadlock on the Senate-House bills can be broken completely, however, the compromise measure must be approved by both chambers.

Senator Russell (D-Ga), chairman of the Senate Armed Services committee, and Rep. Vinson (D-Ga), head of a similar committee in the House, expressed confidence that the machinery for UMT would be in effect by the end of this year.

The actual training program is not expected to start until the end of the Korean emergency.

The present draft law expires July 9. Dropping the draft age from 19 to 18½ makes about 500,000 more youths eligible for military service, but the conferees predicted that few younger than 19 would be inducted for a long time, if ever. The bill provides that all those available in the 19 to 26 year group must be called first.

Under the compromise, a five-member commission on National security training would have general supervision of the UMT program. This authority would not extend to the specific details of military training.

The commission would be appointed by the President, but would have to be confirmed by the Senate. Three would be civilians with not more than two from any one of the major political parties. Two would be active or retired military men.

Within four months, members of the commission would be requested to submit legislative recommendations to the Armed Services committees of both houses of Congress.

It is at this point that Congress would take its second look at UMT.

Individual UMT trainees would get their drilling either in the Army, Navy or Air Force. They would be liable for a total of eight years of service, counting time in the reserves. Thus if their training period lasted six months, as provided in the compromise bill, they would have to spend an additional seven years and six months in the reserves. Pay during training would be $30 a month.

Local draft boards would induct young men into UMT, beginning at age 18. A deferment system would be established along the lines of that now applicable to the draft.

Other points settled yesterday by the conferees involved the length of service of members of the inactive and volunteer reserves. They agreed these reserves must be released at their own request after serving 17 months if they previously had had one year's service in World War Two. The provision applies to both enlisted men and officers. It would not apply to national guardsmen and organized reservists.

These other provisions had been agreed on earlier by the conferees:

Registration of all youths at age 18. Draft boards would have to classify them before they reached 18½.

A manpower ceiling of 5,000,000 for the armed services. The Senate had voted for 4,000,000; the House bill had no limit. The present administration goal is 3,500,000.

Require draftees to serve 24 months. The present period now is 21 months.

Man, 36, Weds; Becomes His Own Grandpa

Hague, Sask, (AP)— Cornelius Friesen, 36, married his grandfather's widow Sunday night, thus becoming his own grandpa.

A crowd of more than 700 jammed the Pentecostal church at nearby Grunthal to witness the ceremony.

The bride was Mrs. Sarah Friesen, 42, whose husband died a year ago, aged 85.

Mrs. Friesen was married to her late husband — her new husband's grandfather — for 14 years and had one son, now 12, who was Cornelius Friesen's step-uncle and now becomes his step-son, too.

Army To Call Only 15,000 Men In July

Washington (AP) — The Army issued a draft call yesterday for 15,00 men in July.

This is the smallest number requested for any one month since the new Selective Service program began.

The Army drafted 80,000 men in January and the same number in February and March. It drew 40,000 a month in April and May, fixed a total of 20,000 for June and 22,000 for August of this year.

Reduced casualties in Korea and increasing volunteer enlistments, the Army said, are the main factors in the declining draft figures.

Under the present program, at the end of August, 377,000 men will have been drafted into the Army this year. The Navy, Marine Corps and Air Force have not called on Selective Service for draftees in 1951.

The Navy—the only service still calling enlisted reservists individually—said yesterday it will order up 3,000 non-rated reservists a month starting in August.

These men will get a maximum eleven weeks boot training, the Navy said, although some with prior active service will get less. They will all serve a total 21 months active duty.

Malik Blasts Peace Hopes

United Nations, N. Y. (AP) — Soviet Delegate Jacob A. Malik yesterday knocked down as "completely groundless" reports that he or the Soviet Union had put out Korean peace feelers to the United States, directly or indirectly.

In a terse comment issued through a Soviet delegation spokesman, Malik thus put the clincher on a series of denials from all sides. The rumors had persisted even though the United States, U. N. and other officials had insisted the Soviet Union and Malik were not making any peace bids.

Delegates familiar with Russian thinking speculated that Malik's action was intended to clear the way for attacks on the United States and the U. N. policies in Korea during June, when he will be president of the Security Council. They reasoned he could not logically assail the U. S. while reports were flying around that he wanted to talk peace with the Americans.

These delegates recalled that Malik tied up the Security Council during his last term as president last August. With Chinese Communist armies in retreat and the U. N. forging ahead, the delegates wondered what tack Malik would take this time in the council president's chair.

Court Okays CBS Color Television

Washington (AP) — The Supreme court yesterday upheld the color television plans of the Columbia Broadcasting system, opening the door to a new era in public entertainment.

However, legal technicalities alone could delay an actual start on color telecasting for 25 days, and it may be a considerable time before many American homes have color television.

In New York, CBS said that "within a few months (it) expects to be producing a substantial schedule of color programs." Materials shortages may prove a big damper on the new effort.

TV sets already in use will have to be adapted before they can receive CBS color telecasting, either in color or in black and white.

The supreme court, by an 8-1 vote rejected a plea by the Radio Corp. of America to set aside the approval given the CBS system by the Federal Communications commission (FCC). RCA argued its own competing system turned down by the FCC, was more in the public interest.

Under the CBS color television system, estimates are it will cost $50 to adapt present sets to receive color signals in black and white; and another $100 to receive color itself.

This was the big issue in the months-long legal battle over color TV.

RCA said its color system could be received in black and white without adjustments on present sets. But the FCC ruled RCA's color fidelity and texture were unsatisfactory. It said CBS color was "most satisfactory."

Earlier, a special three-judge federal district court in Chicago upheld CBS and the FCC by a 2-1 vote. At the same time the lower court ordered CBS to hold back actual broadcasting pending an appeal to the Supreme court.

The Supreme court continued that stay until its decision is transmitted to the district court. That takes 25 days.

Meanwhile, RCA may go before the Communications commission and claim new developments have improved its color TV. Only last May 2, RCA demonstrated a new color system in New York.

Labor Committee To Press For Ceiling Boost

Washington (AP) — The United Labor Policy committee (ULPC) indicated yesterday it would press for a boost in the wage ceiling to at least 14 per cent above the Jan. 15, 1950 levels.

The ULPC composed of union representatives, took no formal action, but labor members of the wage stabilization panel hinted that they would be pressing for upward revision of the wage formula fixed last February 16.

Labor members walked out of the first wage board on that night when public and industry members voted to fix the limit of wage increases at 10 per cent above the January, 1950, levels. The labor unions had asked for at least a 12 per cent ceiling.

Now, they said, living costs have risen almost two per cent more, and a 14 or 15 per cent formula would be justified to guide stabilization efforts of the next few months.

New York (AP) — Queena Mario, 54, former Metropolitan opera soprano who wrote three mystery novels, died yesterday.

Tomb of Unknown Soldier, Arlington National Cemetery

Parade, Followed By Services, To Highlight Community's Observance Of Memorial Day

A six-division parade by veterans, patriotic groups, armed forces reservist units, school and Scout groups and as many musical units will march from Stroudsburg to Prospect cemetery, East Stroudsburg, starting at 9:30 a. m. tomorrow for Memorial day services honoring the dead of all wars.

In case of rain, all units will report to Stroudsburg High school for memorial services.

Howard Mount, who announced details of the parade and services, again urged all citizens and business interests to display the American Flag on Memorial day as a tribute to the veterans who have died.

Parade will form on Ann and Williams Sts., Stroudsburg, at 9 a. m. and move away promptly at 9:30 a. m., for East Stroudsburg. In that borough marchers will traverse Washington, S. Courtland, Crystal, Brown St., and Prospect to the cemetery.

Services will be held at the graveside of the late John Becker, who had been prominently identified with the American Legion, 40 et 8, Veterans of Foreign Wars. Mr. Becker had been manager of the local office of Pennsylvania State Employment Service.

Attorney Elmer D. Christine, judge advocate of the Department of Pennsylvania, Veterans of Foreign Wars, will deliver the Memorial day address.

Prior to the parade, around 8 a. m., Wednesday, American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars commanders, sergeant-at-arms and officers of the day, will place a wreath at the Doughboy monument, Court House Square, Stroudsburg. Taps will be sounded.

All Boy Scout troops, posts and cub packs are to be at the starting point for the parade Wednesday at 8:45 a. m. Robert Wilson, district commissioner, asked that all members of the groups respond.

Adonis Given Two-To-Three Year Term

Hackensack, N. J., (AP)—A red-faced Joe Adonis started a two to three-year prison term yesterday, the first in his long career as a mystery underworld figure.

"I'm not sore at anybody," the dapper Adonis said just before his sentencing for violation of New Jersey gambling laws.

Despite his lawyer's protests that he is a legitimate businessman, Superior Court Judge J. Wallace Leyden sent Adonis to jail, fined him $15,000 and suspended an additional four to five-year prison term.

Similar sentences were imposed on four of Adonis associates, all of whom were charged with operation of a $1,000,000 dice gambling setup in Bergen county, just across the Hudson river from New York.

They could have been sent to jail for 18 years and fined a total of $18,000 each on the charges.

Sentenced with Adonis were New Jerseyans:

Influence Increases

New York (AP) — More than a half billion people have come under the domination of the Soviet brand of Communism since the end of World War Two, and with the capitulation of Tibet to Communist China, Soviet Communism now dominates an area outside the Soviet Union of about 4,000,000 square miles.

Auto Dealers' Credit Terms May Be Eased

Washington (AP)— The government yesterday notified tire manufacturers they must get along on present reduced rubber rations until at least October 1.

The spare tire will not be restored to new passenger cars.

Meanwhile the nation's auto dealers won some support in a plea to Congress to ease credit terms for auto buyers.

Two members of the House Banking committee— Reps. Patman (D-Tex) and Brown (D-Ga) —spoke out in favor of more liberal credit terms after hearing complaints against the government's "regulation W."

As for rubber, the National Production authority told industry representatives that until the nation's rubber stockpiles are built up to a safe level "there can be no increase in the allocation of rubber for civilian use."

NPA also plans to issue an order not later than Thursday for controlling steel consumption by auto manufacturers in the July-August-September quarter.

The order is expected to cut steel tonnage for passenger cars and station wagons to 65 per cent of the early 1950 usage. The present order permits 75 per cent.

In another move, the government yesterday banned processors of farm products from profiting on inventories by applying the rising cost of things they add to the stocks they already have on hand.

The action by the Office of Price Stabilization is effective immediately. It applies to agricultural products selling below parity and which may rise in price. Farm products selling below parity are exempt from price control.

Reds Trail In Italy

Rome (AP)— Slowly mounting returns from Italy's municipal elections last night gave Premier Alcide de Gasperi's coalition the lead over Communists even in some sections of the northern Red belt.

Voters balloted Sunday and yesterday for town and provincial councils in 2,735 municipalities in 28 provinces, about one-third of Italy.

De Gasperi's Christian Democrat party and its allies appeared to have made substantial gains over the Reds in the biggest test of political strength in three years. At midnight, Interior Minister Mario Scelba said the Christian Democrats had won two-thirds of the first quarter of the provincial council vote counted up to that time.

The government swept the premier's native province of Trentino and was ahead in first returns from Brescia, Milan and even in Bologna—known as "the Red" because of its position as a Communist citadel.

No Paper Tomorrow

In accordance with custom of long standing, The Daily Record will not be published tomorrow, Wednesday, May 30 in observance of the Memorial day holiday.

Vandenberg Sees Chance To Avoid War

Washington, (AP)—Gen. Hoyt Vandenberg told senators yesterday there's a good chance the United States can avoid another world war and also win a negotiated peace in Korea without bombing Red bases in Manchuria.

But the Air Force chief of staff tempered this optimism by saying the U. S. now has only a "shoestring Air Force" which cannot be thrown into Korea in force while there is a danger elsewhere of attack from Russia.

He urged that the Air Force be kept intact and not used in a broader war against China as proposed by Gen. Douglas MacArthur.

Vandenberg gave this testimony to the Senate Armed Services and Foreign Relations committees in their study of the reasons behind the ouster of MacArthur from his Far East commands.

He said he agreed with the other Joint Chiefs of Staff that MacArthur had to be dismissed for his opposition to administration war policy.

A short time before, Russia's Jacob A. Malik said through a spokesman at New York that talk of Russian peace feelers at this stage of the Korean war were "completely groundless."

The chief Soviet delegate to the United Nations let it be known that his denial was to apply "fully" to all reports that the Soviets want to discuss an end to the war along the 38th parallel in Korea.

Vandenberg argued the Air Force must be kept in readiness to meet any attack that might be launched by the Russians. Discussing the MacArthur proposal to bomb Red China and Manchuria, he said:

"In my opinion, we cannot afford to peck at the peripherry as long as we have a shoestring Air Force."

Again he said: "I believe there are reasonable chances of success in achieving a negotiated peace without endangering that one potential that we have, which has kept the peace so far, which is the United States Air Force."

At another point, Vandenberg stated he believes the chances for avoiding an all-out war are good "up to today." He said the atomic bomb figures in his estimate of these chances.

The Air Force chief went on to say the Air Force doesn't have the strength at this time to bomb the Red bases in the Far East and at the same time be in readiness to meet the danger of attacks at home and in other areas of the world.

Three Chicagoans Face Contempt

Washington, (AP) — George S. May, wealthy Chicago golf club owner, was reported yesterday to have refused to answer questions before the Senate Crime Investigating committee.

Chairman O'Conor (D-Md) told newsmen he will recommend contempt of Congress citations against May and two other Chicagoans, Murray L. Humphreys and Rocco Fischetti.

Humphreys and Fischetti have been identified by the committee as top figures in the Chicago Capone mob, reputedly one of the two major crime syndicates in the nation.

Committee members said Fischetti, claiming his constitutional privilege not to answer questions which might incriminate him, refused to disclose even how he traveled from Chicago to Washington for his appearance here.

Witnesses Hit Segregation Rule

Charleston, S. C. (AP) — Witnesses, White and Negro, told a panel of three Federal court judges here yesterday that they believed that under segregation in schools Negroes never can have equal educational opportunities.

They added that segregation, discrimination and racial prejudices have an adverse effect on the emotional stability of both Negroes and whites.

Although the court test applies specifically to public schools in District 22 in South Carolina's Clarendon county, the case has far-reaching implications for the state and the entire south.

The suit was filed by parents of Negro children against Clarendon school authorities.

Escapee Retaken

Pittsburgh (AP) — Police last night captured Andrew Kaczynski, escaped Western penitentiary convict. He was found hiding under a bed in a home and was suffering from a bullet wound in the knee.

To Disclose Figures

Atlantic City, N.J. (AP) — Warren R. Austin, chief U.S. delegate to the United Nations, said last night the United States would disclose soon how many troops it would earmark for use by the U.N. in future emergencies.

New York Store Reacts To Law Upsetting Fair Trade Laws By Cutting Many Prices

New York, (AP) — R. H. Macy and Co., one of nation's largest department stores, last night announced price cuts of six per cent on 5,978 price-fixed items of name brand merchandise.

Approximately 1,000,000 pieces of merchandise were being marked down last night. The cuts will be effective today.

Richard Weil Jr., Macy executive, said the price cuts resulted from the May 21 decision of the Supreme court holding that nonsigners of agreements with manufacturers are not bound by fair trade laws in 45 states.

Full page advertisements appearing today will carry specific listings of over 100 widely varying items comparing the previous day's price-fixed tags with the new prices.

The price reductions will apply to nationally advertised household appliances, drugs, books, sporting goods, children's articles, cooking utensils, men's articles and many other items.

Weil pointed out that Macy's never signed a fair-trade agreement and has been traditionally opposed to the practice of price fixing.

He added that Macy's expects to have no difficulty getting additional merchandise from brand-name manufacturers as the result of the price cuts.

Weil said the Supreme court's decision on fair trade laws "removed the power to compel us to keep prices up."

He added that the price cuts do not apply to radio and television sets, but, when any competitor cuts prices, regardless of the type of merchandise "we will meet that competition."

Liquor prices, which are not governed by fair trade legislation in New York state, are not affected by the new reductions.

Educational Workshop To Open June 25

The second annual seminar workshop for elementary teachers and supervisors will begin at East Stroudsburg State Teachers College June 25.

It will continue for three weeks with both morning and afternoon sessions.

Dr. Nathan G. Meyer, head of the department of education, is again acting as coordinator.

He explained the college this year is trying to make the workshop as varied and diverse as possible. Miss Josephine B. Kerns and Miss Marie C. Brown will serve on the regular instructional staff and 20 guest specialists and consultants will participate.

Dr. Meyer said there will be three additional points of credit given for permanent teacher certification.

Thus far, applications have arrived from the Stroudsburgs, Mount Bethel, Milford, Honesdale, Jermyn, Clarks Green, Ithaca, N. Y., and Atlantic City, N. J.

Pfc. Robert E. Ocher, RA 13354481, Co. B., 8th Engineers, 1st Cavalry Div. (C) Bn., APO 201, c-o Postmaster, San Francisco, Cal.

Judge Delays Execution Of War Criminals

Washington (AP)— Federal Judge Walter M. Bastian yesterday stayed the execution of seven condemned Nazi war criminals until Tuesday, June 5.

In announcing the action, he said he had received a "few threats" because of a five-day stay he issued last Thursday. Yesterday's action extended the previous order.

Bastian granted the stay while he considers the question of whether his court has jurisdiction to review the case. The government contends it does not since the Nazis were convicted by a military court. Their attorney argued they cannot be executed since the West German constitution forbids capital punishment.

The seven Nazis are in prison at Landsberg, Germany.

Three Couples Seek Licenses

Three more couples have applied for marriage licenses here at the Monroe county court house office of Prothonotary Claude E. Metzgar, bringing the total number of applications filed in the first 28 days of May to 18.

John Wernett Candidate For County Auditor

John W. Wernett

John W. Wernett, West End civic leader and resident of Saylorsburg, last night announced that he is seeking a Republican nomination for the office of county auditor in the July 24 primary elections.

He drew attention to the fact that he was one of four filing petitions for county auditor nominations before the May 21 deadline.

Mr. Wernett is president of the Hamilton Education group, justice of the peace in Hamilton township, secretary of the West End Lions club, secretary of the Pocono Mountain Baseball league since 1947, and he also served as district president of the Patriotic Order of Sons of America for several terms.

For the past 18 years, he has been an associate of J. Arthur Warner and Co., New York, N. Y. He holds degrees in law and accounting, and served in the U. S. Navy during the First World War. He was with the tank and artillery sections of the Ordnance department during the second world conflict.

Kirk Unaware Of Peace Talks

Paris, (AP) — Adm. Alan G. Kirk, U. S. ambassador to Russia, said yesterday he knows of no change in Russia's attitude toward negotiations with the west.

An embassy spokesman said Kirk had not seen Prime Minister Stalin before leaving on his current two-week visit in European capitals.

The spokesman quoted Kirk as saying he is "not aware that Moscow is any more willing to negotiate now than before."

Interpretation Of 7,911 Chest X-ray Films In Progress After Close Of County Project

Interpretation of 7,911 chest X-ray films is well on its way following the close of a mass X-ray project co-sponsored by Monroe County Medical society and Pennsylvania Department of Health with the cooperation of Monroe County Tuberculosis society.

Final X-rays were taken Saturday—a clean-up for all persons who had missed previously scheduled visits of either of the two mobile X-ray units sent here from Harrisburg. Some 387 persons were X-rayed at that time.

Success of the mass X-ray project goes to the hundreds of volunteers who made the door-to-door contacts to explain the free chest X-ray project and urge people to take advantage of the opportunity to have a chest X-ray.

The interpretation is being handled by Dr. William R. Levering, Dr. Paul H. Shiffer and Dr. Horace Butler of the General hospital staff.

Cards will be issued to all persons whose X-rays are determined to be "negative" of tuberculosis. Those which have positive pathological findings will be referred to the family physician of the individual with arrangements to immediate follow-up work.

These cases will involve re-X-ray to confirm interpretation. Others will require re-X-ray for technician reasons, such as a jewel, buttons or other obstruction left on the person at time of X-ray and left showing in the X-ray photography.

It is estimated that about two per cent of the 7,911 persons X-rayed will have to be re-X-rayed.

Notification will also go out in sealed letter form to individuals believed to have positive pathological findings of TB.

Other ailments or ills of the chest disclosed by the X-ray of course will be passed on to the family physician who will inform the patient.

However, the TB society, which is carrying out the follow-up work, is concerned solely with positive pathological findings of tuberculosis, and will concentrate all its efforts strictly in that field.

Georgia Taxes And Business

Anybody interested in saddling Pennsylvania with an income or sales tax should take a long look at Georgia. And profit thereby.

Georgia's new three per cent sales tax went into effect April 1. Industry must pay the levy on all new machinery purchased.

As a result, the state has lost at least two big factories and probably more will be scared off. This is anything but good news to Georgia, largely an agricultural state that has been trying to attract industry.

One of the companies that refused to go to Georgia said the sales tax would cost it $60,000 on purchase of machinery.

This is just another example of the way high taxes, new taxes and just plain taxes often curb business activity. And to curb business in such a manner is to cut production and employment.

Pennsylvania is one of a handful of states with neither an income nor sales tax. And that fortunate position has been a great help to Pennsylvania in inducing new industries to locate here.

It relieves companies of economic disadvantages like those caused by the Georgia sales tax. It also offers a lighter tax burden for employes and executives of those companies, who can get more take-home pay in Pennsylvania on the same wages.

We think these advantages are worth preserving. Certainly, we do not believe they should be thrown away unless there is an urgent necessity for large new State revenues. And no such necessity has yet been proved.

The way to preserve Pennsylvania's happy freedom from income and sales taxes is to sweat down Governor Fine's $1,220,000,000 proposed budget. That can be done, any time the Legislature decides to do it.

Principle In RFC

"I'm not certain what he did was illegal, but I'm dead sure it was improper."

W. Stuart Symington, new administrator of the Reconstruction Finance Corp., said that. He was explaining why he had fired the manager of the Government's lending agency's Minneapolis office.

According to Mr. Symington, the manager learned from an Agriculture Department employe that the Government was seeking space to store dried eggs and powdered milk; passed the information to a friend; was given 40 per cent of the stock in a warehouse company organized by the friend to rent space to the Government, and got more than $35,000 profit on the deal.

"Any other RFC official found involved in a deal of this character—that is, making money aside from his salary out of the Government—will be summarily dismissed," Mr. Symington added.

His attitude is admirable. The mess which the RFC got into, and which Mr. Symington is laboring to clean up, could have been avoied if his predecessors in the management of that agency and other responsible Government officials had adhered to his principle that, illegal or no, improper conduct must not be tolerated.

Try And Stop Me

By Bennett Cerf

Every year, several big city newspapers raise funds to give underprivileged youngsters a two-week vacation in the country. One of the kids had never seen a cow or a haystack before in his life. To complete the wonder of his first day away from city streets, there was a flash thunderstorm, followed by a perfect rainbow. The city kid gazed on it with wonder and exclaimed, "It sure is pretty, but what is it supposed to advertise?"

"Why did you assault this poor man?" a judge demanded of a college student near the tag-end of a football weekend. "Well, judge," explained the student, wriggling in the grasp of the cop who had haled him into court, "I was in a phone booth innocently conversing with my girl when this bohunk opens the door and heaves me out of the booth." "And that incensed you?" prompted the judge. "Mildly," admitted the student, "but what really made me see red was when he reached in for my girl and heaved her out, too."

Hollywood

By Gene Handsaker

Hollywood—A thought or two by Michael Rennie on the old argument: Who produces the better pictures, Hollywood or Britain?—

"Here I think you do musicals better," said the towering, slender Yorkshireman. Americans are getting to know him in Britain's "Trio", in which he and Jean Simmons are patients in love at a sanitarium, and in Hollywood's "The Thirteenth Letter."

"Also," he continued, "you do any kind of spectacle better. 'King Solomon's Mines'—we can't touch a thing like that. Maybe we do better the sincere, intimate, human drama: "Brief Encounter," "The Third Man." I can't think why.

"We're lucky in one respect. The theater and film industry are geographically in the same place. In making a picture, we can go to the theater for any one of a dozen very fine actors. Earning 25 or 30 pounds a week in the theater, he's happy to earn 50 or 100 pounds a day in a film.

"Here you can't draw on that source. It's unprofitable for an actor in a Broadway play to come 3,000 miles for two days work."

Rennie is playing a man from another planet in "The Day the Earth Stood Still."

"I love it here," he said. He wants to stay "as long as they'll have me." With his actress wife, Margaret McGrath, he has taken a house in fashionable Brentwood.

Rennie is 41 years old, 6 feet, 4, and weight "12 stone 4," which, he rapidly calculated, is 172 pounds. His ancestry is Scottish. His narrow face, with high cheek bones, sunken cheeks, and deep-set blue eyes, has been described as "early American." Someone once suggested he had an American Indian look about him.

He worked for a time in his father's woolen mill and his uncle's rope factory. During the war he was an RAF instructor attached to the U. S. Air Force at Macon, Ga.

Acting, he finds, is "sort of adventure unlimited." He'd like to play Captain Cook, the explorer, or act in a western.

Does he prefer British or Hollywood leading ladies? "That's a stinker of a question, isn't it!" he chuckled. "They're equally charming. Is that what Solomon would have said?"

Every other day for the past three years, a U. S. medium bomber has made a round trip weather observation flight over the North Pole from Fairbanks, Alaska.

These Days — By George E. Sokolsky

Sokolsky

The Puzzling Message of March 20

It has been made to appear that on March 20, Gen. MacArthur received from President Truman or somebody a set of instructions; that on March 24, he cribbed those instructions and issued them, with threats, against the Chinese Communists.

In a British chronology of world events, I find an item of March 27 that the State department was understood to have handed a "major policy statement aimed at clarifying the U. N. objectives in the war," to our 13 Allies, but this is three days after General MacArthur's threatening speech to the Chinese Reds.

General Marshall in his testimony before the Russell committee said that there had been negotiations among the nations which were stopped because of the threatening speech of General MacArthur of March 24. In fact, he said that the Joint Chiefs of Staff had sent a message to General MacArthur dated March 20.

This is the message that General MacArthur said was sent:

"State is planning a presidential announcement shortly that with the clearing of the bulk of South Korea of aggressors .The United Nations now preparing to discuss conditions of settlement in Korea. The United Nations feeling is that further diplomatic efforts toward the settlement should be made before any advance with major forces north of the 38th parallel. Time will be required to determine diplomatic reactions and permit new negotiations that may develop. Reasoning is that parallel has no military significance. State has asked Joint Chiefs what authority you should have (General MacArthur) to permit sufficient freedom of action for next few weeks to provide security for United Nations forces and maintain contact with the enemy. Your recommendations are desired."

But this is not the world-shaking, new policy message from which General MacArthur is supposed to have cribbed his speech of March 24. General MacArthur has not received such a message and the Marshall note can only be interpreted as serving notice on him that something is in the wind.

Members of the Russell committee have interrogated General Bradley about this because the dismissal of General MacArthur is now attributed to his having stymied the State department's peace negotiations by his threats of March 24. General Bradley also has never seen the presidential message of March 20, but he goes back to the Marshall message quoted above, which was obviously only a warning of things to come.

Senator Wiley made the point:

"Senator Wiley:—Have you got evidence that General MacArthur ever got it? A. (Bradley) —Well, I am sure he did. I can check the message for the acknowledgment of it, but I don't believe he has ever denied he received it."

Actually at that point, General Bradley was speaking of two different messages. The Marshall message, MacArthur did receive; the presidential message, setting forth a new policy to end the war, he did not receive and there is no evidence that such a message was ever sent. Yet, MacArthur is accused of cribbing his March 24 speech from the second, not the first message. A reading of his speech will establish that.

The presidential message was supposed to deal with a political basis for a cease-fire. But a cease-fire is a military action that must be carefully planned by the commander in the field. How could the President deal with a cease-fire without discussing its nature with the commander in the field? The Marshall message has nothing to do with that and the other message—the one that is supposed to have resulted in dismissal—is still invisible.

General Bradley's statement that General MacArthur has never denied receiving the March 20 message of policy is incorrect. Actually General MacArthur made such a denial and it was published in "Newsweek" magazine on April 16. He said:

"The statement contained in your issue of April 2nd to the effect that prior to the issuance of my statement on March 24 of the military situation in Korea I had been furnished a copy of a policy statement by the President cleared by the governments having military forces in Korea is entirely without basis in fact. I have never seen such a statement and do not know if it even exists. Please publish this in the interest of truth."

It was obvious all through that General Bradley did not know whether the presidential plan had been sent to MacArthur nor that he, Bradley, ever saw it. The Marshall message was obviously a subterfuge to give an impression where no message actually existed.

Washington Report

By Fulton Lewis Jr.

Washington — During the period when our State department was fixing it up so the Communists could take over China, Earl Browder was in and out of the White House so much FBI agents referred to him as "Old Yo-Yo."

Nobody ever kept an exact count on how many times Browder actually visited home base here in Washington, but we have his own word for it that it was often and usually about China. On most of his White House visits he was ushered in the back door after dark. Now, of course, since the Kremlin started using him as a punching bag, he hasn't had a single invitation, after dark or otherwise.

I've always been interested in learning who it was over at the White House that set up the appointments, as I imagine you have. Now we stand a good chance of finding out, although it's going to be a long trolley ride before we put the finger on the right guy.

Two congressional committees are now sorting over papers relating to the sell-out of China. Both are anticipating the arrival of a star witnes, Maj. Gen. Chas. Wiliooghby, a tough intelligence officer from Tokyo, who is full to his ears with what the Communist creeps did to us in Asia.

Willoughby will arrive in the U. S. in a few days, and unless the administration gags him somehow, he'll drop in on the House committee on un-American activities and the Senate Internal Security sub-committee. Things will warm up around Washington when he gets here.

Browder knew a lot about China. The Communists kept their underground railroad between Shanghai and Washington well greased in the not-too-long ago. In fact, Eugene Dennis, general secretary of the Communist party, U. S. A., once bragged to reporters that he traveled to China during the war a number of times via the underground. He said he was doing a little fighting against the Japs, but he was never very clear about where and when he did the shooting.

Willoughby put the finger on Browder and Dennis in 1945. He had just squeezed all the data out of a confession made by Richard Sorge, the Kremlin's best espionage agent. Sorge used American, British, Japanese and German agents in his spy net and Willoughby was naturally curious about them. I'll give you a sample of what the general has in mind when he gets here. This is from one of his reports to the Pentagon:

Most of the old wheelhorses of the Communist party have served in Shanghai, in one period or another, the professionals of the clandestine fraternity, as well as the accolytes, the dupes, flirting with the Red menace. There is Earl Browder, Eugene Dennis, Gerhart Eisler, Harry Berger, Sam Darcy, Ernest Ewert and many others.

"The cumulative documentation (from the Sorge case) contains over 180 identities, surnames, aliases and code designations, derived from authenticated court records."

Willoughby maintains that the Sorge spy ring with its American agents was more important and successful than the Kremlin net exposed in Canada. Listen to this:

"In the Sorge case, just as in the later Canadian spy case, numerous non-Russians, including Americans, quickly and readily agreed to betray their countries for the Soviet Union. Their common bond was Communist, hence Soviet, sympathy, rather than party membership."

In fact, from Sorge on down, not a single one of the 180 involved was a Russian citizen. Yet they all worked for Moscow, and two of them were hanged for their devotion, although both believed Moscow would rescue them before the 7th inning stretch.

Sorge will become a household word within the next few weeks, so don't stray too far from the reservation. You'll hear a lot of names and get a fill in on who pulled the trigger on us in China.

Looking at Life

By Erich Brandeis

Brandeis

A man from the "wide open spaces' of Texas criticizes me severely for the "sentimental drivel" I have written about General MacArthur.

He takes three pages to tell me where MacArthur is all wrong and President Truman all right.

Then, just so that there may be no misunderstanding, he assures me that he is a Democrat and that history will repeat itself in 1952 with Truman's reelection.

Whether or not MacArthur is right in his stand on the Korean war is something which I am not qualified to judge.

As a matter of fact, it seems to me that no one at this time is qualified to do that—and so there is just a lot of talking, much of it foolish and irresponsible.

But whether MacArthur is right or wrong, one cannot help but admiring him as an American and as a human being.

It was that which made me write about the great impression he made on me and all those within my eye-and-ear-shot when he addressed Congress.

It was that which made me say —and I saw it with my own eyes —that many hard-boiled legislators and others who listened to him had tears in their eyes. And I was not ashamed to admit to mine.

It is the "sentimental drivel" part of my Texas man's letter that riled me.

I hope to God that I shall never, as long as I live, cease being sentimental.

"Sentiment," according to Webster, is "the mental attitude, thought or judgment permeated or prompted by feeling or emotions."

Such a "mental attitude, thought or judgment" is the very foundation of American life.

Without them there could be no love, no charity, no freedom.

Without feeling or emotions all our judgment, all our actions would be the same as the cold, commercial, cruel calculations of the Soviet Union and other dictatorships.

Without feeling or emotions there could be no religion.

In many phases of our history our country could have made decisions that would have brought us much more gain, more territory, more advantages if we had laid emotions and feelings aside.

In every war we fought and won, emotions and feelings sat at the council table. At every such council table these two were the co-signers of the peace treaty.

Unfortunately "sentiment" is often misunderstood for weakness by those who have none of it themselves.

The opposite is true.

Only the strong can afford to be sentimental.

The weak must pose as strong. So they substitute cruelty for compassion; coldness for warmth of heart; brutality for tenderness.

They may be strong physically or powerful at arms.

But the typical American is just enough of a sentimentalist to believe in the invincible power of the human soul and in the irrefutable fact that only RIGHT makes lasting MIGHT.

It really all comes down to the Golden Rule: "As ye would that men should do to you, do ye also to them likewise."

But do not let us be like the fellow about whom William Blake wrote:

"He has observ'd the golden rule,
Till he's become the golden fool."

Golf Opponent Makes Good

A former golf opponent of ours has soared to the heights. On Sunday, June 3, he will be signally honored in a way all men might envy. We were at times critical of him (particularly from a bunker or trap), but he had a confidence that was inspiring. Later we found that no advice we could offer would help and learned to keep our mouth shut and know greatness when we saw it. He is a clergyman straight out of the movie "Going My Way," 50 years in the church and who in his seventies can still play close to par golf, throw a knuckle ball and swim a fast hundred yards. He is Monsignor Thaddeus W. Tierney and his golden jubilee in the priesthood is at hand.

We first met him some years ago when he wanted advice about some modest Thanksgiving contributions on New York's East Side. We last saw him when he was teaching us humility on a golf links, and not even trying. To us he will always be plain Father Tim, but on the record he is Monsignor Tierney, now of St. Raymond's Church away up north in the Bronx, New York, but for most of his life stationed in the teeming East Side of Manhattan.

It's hard to think of him as a Monsignor, which is away up close to the top, where a good deal of dignity, formality (and a reasonable degree of stiffness) are required. For "Father Tim" is the jovial, informal "just folks" type. It's his instinct to mix, to serve the poor, to meet the man in the street, to get close to the people in the home, the shop, the office and the ball park. Barry Fitzgerald made the role of a Catholic priest glow in the movie that fascinated all America, "Going My Way," but "Father Tim" would be more convincing in the part than Barry was.

He comes from Scranton, Pa., and as a kid wanted to be a pro ballplayer. He covered third base for the Honesdale, Pa., nine. Cristy Mathewson and Hugh Jennings were in the same league at the same time. He was an all-around athlete. We don't know anything about his baseball, but in our book, had he gone in for golf instead of the priesthood, he would have made the Hagens and Sarazens hustle. This is no fanciful statement. In his sixties he could play the toughest courses in the mid-seventies, and did. His drives were close to 300 yards without exception, his short game was the envy of all opponents and you could concede him a 15-foot putt.

"Ever play golf?" he said to us that day when we first wandered into his parish in the Thanksgiving season. He was well along in his fifties then and we thought to ourselves, "It would be pretty terrible tagging around a course with this old fellow." So, we took a runout powder with the reply, "Oh, once in a while. Yeah, I'd be glad to play with you some day," quick to evade what struck us as an encounter most unfair to him.

Later we got into a foursome with him and went forth confident, puffed up and full of self-satisfaction. We have never been the same since.

We were to learn later that "Father Tim" was a wonder of the links whenever his tough routine as an East Side priest permitted him to set aside the shepherd's crook for the driver and brassie. We once offered to join the Church if he would take three strokes off our game. After a season he called us out of a trap and sagely delivered his verdict: "Listen, my lad, you had better stay in whatever faith you're in. This is too much of a job."

When his Fourteenth Street Church, down in the late Al Smith's district, was torn down, Father Tim was sent to St. Raymond's. It is much handier to the golf areas, but we understand his high duties limit his backswings. We will back him, however, regardless of age, to break 78 any day in the week. In the Heaven from which we hope the ineligibility clauses will not bar us, we hope to meet "Father Tim" as a great friend, a great priest and a rare human being. But not as a golf opponent in a tight match.

Jose Ferrer admits his name was linked with numerous Red-front groups, but swears that he had no idea they were Communistic. He also says that only recently did he know that May Day celebrations were Communistic. Come, come, Cyrano, you must use your nose more!

Shudda Haddim missed "Bandleader" at 10 to 1. "I didn't think he was tuned up for it," he says. (Shudda also failed to bet "Circle" at $6.40 to place, even after putting a circle around it on the program!)

The drunkard's match, introduced in 1882, was treated with chemicals to extinguish itself when the flame reached mid-way down the stick, thus reducing the number of burned fingers among bonvivants.

First Bids On Tobyhanna Depot Project To Be Opened June 12

Construction Divided Into Three Phases

Bids on the first phase of construction of the U. S. Army Signal Corps depot in Tobyhanna will be opened in offices of the Philaphia district, U. S. Army Engineers in Philadelphia on June 12, Rep. Francis E. Walter (D-20th District) said yesterday in Washington, D. C.

Yesterday, Congressman Walter said, was the first that plans and specifications for the first phase of the giant $30,000,000 installation became available at the Philadelphia office of the Army Engineer Corps.

First phase of the project will deal with grading, including excavations and fills and the complete drainage and general piping system for various underground utility installation required by the 1,400-acre depot.

The second phase of bidding and construction will involve railroad tracks and yards, foundations for structures, electric utility installations, sanitary sewage system, etc.

Final phase of the bidding, expected to come this fall will be on superstructures — the huge warehouses, central heating structure, administration building and all other buildings required by the Signal Corps Depot.

In all cases announcements, similar to those issued by Corps of Engineers in Philadelphia yesterday, regarding availability of plans and specifications with an opening date for bids will be made in ample time to permit contractors to prepare and submit their bids.

Engineers and architects for the entire project are Gilboy, O'Malley and Stopper, of Scranton.

The depot will be a complete city unto itself when completed. Tentative completion date is early in 1953.

Up to that time Tobyhanna and vicinity will be the center of activity by thousands of construction workers. Hiring for the 5,000 civilian posts on the reservation is expected to start fairly early next year.

Meanwhile, Clifton Rogers, Rochester, Pa. planning consultant and his staff, are proceeding to develop a master municipal plan for the Tobyhanna communtiy and Coolbaugh township generally to meet the impact of an industry which will employ 5,000 persons.

While the plan to let the contract in three separate units will lessen somewhat the strain on current facilities of Tobyhanna, nevertheless the region faces an unusual problem on housing, supply eating places and similar facilities for any large force of construction workers.

VFW Women To Remember Fighting Men

Plans for Memorial day and for remembrances for fighting men and veterans were discussed last night at the Veterans of Foreign Wars auxiliary meeting held at the VFW home with Mrs. Evelyn Tweedie presiding.

Mrs. Tweedie requested every member able to parade to report to the VFW home on Wednesday morning, dressed in white dress, white shoes and gloves. Caps will be furnished at the VFW home.

The auxiliary adopted a new project—sending cigarets to the soldiers in Korea, which would bear the auxiliary name. They also voted to send $5 to the patriotic instructors fund and $5 toward the department president's gift.

Members were asked to remember Ralph Sommers, hospitalized at the Valley Forge hospital, Phoenixville, with cards. A memorial service was held for the young member of the auxiliary who died during the year, Miss Etta Ransberger.

Two new members, Mrs. Blanche Trach and Mrs. Virginia Katlin were initiated. The attendance prize was awarded Lydia Christianson, and the floral centerpiece to Mrs. Flossie Stiff.

Following the meeting a white elephant sale was held with all proceeds to go to provide luxuries for veterans in hospitals.

Polk Junior To Serve As Walter's Page

Kresgeville — Harry T. Young, supervising principal of Polk Township school, last night announced Richard Albright will serve as Rep. Francis E. Walter's page in Congress during June.

Albright, who is a junior, is the son of Rev. and Mrs. Alton P. Albright.

He is active in the school band, a member of the senior glee club and school newspaper staff.

Move-Up Day Program At SHS Today

Stroudsburg High school moving-up day exercises will be held today at 11 a.m. Principal Alfred W. Munson will be in charge of the program.

Students will also finish classes for the school year today. Final examinations will begin Thursday.

Bangor Woman's Club Installs New Officers

Bangor — Mrs. Vernon Hester was installed as president of the Bangor Woman's club at the luncheon which closed their club year on Saturday in the Christ Evangelical Reformed church.

Mrs. E. L. Rosenberry, past president of the club and of the Northampton county federation, was the installing officer. Others to take office were: Mrs. Robert Youlton vice president; Mrs. William Metzgar, treasurer; Mrs. O. W. Ackerman, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Charles Ralph, assistant; and Mrs. Harry Laveton, recording secretary.

Mrs. Hester named the following committee chairmen for the new year: Mrs. Clark Hahn, flower committee; Mrs. Asher G. Abel, finance; Mrs. Homer McEwan, reception; Mrs. Glen Price, membership; and Mrs. Herbert Spangenberg, clubwoman chairman.

Mrs. Clarence Steinmetz retiring president was toastmaster for the dinner, and the entertainment included vocal solos by Mrs. Harriet Mertz, of Easton; and dramatic readings by Mrs. Norman Ralph, of Phillipsburg.

Guests included Mrs. Bert Transue, president of the Portland Woman's club; Miss Estelle Wertz of the Hellertown club; Mrs. Lee MacMillan of the Easton club and Mrs. Cornell Wallwork, president of the Bangor Junior Woman's club.

Motor Club Proposes To Change Name

A movement was started at the meeting of the Board of Governors of the Monroe County Automobile club at the Penn-Stroud hotel last night to get the sentiment of the club members in connection to changing the name of the organization to the Pocono Mountains Automobile club.

A committee was appointed by R. LeRoy Dengler, president, to frame a letter to be sent to all club members giving reasons for the change and also include a postcard on which members will vote "yes" or "no" to be mailed back to the club to get an idea of their sentiment in the matter. The committee is composed of Layton Rhodes, H. A. Ahnert, and A. F. Everitt.

There are eight known Monroe counties in the country, while there is but one Pocono Mountain section, it was brought out in the discussion. In addition, the Pocono Mountains Chamber of Commerce and its affiliated groups are conducting a widespread publicity campaign, which, it was pointed out, would prove beneficial to the Motor club if it carried the same name. The letter will be presented for discussion and action of the board at the next meeting.

Announcement was made that the Lackawanna County Automobile club had requested the Pennsylvania Motor federation to have Pike county territory allocated to that club. The local governors went on record to oppose such action, Pike county being included in the area covered by the Monroe county club for many years.

The board will make an effort to secure garage service cooperation especially during the heavy tourist season. M. E. Leffler, club contact man, will personally call on garage owners in an effort to formulate a plan which will assure service at night during weekends particularly.

The board completed the reorganization for the coming year by re-electing A. F. Everitt secretary and George Costenbader treasurer.

It was decided to have the office at the Penn-Stroud hotel open Saturday afternoons from 1 to 5 with Miss Elizabeth B. Martin in charge from Saturday, June 2, to Labor day, for the convenience of traveling motorists.

The board gave its hearty approval of the proposed Laurel Blossom ball at Shawnee inn Wednesday night, June 20, when a queen will be crowned surrounded by a galaxy of princesses from all sections of the area. It was stated efforts are being made to secure a prominent actress as queen and a prominent personage to do the crowning. This is preliminary to a renewal of an elaborate celebration next year. Walter Fossa is head of the committee in charge.

President Dengler welcomed H. G. Sanborn, Stroudsburg, and H. A. Ahnert Jr., Bushkill, as new members of the board. John M. Crandall, Pocono Manor, the other new member was unable to attend.

Mrs. Cynthia Watt, secretary-manager of the club, reported 1,223 members enrolled, the largest number in the club history. That figure included 44 new members elected last night.

There were 30 responses for emergency road service for foreign members and 11 local costing $163 during the month of May.

Belgium's vast equatorial empire, the Belgian Congo, is 77 times the size of the mother country.

Price Township Directors Vote Raises In Per Capita, Property Levies For 1951

Price township school board last night unanimously voted a $5 tax be levied in addition to the present $5 per capita tax.

The tax was suggested and approved by township voters at a previous public meeting.

The proposal to raise the tax millage from 30 to 35 mills was also unanimously approved by the board during its meeting at the home of Dr. Frank E. Halstead, East Stroudsburg RD 2.

A spokesman for the board explained the tax increases were brought about because of a $2,500 deficit which accumulated over the past two years and now has to be met.

Directors agreed the school house and all school property be sold to help defray the debt. Students will be transferred to East Stroudsburg and Stroud township.

Township school bus routes will be reviewed and possibly revised, it was reported. The board also voted to apply for membership in the State School Board association.

Atty. Elmer D. Christine was appointed solicitor for the board. Next meeting will be held in two weeks.

County Superintendent John C. Litts and all members of the board were present for the meeting.

Arrival Of High Pressure Area Will Bring Pleasant Weather For Memorial Day

Weatherman Michael F. Hannon was spreading some good news around last night.

He came up with a good answer to the question about Memorial day weather: "You can go out and buy your hot dogs and hamburger . . . it's going to be sunny, fair and warmer."

Hannon wasn't taking any chances, though. He's depending upon the arrival of a high pressure area here to bear out his predictions.

"If everything goes according to Hoyle," he added, "Memorial day will be nice with a maximum temperature in the upper 70s."

The "deep trough" of low pressure that's been hanging around here the past few days is slowly moving eastward toward the ocean. It has been the cause of the damp, dreary weather lately and the influx of cool, Canadian air.

Today, according to Hannon, will be the last of this type of weather for a while at least.

Although it is expected to be cloudly this morning, showers will probably end by daybreak. The heavy clouds will begin beaking up in the afternoon, some sunshine will break through and the temperature will get up in the middle 70s.

Temperatures will sink into the lower 60s tonight.

Yesterday temperatures ranged from a high of 71 to a low of 50. Mean was 62 degrees. Humidity was 52 per cent.

Students Of ESHS Start Final Exams

Technical and commercial students began final examinations yesterday at East Stroudsburg High school.

Academic students will begin their exams Friday and continue through Monday and Tuesday morning.

East Stroudsburg Junior High school students will also begin exams on Friday and continue through Monday and Tuesday.

Tuesday, June 5, all East Stroudsburg High school choruses will have their annual outing at Saylors lake. On Wednesday, June 6, East Stroudsburg seniors will hold their annual banquet and outing at Mountain Lake house. Marshalls Creek.

McNulty Rites Conducted Here

Funeral services for William T. McNulty, were held yesterday morning. Rev. H. G. Durkin officiated at high requiem mass in St. Matthew's Catholic church.

Rosary services were also held Sunday night by the Altar and Rosary society at the Daniel Warner funeral home, Stroudsburg. Rev. Durkin was in charge.

Pallbearers were P. A. Rockefeller, Miles Bossard, Willard Stettler, Harry Bolich, John Gallagher, Paul Whelan. Interment was in the Gates of Heaven section of Laurelwood cemetery.

Traffic Check Scheduled For Twin Boroughs

Pennsylvania Highway department yesterday assured residents of the Pocono Mountains area that Stroudsburg and East Stroudsburg will be designated as one of eight summer traffic check points.

According to the announcement made yesterday, roadside and home interviews will begin next month in Stroudsburg - East Stroudsburg, Coatesville, Chester, Butler, Washington, the Ohio and Beaver river valleys in the Pittsburgh and Beaver Falls sections; at Ambridge, and in an area southwest of Pittsburgh embracing Carnegie, Mount Lebanon township and Dormont.

In referring to the eight traffic check points, Highway Planning Survey Chief H. G. Van Riper said that all survey personnel will be recruited locally with the exception of key men and supervisors.

He said a representative 10 percent sampling of the populations here and at other check points will be polled.

Explaining the questions which will be put to wage earners and housewives in the twin boroughs, Van Riper said the survey representatives will seek information about every trip the interviewed persons made on the day before the interview. "That includes automobiles, trucks, buses, in fact everything but motorcycles and pedestrians," the survey chief declared.

Called origin and destination surveys, the studies are designed to give Highway department experts a complete picture of the travel habits and needs of an area.

They provide information for traffic analyses upon which location and size of future roads are based.

Plans for the State Highway O&D survey here this summer were first disclosed last fall when State engineers revealed the department's plans to Stroudsburg's borough council.

The council, at that time, was seeking a concrete method by which to meet the borough's recurring summer traffic problems.

Some 5.8 per cent of all accidents to the person happen to the eyes, it is estimated.

Sheeler Says Cops Forced His Confession

Philadelphia (AP) — Rudolph Sheeler, who was freed from prison four weeks ago after serving 12 years for a crime he did not commit, yesterday accused five police officers of beating him up to get a "confession" from him.

Sheeler testified that Assistant Police Superintendent George F. Richardson was not present when other officers beat him in 1939 to get a "confession" that he had killed a policeman. Sheeler was under cross examination by counsel for the six officers suspended because of his case.

The slim, 35-year-old Philadelphian testified at a hearing before the city Civil Service commission, which is inquiring into charges against the policemen of "conduct unbecoming an officer."

Sheeler was subjected to intense cross-examination by John Patrick Walsh, an attorney for the policemen. At one time during the cross-examination, Sheeler asserted: "Someone must speak up for the common man's rights, even if it's for a felon like myself."

He told the commission he took part in about 10 holdups and 35 purse snatchings before 1935.

He said he "confessed" to taking part in a robbery in 1936 in which he said that an accomplice, Jack Howard, killed Patrolman James Morrow. In his appeal to be released from prison, he said he knew nothing of Morrow's death nor of any attempted robbery on that day.

The police "slapped me around," Sheeler said. He testified that they began beating and kicking him soon after his arrest in 1939 in an attempt to get him to "confess" to the Morrow slaying.

The six policemen face dismissal from their jobs if they are convicted of the charge. They are George Richardson, assistant superintendent of police; Capt. James A. Kelley, head of the homicide squad; Detectives Joseph M. Geonnotti, Charles S. Steinberg and James A. Kelly, and Sgt. Louis Cherkas, Mayor Bernard Samuel's chauffeur. All have been suspended from the police force.

Tri-Hi-Y Girls Of East Borough To Hold Outing

The annual East Stroudsburg Tri-Hi-Y outing will be held today at Mountain Lake house, Marshalls Creek.

A program of outdoor sports and games will begin at 3 p. m. and the banquet will begin at 6 p. m.

Principal speaker will be Mrs. Pauline Stine, the club's home adviser.

Guests will be Mrs. James Hantjis, Miss Louise Prata, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph O. Burrows.

Only 35 players in the National Hockey League have taken part in every one of their team's games this season. The other players have missed games through injuries or being benched.

There is an ex-Chicago Black Hawk player on every one of the five other National Hockey League teams this season.

Tibet Treaty May Increase Reds' Pressure On India

Hong Kong, (AP)—Communist China's "treaty" giving it control of remote Tibet is expected to increase Red pressure on India, which is right next door.

That lofty, craggy and mysterious land of the Lamas—or priestly ruling class—had its mystery deepened by the iron curtain.

By the treaty signed in Peiping on May 23 and announced Sunday night, Red China takes over Tibet's national defense, foreign affairs and trade.

Observers point out that Tibet gives the Communists a base not so much for military action against India but for propaganda, infiltration and concessions. Tibet is too mountainous for military purposes.

These observers believe that India soon will feel Communist pressure in many forms and, one day, will regret it did not take a firm stand for a free and independent Tibet.

A large body of Far East opinion holds that India was the only nation that might have deterred Peiping. India chose not to act.

Plane Spotters Plan Exercises June 23, 24

Newburgh, N. Y. (AP)—The Eastern Air Defense Force announced yesterday that 210,000 civilian volunteer members will receive night training in plane spotting on June 23 and 24.

The defense force at Stewart Air Force base here will direct the exercise in 19 of 23 states. Volunteers will man about 8,000 observation posts and 26 filter centers in the Northeast, Great Lakes and West coast regions.

The Western Air Defense force, with headquarters at Hamilton Air Force base, San Rafael, Cal., will direct operations in California, Oregon and Washington. The newly organized Central Defense Air Force in Kansas City will direct the work in Minnesota and Michigan.

These three forces operate under Air Defense command which will direct the over-all exercises from Ent Air Force base, Colorado Springs.

In the Northeast training will begin at 9 a.m. Saturday, June 23, and end at 6 p.m. Sunday, June 24.

The main purpose of the exercises will be the visual detection of low-flying aircraft.

USAF planes will make special flights throughout the areas where observation posts are situated.

The observation posts are about eight miles apart and each is manned by a minimum of 25 civilian volunteers. These spotters telephone their reports to filter centers where the information is plotted on a grid map. The watchers try to estimate the altitude of the plane, direction of flight and the number of planes.

Fighter interceptors are sent up to identify the planes as friendly or unknown.

Presbyterians Take Steps To Ease One-Year Wait Before Divorced Person May Remarry

Cincinnati (AP)— The Presbyterian Church in the USA which does not allow its members to remarry until a year after divorce, took steps yesterday to soften the rule.

The church's general assembly approved a proposed law which would allow a committee of a Presbytery (regional governing body) to excuse a person from waiting a year.

The assembly, however, coupled this with another proposed law imposing more restrictions on the guilty party in a divorce who wants to remarry.

He would have to show penitence and demonstrate that he sincerely desired to do better in his nex marriage.

The assembly ordered the proposals sent down to the Presbyteries for ratification. If the church's members, through their Presbyteries, endorse them, the changes will be written into the directory for worship, a part of the Presbyterian constitution.

The move to relax the one-year-wait law is an "honest approach to a problem which has vexed Presbyterian clergymen, said Dr. Albert G. Butzer, of Buffalo, N. Y. He is chairman of a special commission which drafted the changes.

Some ministers, through misinterpretation of the constitution, have disregarded the one-year-wait rule. This has aroused the concern of other pastors who adhered strictly to the prohibition.

One of the new laws endorsed yesterday would require Presbyteries to set up a "committee on Christian marriage." This committee, at a pastor's request, would investigate the case of any person whose right to remarry was questionable.

Dr. Eugene Carson Blake, pastor of the Pasadena, Calif., Presbyterian church, was nominated for stated clerk of the General assembly.

Dr. Blake's name was the only one offered for the $12,000 a year office and his election today to a five-year term is considered a mere formality.

The stated clerk is the executive officer of the church's national administrative organization. Dr. Blake would succeed Dr. William Barrow Pugh of Philadelphia, who was killed in an automobile accident last year.

Iran Rejects World Court As Arbitrator

Tehran, Iran (AP)— Iran yesterday spurned the World court and made ready a secret plan for taking over Anglo-Iranian Oil Co. fields and the Abadan refinery from the British.

The oil company (AIOC) applied to the International Court of Justice at the Hague Saturday for appointment of an arbitrator under its 60-year contract with the Iran government.

But yesterday Deputy Prime Minister Hossein Fatemi declared Iran would ignore any proceedings before the World court and would send no representative to plead her case.

Pearson Notes Dominance By United States

Friends and well-wishers packed East Stroudsburg State Teachers College auditorium yesterday morning to watch the 114 members of the graduating class receive their diplomas.

They also heard Leon Pearson, columnist and NBC news analyst, put forth his suggestions on "how the people of America can rise to meet their new unprecedented task."

Pearson, a veteran newsman who has covered Big Four meetings in Europe declared "it's amazing the dominant position the United States has came into."

"I'm not saying America wants to dominate the world," he added, "but it has come into a position where it easily can."

He gave as illustrations America's policy of re-arming Germany over the objection of France, American insistence the Chinese Communists be branded as aggressors in Korea after the war had gone on for months and the occasion U. S. economic experts in France told the government they would have to raise their subway fare if they were to balance the budget and stop inflation.

"We have gone so far since 1920, when Congress turned Woodrow Wilson and the League of Nations down, it is hardly recognizable we are the same country," he asserted.

"We not only turned our back on isolationism, we became involved in war in Asia and are threatened by its outbreak in Europe."

Pearson questioned "have we got the stuff to lead the world?" He described the present situation as a "teenage leadership of an old world."

"If we're to lead," he went on, "we must emerge from our immoral deep freeze. Let's not have the blind leading the blind, the weak leading the week, but a strong America leading the world back to its former self."

Pearson was introduced by Dr. Joseph F. Noonan, college president. He reminisced that he and Pearson's father, Dr. Paul Pearson, had been intimately acquainted during their early educational careers 30 years ago.

Dr. Noonan remarked both Leon and Drew Pearson, his brother, "ably carry on the tradition of an illustrious father—bringing important information to the attention of the public."

EVERYBODY'S TALKING, but what most of them are saying can probably be summed up in one word: "Congratulations." This is the scene the Daily Record photographer was confronted with outside the college auditorium yesterday morning after commencement exercises. First group of the approximately 1,000 persons who attended the graduation are seen emerging from the exits. Commencement speaker Leon Pearson spiced his short address with many a humorous anecdote. Said the news analyst: "You graduates right now probably aren't too concerned with the affairs of the world; your biggest concern is undoubtedly your own personal lives." (Daily Record photo)

Weak Relief-Welfare Laws Encourage Squalor, Poverty, Auditor General Charges

Harrisburg, (AP)—Auditor General Weldon B. Heyburn charged yesterday that weak relief and welfare laws are forcing Pennsylvania taxpayers to subsidize "squalor, poverty and degradation" in destitute communities.

Heyburn made the charge on the basis of an investigation into what he termed "unbelievable and shocking" living standards at Brier Hill, a tiny Fayette county mining village.

Heyburn turned a report of the investigation over to the General Assembly along with a request for "immediate corrective" action.

The State official said the Brier Hill investigation, disclosing "tragic squalor," represents a "capsule example" of conditions existing in similar poverty-ridden communities whose life-line is State aid.

Heyburn said that despite State aid, sanitary facilities in Brier Hill are "completely primitive" and that "nearly half of those living in the squalor described are children." He added:

"It would seem that the laws which make assistance, sanitation, health and welfare possible provide no positive minimum standard to protect this form of investment by the taxpayers in the dignity of man."

The auditor general made no specific recommendations for improving relief and other State laws; instead, he said he was merely presenting the facts for the Legislature to use as it sees fit.

Heyburn said he ordered the investigation into living conditions at Brier Hill in his capacity as legal watchdog over expenditures by the State.

He said that although some $120,000 in State aid was poured into the destitute Fayette county community last year, living conditions were found to be "unbelievably bad."

He said nearly all the homes were without modern plumbing with "sink and bath water draining into the basements and left to stagnate there."

"The teachers estimate that at least 40 per cent of the children have head lice and that 70 per cent are improperly clothed and attended to," Heyburn stated in the report.

The report said the community is in the center of a worked-out mining area with most of its some 800 inhabitants unemployed.

Meanwhile, Robert P. Wray, deputy public assistance secretary, commenting on the report, said his agency has no direct jurisdiction over determining how families on relief spend their assistance checks.

He emphasized however that in cases where parents are found to be neglecting their children, they can be referred to county courts for action.

Herman Sher, Joel Mazor, Seymour Katz will be installed as members of the executive board.

Refreshments will be served following installation ceremonies.

CAP Hopes To Fly With Aid Of Cakes, Pies

There's more than one way to fly an airplane, but the Stroudsburg unit of the Civil Air patrol came up with a still new method yesterday.

The local cadets, believe it or not, are going to become airborne via the cake and pastry route.

In fact, they're going to sell the aforementioned tempting morsels at a sale to be held at the Wyckoff store on Saturday.

In case you're wondering what frosted cupcakes have to do with air speed, altimeters and check flights, the CAP cadets will set you straight pronto!

It's simple, they say. The flight's single craft, used in cadet training, is now grounded in need of repairs. To get it—and the cadets—back in the air, the patrol is raising funds with which to pay mechanicals' bills.

As one enthusiastic cadet said: "What could be more natural than to keep 'em flying by letting them eat cake?"

Doe Season May Precede Buck Hunting

Harrisburg, (AP)—The State Game commission was asked yesterday to set a special doe season to follow the regular buck shooting instead of preceding it as it did last year.

The recommendation came from the Pennsylvania Sportsmen's club board of directors which met at Fishermen's Paradise near Bellefonte over the weekend. The group will present their resolutions at the Friday meeting of the commission to hear ideas on 1951 hunting dates and limits.

The commission's two-day antlerless deer season caused a storm of protests last year from hunters who maintained the concentrated gunfire would drive the bucks into the hills.

"If a doe season is needed this year to control the deer herd, it (should) be set for two days at the end of the buck season," the resolution said.

Another change proposed by the federation, which claims a membership of 200,000 Pennsylvania hunters and fishermen, urged extension of the season on quail and grouse from 12 to 15 days, beginning November 1.

Other recommendations included:

Groundhogs — season to begin June 1, 1952 instead of July 1 as it does this year.

Ducks — Split season of 40 days.

Snowshoe rabbits — season from Christmas to New Year's day.

Squirrels and rabbits — four a day and 20 a season.

Raccoons — Five a day and 40 a season between Oct. 16, 1951 and Feb. 1, 1952.

Bear—one-week season as last year with a week between the end of bear season and the opening of deer season.

The commission usually is guided by the recommendations of the federation. However, it will hear all recommendations at its Friday meeting.

Storm Sash Now Made For Casements

Casement windows now can be given the protection of storm sash made especially for them. An easily-installed aluminum sash for this purpose has been put on the market by a Cincinnati, Ohio, manufacturer.

Windows of the casement type, opened and closed on hinges with ventilating handles on the inside, are not suitable for enclosure with the ordinary type of sash, designed for double-hung, conventional windows.

With windows of this sort the new sash is removable from the inside. This is an advantage of special interest where windows in tall structures are concerned, as it eliminates ladder work. Tempered stainless steel weather stripping seals the outer sash when it is closed, keeping out cold air.

Today Your Horoscope

TUESDAY, MAY 29

March 21 to April 20 (Aries)—This is a fitting time to promote that new idea. Be a bit venturesome. Of course, all old methods or workables can't be brushed aside; be reasonable. Assert leadership diplomatically.

April 21 to May 20 (Taurus)—Some aspects stress the strength of your position. Realize your capibilities, albeit while proceeding with caution. Take things reasonably and succeed in organized efforts.

May 21 to June 21 (Gemini)—First, abandon one-sided viewpoints, being set in ideas, not ready to listen. Then go forward to make fine gains with broadminded approach. Heart interests favored in their place.

June 22 to July 23 (Cancer)— Rebuilding, manufacturing, banking, general business favored in certain strong respects. Labor or employer should work amicably together, one needs the other—united we stand!

July 24 to August 22 (Leo)—Vibrations excellent for worthy efforts. Many real opportunities in business and personal affairs. Finances, contracts, travel, public relations, advertising show new impetus.

August 23 to September 23 (Virgo)—Emphasize practicality, be ready to put forth better effort. Guard personal property, matters pertaining to home, children, estates. Be careful about prestige, too. Save.

September 24 to October 23 (Libra)—Romance has a place on day's agenda if it is on yours. Make the right things important and you will be happy, make others happy. Take stock of your status in business, work or home.

October 24 to November 22 (Scorpio)—Many generous advantages. Most propitious time for healthy endeavors of humanitarian purpose. Engineering, invention, transportation, farming, mass production favored anew.

November 23 to December 22 (Sagittarius)—Put forth ideas, promotions in simplest most saleable way. Orderliness, sensible manner with inoffensive, energetic attitude best now, always. Tact, too.

December 23 to January 21 (Capricorn)—In-between sort of day. Spend little time on non-essentials. Enjoy work, and be one of the family always. Moderation in spending, saving, eating will never hurt, will assist.

January 22 to February 20 (Aquarius)—Good results for the hard, honest worker today. Very little for the idler, those who are not anxious to exert extra. Concern yourself with loved ones, children, social service.

February 21 to March 20 (Pisces)—May be good idea to devote early hours to research, making sure you are on the right road. Indications in p. m. well suited to financial or personal interests. Percentage is on your side.

YOU BORN TODAY can, with education, honest intent and sensible attitude, make a great success of any position or business you attempt. Only don't try too many things at once. Be studious, careful, selective of what you choose to do, whom to be with. Though quick to see openings are likely to take first snap judgment as IT—don't double-check. You can be friendly, good-natured, or the opposite. Which do you believe best? Many able doctors, lawyers, musicians, others in public life born in this energetic Sign. Size Of Dining Room Important

If a separate dining room is provided in a home, its shape and the size are largely dependent on the necessary furniture and space for serving persons at the table.

At least one unbroken wall space should be provided for a sideboard and sufficient wall space elsewhere to care for extra chairs. The tendency has been, in small quarters, to eliminate large dining rooms in favor of dining alcoves. Often opened into the living room, they permit a varied use of the dining space, provide an effect of spaciousness, and give added light and ventilation to the living area.

In many instances dining space in kitchens is appropriate, as well as dining space in living rooms. Poor practice is involved where an unlighted entrance foyer serves for dining.

Timber Survey Completed At Ross Common

Ross Common — Completion of a cooperative timber survey on the 400-acre Ross Common tract owned by Lehigh University was announced here yesterday by Arlington W. Martin, secretary of the Monroe county soil conservation district.

Three agencies, the soil district, the Department of Forests and Waters, and the Interstate Commission on the Delaware Valley Basin (Incodel) participated in the survey along with conservation authorities at Lehigh.

Martin explained that the purpose of the survey was to select and mark trees for removal on a planned basis in order to preserve the productive capacity of the soil and the moisture retaining capacity of the woodland areas.

Retention of water in wood lots provides dry season relief for surrounding and other nearby cropland, the district secretary added.

Many of the trees marked for removal had been damaged or already blown down in the near hurricane storm last November.

The crew making the survey comprised Atlee F. Rebert, U. S. Soil Conservation service consultant for the Monroe district; Paul Drury, service forester with the Stroudsburg office of the Department of Forests and Waters; H. R. Frantz, engineer from Incodel's Bethlehem office; Prof. George Jenkins, of Lehigh, and eight of the college's conservation class students.

Before each tree marked for removal was tabbed with a blaze of yellow paint, each was measured at breast height (four and one-half feet). The height in 16 foot logs was also computed, so that the log yield was known as soon as the timber cruise was completed.

The crew said the total will amount to 95,360 board feet, including both the windblown and standing timber.

In addition to the breast marks, base marks were painted at the foot of each standing tree so that the owners may check the timber cutters after the harvesting.

Trees marked for cutting included a quantity of hemlock, white pine, pitch pine and also maples, oaks and birches.

Lehigh's tract, a part of the former Brodhead holdings, was willed to the university and includes both woodlands and cultivated areas. The farm land is rented to individual farmers in the region.

AWOL Soldier Found Living Life Of Hermit

Lock Haven (AP) — "I wanted to get away from people . . . live in the woods . . . observe nature."

That's the way a 30-year-old soldier from McKeesport, Pa., was quoted yesterday by State police. The soldier, George Philip Frankovich, had lived the life of a sleeping bag hermit in the woods for a month.

Armed with a German pistol, Frankovich was picked up near here after police received complaints from nearby residents that he acted suspiciously. His retreat was a clump of woods almost surrounded by a swamp.

When he was found, he was carrying $830 worth of travelers' checks. State Police Cpl. Joseph Hefferon said Frankovich was AWOL from the Army in Germany. He was taken to Pittsburgh by military police.

Sound Investment Urged For Owners

A home should be planned as a sound, permanent investment. Good planning pays dividends in comfortable, gracious living and creates high resale value in case of future sale.

After a floor arrangement is selected that will provide the greatest comfort and convenience for the various members and interests of the family, careful planning should continue with the use of first-rate building materials and equipment. Many new materials have been developed and old standbys vastly improved since the war. Only by use of the highest grade materials does a home builder get the fullest value from his dollar.

New ideas of architects and designers should be considered and used if they will add to the family's enjoyment of the home.

Chestnuthill Properties Change Hands

Sale of two properties in Chestnuthill township to a Long Island, N. Y., man was filed here yesterday at the office of Register and Recorder Floyd Butz.

Lillian M. and Edward Frank, of Chestnuthill township, transferred title to the two properties to Hedwig Prochnow, of Glendale, N. Y. One of the properties includes a tract of approximately 65 acres.

Arthur L. and Mary J. Yetter, Smithfield township, conveyed title to a lot in Paradise township on a back road near Henryville to Carl H. and Frances E. Lilius, of Paradise township.

John N. and Ida M. Belcher and Edward L. and Helen E. Belcher, all of Stroud township, transferred title to a lot in that township to Charles D. Waltz, of 798 Ehler St., while Milton and May Singer, Jackson township, gave title to a tract on the McMichaels road in Jackson township to George A. and Ada M. Bisbing, Chestnuthill.

Woman Driver Gets Offender's License Number

Fairmont, W. Va. (AP) — Police Sgt. L. M. Napple asked a woman driver, "Did you get the other car's license number?"

"You're doggoned right I did," snapped the woman who said that her vehicle was struck by a man backing his car from a parking lot.

"And here it is," she added, tossing a battered license plate onto the sergeant's desk.

The woman told officers that the other driver, when accused of striking her car, muttered a harsh invective and gave her a shove which knocked her to the pavement.

The woman, in climbing to her feet, simply grabbed the license plate of the other car and tore it loose, she reported.

Pocono Playhouse Announces Productions For Fifth Year

Mountainhome—The curtain will rise to open the fifth season of the popular Pocono Playhouse, in Mountainhome, on Monday night, June 18, according to an announcement yesterday by Rowena Stevens, producer-manager.

Situated in the heart of the Pocono Mountains, 15 miles north of Stroudsburg, the playhouse has taken top place among the summer theaters in the East for the quality of its productions which have featured outstanding Broadway and Hollywood personalities, supported by all-professional casts, in the great Broadway plays.

Mrs. Stevens will present as the first production this season, George Bernard Shaw's lively comedy "Candida," starring Hollywood's great dramatic actress Olivia de Havilland, twice winner of the Motion Picture Academy award. The play, written in Shaw's inimitable style, is considered one of the wisest and finest of all modern comedies and tells the story of a young woman with brains and compassionate understanding who must make a choice between her husband and an adolescent poet who has fallen in love with her. The delightful manner in which the situation is handled can only emanate from the pen of Shaw.

Mrs. Stevens also announced that among the plays scheduled throughout the season include "The Royal Family," starring Ruth Hussey; "Rain" with Lawrence Tibbett; "Second Threshold," with John Loder; "Junior Miss" starring Margaret O'Brien; "Here Comes Mr. Jordan" with Dane Clark; "Susan and God," starring Joan Bennett.

Richard Bender and John O'Shaughnessy, both of whom are well known to playhouse audiences will share directional duties during the season.

The box office at the Pocono Playhouse opened yesterday under the supervision of John Staley, of Yale University, and LaMar Clark.

Season tickets are again available for the convenience of playgoers and may be ordered by calling Cresco 8401 or by letter addressed to the playhouse.

Senator Capehart To Speak At Republican Day In Monroe

Speaker at the Republican Day banquet on June 12 at Shawnee Inn will be U. S. Senator Homer Capehart, it has been announced by Mrs. J. Russell Custard, president of the Monroe council, which with the Barrett and Mount Pocono councils, is sponsoring the big celebration.

Senator Homer Capehart

Mr. Capehart, a native of Indiana, first won national prominence through his sponsorship of the Republican "cornfield conference" in 1938 held on his farm near Washington, Ind. In 1940 he directed the arrangement for the notification of Wendell Willkie, and in 1944 was elected to the United States Senate and reelected in 1950.

He is a member of the Senate Interstate and Foreign Commerce committee and is ranking Republican member of the Senate Banking and Currency committee.

A manufacturer, farmer as well as U. S. Senator, Capehart has been active in civic, political and patriotic drives and received the VFW distinguished service medal in 1942.

He is a member of the American Legion, Chamber of Commerce, Masonic order, 32nd degree, and a Shriner; a life member of the Loyal Order of Moose, as well as a member of the Eagles and the Elks.

He has three children, Homer Earl Capehart Jr., an attorney in Indianapolis; Thomas, an engineer and manufacturer, and a daughter, Patricia, who is a student at Maryland University.

Also to be featured at the banquet will be the crowning of a Mr. and Miss Republican from a group of teen-age candidates. Essays of contestants will be judged this next week and prizes awarded the winners. On addition the candidates are planning a quick but intensive electioneering campaign leading up to the election on Wednesday, June 9, at the YMCA when Mr. and Miss Republican will be selected, by majority vote. Some of the youngsters have had electioneering cards printed and will be doing door-to-door canvassing for votes. Winners of the contest will be given a trip to Harrisburg where they will be luncheon guests of the Governor, and tour the capital and other points of interest.

Some tickets are still available for the banquet for which dress will be optional, Mrs. Custard announced.

Around The Stroudsburgs

Mrs. Hattie Mack, of North Hills, Philadelphia who was formerly the wife of the late Rev. A. W. Buck, of Keokee Chapel, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Charles Neyhart, of 70 Smith St., Stroudsburg, over the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Setzer, of 425 Normal St., East Stroudsburg will celebrate their 15th wedding anniversary on Decoration day, Wednesday, May 30.

Mrs. Nelson T. Beers, of Sarah St., Stroudsburg, is entertaining as her guests Amy Beers, R. N., former vice president of the American College of Hospital Administrators, and retired superintendent of the Hackley hospital, Muskegon, Mich., and Adelaide P. Beers, R. N., B. S., director of the Burlington Protestant hospital, Burlington, Iowa.

Miss McFall President Of Bangor BPWC

Bangor — Miss Beulah McFall was last night elected president of the Bangor Business and Professional Woman's club at a dinner meeting held at the Colonial hotel. She will succeed Miss Ruth Frederick, retiring president who presided at the meeting.

Other officers elected included Mrs. Marion Pritchard, first vice president; Miss Lottie Jewell, second vice president; Mrs. Adele Van Syckle, recording secretary; Miss Kathryn Shanahan, corresponding secretary; Miss Evelyn Rimel, treasurer.

Miss McFall was appointed delegate to the state convention to be held in Philadelphia on May 22.

It was reported that 82 street markers, special project of the club, had been erected in Bangor to date.

J. W. Yoder, of Huntingdon, Pa., was the guest speaker having as his topic "Amish Life and Culture." The entertainment also included three soprano solos by Miss Jean Fratelle Pinto with Miss Leila Flory as her accompanist.

Girl Scouts Have Cook-out

Troop 32, East Stroudsburg Girl Scouts, yesterday held a picnic supper meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Hartman, Cherry Lane, when they cooked their supper over a fire, and learned to lash sticks together to make outdoor cooking equipment and camp.

Plans were made for a swimming party and camping trip on June 11. Mrs. Harry Heller, troop leader, was assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Hartman and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Repsher.

Susan Harmon Heads Youth Group

Susan Harmon was elected moderator of the Junior Youth Fellowship of the Stroudsburg Presbyterian church at a picnic supper meeting held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Turner on Sunday afternoon.

Other officers elected for the coming year included Nancy Westbrook, vice moderator, and Martha Williams, clerk.

Patients, Visitors, Staff Find Hospitality In New Shop At General Hospital

The Hospitality Shop at the General hospital is earning its title in the few weeks it has been opened to the public. Tucked into one of the rounded bay windows of the new wing of the hospital, it is a cheerful room, done in shades of blue and peach, with blonde furniture, the soda fountain, two tables and matching chairs, and the gift counters.

The hostesses come dressed in shades of peach, too, in the uniform for the sixty-some volunteers who assist the regular staff in serving patients, hospital personnel and guests who make use of the shop.

And they are making use of it in many ways. Light lunches provide breakfasts, luncheons and suppers for the families and friends of the patients, for the nurses on special duty, for the Grey Ladies on volunteer duty.

The fountain, too, has proved popular with doctors finished with their rounds, with members of the staff going off duty, and with visitors generally at the hospital.

Then there's the gift corner with cards, stationery, baby clothing, toys for children, and a stock of personal items which many a patient has forgotten in the rush to get to the hospital. There are nailfiles and toothpaste and shaving cream and razor blades and shoe strings and a number of other items.

For the convenience of the patients, two hospitality carts, stocked with the items most desired by the patients will be wheeled through the hospital each day by volunteers from the Junior Woman's club, one of the many organizations cooperating in providing volunteers for service.

Mrs. George Hauser, chairman of volunteers, has a list of about sixty women, and the list is still incomplete, who wish to help in the shop.

The Hospitality shop is open from 10:30 a.m. to 8 p.m. on weekdays and from 1 p.m. to 8 on Sundays. All of the help is volunteer with the exception of the staff, comprised of Mrs. Gilbert Barthold and Mrs. Park Rockwell, who add volunteer hours to their regular schedule.

Among the local women who have been serving during the opening weeks have been Mrs. Henry Reader, Mrs. Russell Imbt, Mrs. David Katz, Mrs. Alice Smith, Mrs. Nathan Kunkle, Mrs. Nevin Dorshimer, Mrs. Albert Scavo, Mrs. Paul Dellaria, Mrs. Gordon Savage, Mrs. George Rung.

Mrs. Samuel Perla, Mrs. Leon Koster, Miss Bess Gardner, Mrs. Edwin Dexter, Mrs. Eli Travis, Mrs. Fred Davis, Mrs. Thomas Breitwieser, Mrs. Harold Edwards, Mrs. Joseph Noonan, Mrs. F. Lynn Lantz, Mrs. Charles Grace, Mrs. Dorian Jaggard, Mrs. M. Ellsweig.

Mrs. Harold Meixell, Mrs. Samuel Snyderman, Mrs. Montgomery Crowe, Mrs. Edward G. Kenney, Mrs. Ralph Scheirer, Mrs. John Teisher, Mrs. Harold Stiff, Mrs. William Gorman, Mrs. LeRoy Bush, Mrs. Albert Buenzli, Mrs. John Moore, Mrs. Nathan Meyer, Mrs. Herman Muranski.

Mrs. Bernice Lemishow, Mrs. Carrie Slutter, Mrs. Dudley King, Mrs. Hugh Brannum, Mrs. Henry Tucker, Mrs. Harry Alberts, Miss Frances Everitt, Mrs. Dolores Cohen, Mrs. George Marsh, Mrs. Joseph Andre. The list is still to be completed.

Mrs. Hauser expects when the schedule has been fully set up to have each volunteer serve one shift one day a week. The morning shift runs from 10:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. and from 3:30 to 8 on weekdays and on Sunday from 1 to 5 and from 5 to 8.

Junior Choir Has Party At Sandy Beach

Members of the junior choir of the Stroudsburg Presbyterian church were the guests of their directors, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Farmer at a picnic on Saturday afternoon at Sandy Beach on the Delaware above Shawnee.

Swimming, a baseball game between teams captained by Rev. Ernest T. Campbell and Robert Shell, and a picnic supper were features of the afternoon for the youngsters. John Farmer, young son of the directors, was a popular guest.

Hoffstadts Celebrate Silver Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. John Hoffstadt who are today marking actual anniversary of their wedding twenty-five years ago, were the guests of honor at an informal party on Sunday afternoon at their home when about fifteen friends and relatives helped them celebrate their silver anniversary.

They received many gifts and a picnic supper was served. They were married May 29, 1926, in the historic Memorial Reformed church by Rev. John Diefenderfer of Easton.

Guests on Sunday included relatives and friends from Easton, and their daughter-in-law, Margaret Kemmerer Hoffstadt. Earlier they received a gift from their son, Pvt. Gene Hoffstadt, now stationed at the Sampson Air Force base.

Wilson Lees Observe 30th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson D. Lee celebrated their 30th wedding anniversary on Saturday, May 26, which also marked Mrs. Lee's birthday. Relatives and friends had been invited to help them celebrate.

Games and refreshments were enjoyed and they received many gifts. Those attending were: Mr. and Mrs. Wilson D. Lee, Ida Lee, John Lee, Mr .and Mrs. George E. Slutter, Mr. and Mrs. Philip D. Lee and daughter, Martha Ann, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Lockard, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lockard, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Lockard and children, Lanette Lockard and Robert Beehler, Mrs. Alfred Lee and son, Daniel, Mrs. Emmett Slutter, Mrs. Rod Kitchen, Miss Fern Kresge and Earl Huff.

Just Between Us

—By Bobby Westbrook

The celebrations for mothers this year are sort of stretching out longer than usual, which makes a happy situation, like getting a delayed Christmas present after New Year's.

First thing you know, though, they'll be coming up against Expectant Father's day. I thought it was a joke at first, but it's a very serious organization according to the announcement I received. Going to be celebrated nationally on June 16, and you're supposed to give them gifts and all.

What will they think of next? But around these parts, just now, every day seems to be children's day. More picnics and special outings than you can point a marshmallow stick at. And if all the hotdogs they've been eating were laid end to end, we could have that new bridge between the boroughs, and enough left over for a railing.

However, just for the record, tomorrow is Memorial day, and not to be confused with all these lesser "Days" that spot the calendar like measles.

Memorial day should be a day when we examine our hearts to see if we're worthy of the centuries of human courage and suffering and sacrifice that brought us here.

The elderly couple were married May 30, 1901 at the home of the bride's parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. Sebastine Brong of Brodheadsville, Pa., with two ministers officiating: the Rev. William H. Brong, then pastor of the Tannersville Reformed church and a brother of Mrs. Frable, and the late Rev. Henry Laurey, then pastor of the Brodheadsville Reformed church.

Mrs. Frable is the former Sallie Ann Brong of Brodheadsville She has been active with the Ladies Committee of the Pen Argyl Weona Park for the past 18 years and is a member of the Order of Eastern Star.

Mr. Frable is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Peter Frable of Kunkletown, Pa. He has been a blacksmith for fifty years and at present is employed at the West Albion Quarry, Pen Argyl, in that capacity.

The couple has one son, Russell, of Pen Argyl, and three grandchildren, John and Peter Frable, and Mrs. William Brown, daughter of the late Walter Frable and Mrs. Evelyn Hess of Bangor.

Mr. and Mrs. Frable, who have resided in Pen Argyl for the past 50 years will hold open house Wednesday from 2 to 5 p. m. and from 7 to 9 p. m. A dinner for the immediate family will be held at noon at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Frable, 501 Pennsylvania Ave., Pen Argyl.

Men's Council Launches Program Of Church Aid

Balancing practical and spiritual sides of laymen in church work, the Men's Council of the Stroudsburg Presbyterian church last night laid plans to help in renovating the church and heard a panel discussion by three of the members on "The Incomparable Book."

Walter McClelland, president of the council, was in charge of the business meeting when stress was put on the "Every Man" goal of the organization. The men also voted to adopt the proposition put by the trustees of the church to do actual work on the church building with supplies to be provided by the trustees.

Jonas T. May and Homer Heller were named delegates to the Presbytery election to be held June 6 in Easton.

Working from a program prepared by Mr. McClelland, Hayden Jones and Edward Williams joined him in a panel discussion on every-day application of the Bible to common experiences of life and the amazing accuracy of its prophecies and their fulfillment.

The meeting followed a supper at Wyckoff Recreation rooms.

Numismatist Honored

Fred Meitzler, of Stroudsburg, won an honorable mention for a large collection of gold at the first annual convention of the Tri-County Coin club held at Bossard's hotel, Lehighton, over the weekend. Coin collectors from Panther Valley, Lehigh and Monroe counties participated and displays, estimated at $50,000 worth, ranged from ancient Roman coins to modern dollar bills.

Junior Music Club Holds Election

The Junior Music Study club last night elected Charlotte Bach as its new president at the meeting held at the home of the retiring president, Ora Sutton, Prospect St., East Stroudsburg.

Other officers elected included Kathryn Ann Hickey, vice president; Marlene Michelfelder, recording secretary; Jane Lipe, corresponding secretary; Charlotte Herman, treasurer.

Miss Bach named the following committees to serve next year: scrapbook, Kathryn Palmer; membership, Marlene Michelfelder and Charlotte Bach; program, Ruth Tarr, Rochelle Sasszi; publicity, Ann Fleming; Kelly fund, Charlotte Bach; radio, television and movies, Emily Ebert; magazine, Charlotte Bach.

Following the business meeting, a program was given based in large part on Chopin, whose life Miss Bach reported. Miss Herman played as piano solos his "Waltz in G flat major" and his "Funeral March".

Other music included a clarinet duet by Carol Carpenter and Ann Fleming, "Air" from Rigoletta", by Ferdi; and Glenn Snyder sang "Be My Love" and "Blue Moon". The program closed with a piano solo of one of Beehoven's sonatas played by Marlene Mjchelfelder.

Dirigo Class Has Party For Mothers, Guests

Dirigo class of the Zion Reformed church last night held its annual Mother and Daughter dinner at the church where the large number of mothers and guests were entertained. Small plants were presented to each guest, and after the supper a program of games was held.

Mrs. Kenneth Risley, president, presided at the meeting. Mrs. Alberta Yutz won the lucky chair game, and Mrs. Clara Heller, Mrs. Russell Bush, Mrs. Bertha Risley and Marie Altemose took part in a story game.

Mrs. Alberta Yutz in a soprano solo sang "O Mother of Mine" with Mrs. Dorothy Dunn as her accompanist.

Miss Mildred Bauer, Bible club leader, was the chief speaker giving an address of inspiration, which was followed by "The Lord's Prayer" sung by Mrs. Yutz.

Mothers Are Entertained By Youngsters

The children of the combined second and third grades at the Clearview school taught by Mrs. Esther Frisbie entertained their mothers at a party at the school on Friday, May 25. The program included songs, poems, plays and dances and was followed by refreshments served from a table decorated in yellow and white.

There were a number of preschool children among the guests. Mothers present included Mrs. David Shiffer, Mrs. Ernest Horn, Mrs. Hazel Custard, Mrs. Elwood Smith, Mrs. Russell Bush, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Cyriax, Mrs. Repsher, Mrs. Walter Weber, Mrs. Robert Marley, Mrs. Robert Ford, Mrs. John Baird. Principal Clarence Transue was also a guest.

Borough Mails Tax Notices At Portland

Portland — The tax bills for the borough and the county of Northampton were mailed during the past week by the local tax collector, Mrs. Gwladys Carpenter.

The borough millage of 15 mills and the county millage of 11½ mills remained the same as last year, as does the place of collection and the date for collecting on Mondays from 5 p. m. to 8 p. m.

The discount period of 2 per cent runs to July 31, the net period to September 30. After October 1 a five per cent penalty is added to the bill. All occupation taxes that remain unpaid on October 1 are subjected to a wage attachment.

The school taxes will be mailed on July 1 and the millage of 18 mills and $5 per capita remains the same as last year. School taxes are two per cent period to September 1, net period to November 1, and penalty period of five per cent thereafter.

Wage attachments are the same as the county and borough after November 1.

Urges Fuel Hoarding

Washington (AP) — Secretary of the Interior Chapman asked in the name of defense yesterday that industries and homeowners buy their fuel for next winter as early as possible this summer.

Lancaster Cattle

Lancaster, (AP)—Cattle 2377, good grade fat steers sold at steady prices. Other grades 25 to 50 cents lower than last week. Calves 472, all grades steady. Hogs 1350, market barely steady. Bulk of sales $22.50, sheep 525, lambs are scarce, all grades sold slowly at barely steady prices. Market will close all day Wednesday.

Blast Injures Four Men On River Project

Livingston Manor, N. Y. (AP) — A premature dynamite blast yesterday injured four workers in a tunnel in the Delaware river water supply project.

Seriously hurt were Vance Coffey, 26, and Thomas Devaney, 29. Coffey's brother, Lee, 24 and Andrew Kurpil, 28, suffered less serious injuries.

All four men live at Liberty, and were taken to the Maimonides hospital there.

Joseph Aspenleiter, safety engineer for that part of the reservoir project, said several other men, slightly hurt by the blast, were treated by a doctor here.

Car Thief Gets Poisonous Cargo

Philadelphia (AP) — The thief who stole a blue Ford on Sunday night acquired some dangerous cargo.

In the trunk compartment of the car were several jars of biscuits and peanut butter containing a deadly poison.

The car belongs to George S. Brehm, president of the Hygienic Sanitation Co.

6,000 gallons, more or less, of bituminous material, Type C-1 or C-2 and 1,130 gallons, more or less, of bituminous material, E-1 or DL-2 applied to township roads as required, and 40 tons, more or less, of 1-B stone and 170 tons, more or less of 2-B stone, f.o.b. plant, for construction and 200 tons, more or less, No. 2 or 2-B for maintenance as required.

Proposal forms, Specifications, Form of Contract and instructions to Bidders may be obtained at the home of, or by writing to Arlie W. Kresge, Secretary, Board of Supervisors, Saylorsburg R.D. 1, Pennsylvania.

Road Materials specified herein, shall meet the Standard Specifications of the Pennsylvania Department of Highways.

The successful bidder, when awarded the contract, shall furnish a bond with suitable, reasonable requirements, guaranteeing the (work to be done) or (delivery to be made) with sufficient surety amounting to 50 per centum of the amount of the contract.

All proposals must be upon the form furnished by the undersigned.

The supervisors reserve the right to reject any or all proposals.

ARLIE W. KRESGE,
Secretary of Board.

NOTICE TO COAL DEALERS

The Board of School Directors of the School District of the Borough of East Stroudsburg, East Stroudsburg, Monroe County, Pennsylvania, will receive sealed proposals for contracts for delivery of approximately four hundred (400) tons of No. 1 or Grade A Fresh Mined Buckwheat Coal, 2,000 lbs to the ton; deliveries to be made to respective bins in the High School building on North Courtland Street and the Junior High School building on East Broad Street, all in the said Borough of East Stroudsburg, at any time previous to actual time of requirements as may be indicated by weather conditions during the coming Fall and Winter months and as storage space becomes available in the aforesaid buildings.

All bids must give the following information:

1. Commercial name of coal.
2. Name of mine
3. Location of mine.
4. Name and address of operator of mine.

Coal must not contain an undue amount of moisture, slate, stone, bone or dirt and no washery coal will be accepted.

All deliveries are to be weighed by a representative of the School Board and upon such scales as he may designate, payments for coal deliveries to be based upon such weights.

The successful bidder is required to enter into a written contract with the School District and to furnish a performance bond in the amount of one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) within ten days after the contract has been awarded, and upon failure to execute a contract or to furnish such bond within such time, the previous award shall be void.

All bids are to be in the hands of the Secretary of the Board not later than 5:00 o'clock P. M., Friday, June 8, 1951.

The Board of School Directors reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

BOARD OF SCHOOL DIRECTORS,
Borough of East Stroudsburg, Penna.
H. S. ECKERT, Secretary.

NOTICE TO BIDDERS

Sealed bids will be received by the Borough of Stroudsburg for painting the Sluge Drying House at the Stroudsburg Sewage Treatment Works.

Copies of the specifications may be examined at the office of the Borough Secretary in the Municipal Building, Stroudsburg, Pa.

Each proposal shall be accompanied by a certified check in the amount of $100.00 drawn in favor of the Borough of Stroudsburg. The certified check will be retained as liquidated damages in case the successful bidder shall neglect or refuse to enter into a contract in accordance with his bid.

The successful bidder is required to furnish a Performance Bond in the amount of fifty per cent. (50%) of the contract and a Labor and Material Bond in the amount of one hundred per cent. (100%) of the contract within ten days after the contract has been awarded and shall submit evidence of compliance with the Workmen's Compensation Laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and upon failure to execute a proper agreement or to furnish the bonds within such time or to submit the evidence of compliance with the Workmen's Compensation Laws, the previous award shall be void.

No bidder may withdraw his bid within thirty days after the actual date of opening thereof.

Sealed bids must be in the hands of Harold E. Snyder, Borough Secretary, Municipal Building, Stroudsburg, Pa., not later than 7:30 o'clock P. M. (E. D. S. T.) June 6, 1951, at which time said bids will be opened and read in open meeting of Council in the Council Room of the Municipal Building.

The Borough reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

Here is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your keynumber. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

Delaware Valley Speedway To Open Tomorrow

Charles Meets Maxim For Heavy Title

By Jerry Liska

Chicago (AP)—Light-heavyweight champion Joey Maxim will try to wrest the heavyweight crown from the man who beat him last, favored Ezzard Charles at the Chicago stadium tomorrow night.

The fourth meeting between these two lithe punchers, who'll be separated by only a pound or two in the low 180's, marks the eighth title defense by Charles. Both battlers ended conditioning yesterday, lean, healthy and ready for the fray.

Charles probably will tip 182 or 183 and Maxim about 181 at tomorrow's noon weigh-in.

Maxim, who likely will be a nine to five underdog at the opening bell (10 p. m. EST) still claims he beat Charles in their last bout more than two years ago. That was a 15-rounder at Cincinnati on February 28, 1949 won by fast-finishing Charles on a split decision. When both were fuzzy-chinned, youths, back in 1942, Charles won two ten-rounders from Maxim.

Last Defeat

The Cincinnati 15-rounder marked Maxim's last defeat. Since then, he has had a dozen bouts. Only two are worth mentioning. Joey claimed the American light heavy title by Gus Lesnevich in May, 1949. On January 24, 1950, Maxim knocked out England's Freddie Mills in the tenth round at London for the world light heavy crown.

Charles has lost only five fights in his entire career, bowing last four years ago in a ten rounder with Elmer Ray July 25, 1947, at New York City.

But Charles didn't bounce onto fightdom's glory until he whipped aged Jersey Joe Walcott for Joe Louis' vacated heavyweight crown at Comiskey park, June 22, 1949.

Then followed successful title defenses against Lesnevich, Pat Valentino, Freddy Beshore, Louis, Nick Barone, Lee Oma and Walcott. Charles' second meeting with Walcott was his last start, a 15-rounder that made the champion hustle for a decision at Detroit, March 7.

The two principals tonight are almost as well matched in age as in weight. Maxim is 29. Charles will be 30 on July 20.

Feller Blanks Tigers, 9-0

Detroit (AP) — Veteran Bob Feller pitched his second straight shutout last night as the Cleveland Indians battered the Detroit Tigers 9 to 0. The Indians got 15 hits off three Detroit pitchers and ended a four game losing streak.

Feller, who shut out Washington with two hits his last appearance, gave up six hits in winning his sixth game against one defeat. The big righthander also smashed a double and two singles to drive in two runs.

Circuit Smash

Cleveland's Luke Easter blasted his first home run as the Indians handed Ted Gray his fourth loss. Gray has one victory.

Every Cleveland starter except Larry Doby hit at least once. Snuffy Stirnweiss smacked three hits. Ray Boone and Jim Hegan each drove in a pair of runs.

Feller, the 32-year-old fireballer from Van Meter, Ia., has given up only 11 earned runs in 60 1-3 innings. He walked only two men and was in trouble only in the last two innings last night when two runners reached base each time.

Bangor High Finishes Season

Bangor — Bangor High school will wind up its baseball season this afternoon, when the charges of Coach Dave Thomas invade the home domain of Belvidere, N.J., High school, at 4 p.m.

Revenge

Belvidere won an early season decision over Bangor early in the present campaign, but the Slaters are hopeful of evening matters tomorrow.

Glenn Raph, righthander, is scheduled to do the pitching for the Bangor contingent.

Security Trust Wins Initial Game

Trips People's Coal In Little League

Stroudsburg Security Trust opened the Stroudsburg Little League baseball season with a bang last night by scoring a 15-2 victory over People's Coal Co. at Stroudsburg Playground. In the vicinity of first six men to face him on strikes, while allowing only three hits during the five innings he worked. Charley McNeal hurled the last frame for the winning contingent.

Paul Frailey hurled well, but the Security Trust club scored three times in the first inning and held the upper hand the remainder of the distance. However, Frailey did account for two of the three hits registered by the losing club.

Runs

Tonight's schedule calls for the First Stroudsburg National Bank to meet the Penn-Stroud Hotel, also at Stroudsburg Playground, at 6:30. There will be no game tomorrow.

Last night's program opened with a parade of players and interested parties from court house square to the playground, with the Stroudsburg High school drum and bugle corps adding to the color. Officers of the league also joined in the march.

Hal H. Harris, chief burgess of Stroudsburg, threw the first ball from the pitching mound, to officially open the campaign.

Twenty-Five Cars To Race On New Track

Delaware Valley Speedway will open as scheduled tomorrow, Memorial Day, at 2 p.m., with six events featuring the opening day card at the newest automobile racing track in Monroe county. More than 25 cars are scheduled to take part in the opening day festivities.

The dust proof track is a half-mile oval with a hard clay base and is expected to be in near perfect condition by starting time. The track will feature stock car racing only.

At the present time the seating capacity is somewhere around 1,000, but when the stands are complete they will seat in the vicinity of 2,500 paying customers.

Program

Three qualifying heats are listed on the agenda for tomorrow, with a consolation grind, a semi-final race and a final event to be run off in rapid succession.

Art "Lou" Williams, one of the track directors, announced that cars must meet safety specifications and those not up to specifications won't be allowed to race.

The track is located at the Stroudsburg - East Stroudsburg airport, on Route 209, about three miles from East Stroudsburg.

In addition to Williams, those behind the track are Junior King and Bill Howell.

White Sox Keep Rolling

Chicago, (AP) — The Chicago White Sox rode their twelfth straight victory into first place in the American League by defeating the St. Louis Browns, 4-2, before 23,138 persons here last night.

Pitcher Saul Rogovin, making his second start for Chicago, surrendered just two hits, both singles to earn his second victory as the rampaging White Sox raced to their eighteenth triumph in the past 20 games.

Two Markers

The White Sox mixed three hits, all singles, with a walk and Jimmy Delsing's throwing error for their first pair of runs in the first inning. Eddie Robinson's hit powered the first run, and Eddie Stewart scored the other on Delsing's miscue.

St. Louis loaded the bases with two walks and Rogovin's throwing error in the fifth. Then Hank Arft got across with a hit-less run after Bob Young flied out.

Cards Advance By Downing Pirates

St. Louis (AP) — The St. Louis Cardinals took over second place in the National League by defeating the Pittsburgh Pirates 6-5 last night with "Red" Schoendienst driving in the winning run with a single in the tenth inning.

Stan Musial hit a three-run homer for the Cardinals, and Ralph Kiner, George Metkovich and pitcher Cliff Chambers homered for the Pirates.

Tenth

Peanuts Lowry tripled to left center to start the Cardinal tenth. Two men were purposely walked and, after two Redbirds were forced at the plate, Schoendienst lined a single past David Bell with Del Rice scoring the deciding run. Bell apparently lost the ball in the park lights. The contest drew 9,757 fans.

The Pirates sent the game into the extra inning with a run in the ninth. Wally Westlake singled, advanced to third on a single by Danny Murtaugh, and scored on George Strickland's lazy roller to Schoendienst.

Life of Riley

By JIM RILEY
Sports Editor

East Stroudsburg State Teachers College received two of the best gifts it could ever hope for, when the 1951 graduating class presented the school with $904.36 at the Alumni dinner on Saturday night, with the instructions that the money be used by the school to obtain a new football scoreboard and a public address system for the gymnasium, two items that have been conspicuous by their absence in recent years. It was also fitting that the check should be presented by Alma Corson, one of the two three-letter athletes in the school during the past campaign.

Pocono A. C. is planning an outstanding schedule of exhibition games for the coming summer months, if they can arrange to have the lights turned on, or rather arrange for money or someone to go a $300 note for the organization. As mentioned previously, all the money will be returned providing the local Blue Mountain league meets each and every payment on the lights at the stipulated time. A game has already been arranged with the Endicott-Johnson Shoe Co. team, while plans have been prepared to play host to the House of David and the Kalamazoo Klowns.

The Monroe county entry in the Blue Mountain league has also prepared a nifty program, to be distributed during the remainder of the season, starting at Thursday's home clash with Johnsonville. The program will be passed out free of charge. Frank Radler's entry in the Florida State league is currently in second place but has been alternating with Leesburg between the number two and three spots. Evansville, Ind., the team with which Harry Warner, Reeders, plays first base, is currently tied for third place in the class "B" Three I league.

Irv Fortune, manager of the Nazareth Barons, North Atlantic league, last year, was named to pilot the Enterprise entry in the class "D" Alabama-Florida league last week. Lou Hummell, field general of the Berwick club, also of the North Atlantic league, early last year, left the Port Arthur team, of the Gulf Coast league, last week for his home in Pennsylvania. The Gulf Coast circuit is of class "B" caliber.

There was more than one member of both the Blue Mountain and Pocono Mountain leagues that wished they could do something about the weather on Sunday. All but one game of the nine scheduled in the two leagues was postponed on Sunday morning, when the rain was falling plenty hard. However, around noon the skies cleared and the sun came out brightly, drying everything until after 5 p. m., when it rained again. However, virtually all the clubs wished that they didn't have to call their games off at noon, as they could have easily played the contests.

However, research has failed to provide anyone who can do anything about the weather, especially on such short notice. Thursday has been listed as makeup day in the Blue Mountain league, while the four unplayed contests in the Pocono Mountain circuit will undoubtedly be held as part of doubleheaders at a later date. Although Stroudsburg's Little League season got under way last night, East Stroudsburg's circuit won't open until next week. Mayor Hal Harris' first toss at last night's Little League opener was a wild heave past the catcher.

The bleachers for the Little League field were taken from along the first and third base lines at Gordon Giffels field. However, there are still plenty of bleacher facilities for those who will watch Pocono A. C. in action the remainder of the season. At least one bleacher section still remains on both the first and third base lines at the full sized ball yard. Chet Lucki will be unable to pitch for Pocono A. C. for the next couple of games, due to a foot injury.

Stan Dudas, former member of the Shawnee Country club professional staff, is now at Fort Meade, Md., as a member of Uncle Sam's Army. Art Youngken, one of the mainstays on the Pocono High school baseball team during the past campaign, has signed to play with Tannersville, of the Pocono Mountain league, for the remainder of the season.

Sommers Hurls No-Hitter For Junior High

Jack Sommers hurled a no-hit, no-run game yesterday afternoon as East Stroudsburg Junior High school brought its 1951 season to a close with a 7-0 victory over Portland, on the winning team's home grounds.

Sommers was in complete control of the contest from start to finish, retiring eight batters on strikes in addition to hurling hitless ball.

Early Lead

East Stroudsburg took a one run edge at the end of the first inning, picked up one more in each of the third and fifth frames and then put the contest in the bag with four big markers in the bottom of the sixth frame.

Five of the seven East Stroudsburg runs were earned.

Bill Pensyl hurled a five-hitter for Portland, with Sommers and Counterman leading the way with two each. The big blow of the game was Counterman's triple in the sixth frame.

Pirates Acquire Maguire

Pittsburgh (AP)— The Pittsburgh Pirates yesterday obtained Jack Maguire, reserve outfielder for the New York Giants, on waivers.

The 26-year-old outfielder played in 29 games for the Giants last season and batted .175. To stay within the 25-player limit, Pirate officials said they would option Dale Long to one of their minor league clubs.

Red Sox Continue Streak By Nipping Yanks On Doerr's Hit

Boston, (AP)—Bobby Doerr's one-on homer enabled Mel Parnell to best Allie Reynolds last night as the Boston Red Sox gained their eighth straight victory by topping the championship New York Yankees, 3-2. Both of the New York runs were unearned. Rookie Gil McDougald impressed the 31,902 crowd by bashing four consecutive singles for the Yanks.

The Red Sox were limited to six hits, the last of which was a single that extended Dom DiMaggio's hitting streak to 16 consecutive games. Dom, however, was nailed when he tried to stretch it into a double.

The first Boston safeties were a Vern Stephens' single and Doerr's four-bagger in the second frame. It was his sixth of the season and it cleared the left field wall.

Deciding Tally

The deciding Boston tally came in the third, when Billy Goodman singled, advanced on Lou Boudreau's grounder and romped in from second base on Stephens' second and final hit.

Southpaw Parnell kept nine New York hits fairly well scattered and his own wild heave gave the Yankees their first run. It came in the sixth inning when McDougald slammed his third hit before Phil Rizzuto beat out a bunt. Parnell fielded it and McGougald came all the way around to the plate when the Boston pitcher threw wide to first base.

In the ninth, after Joe DiMaggio beat out a slow roller for his only safety in four tries, the Yankee Clipper moved to third on a pair of infield outs and then scored when first baseman Walt Dropo bobbled Gerry Coleman's hard roller.

Special Program At Blakeslee

Blakeslee — Pocono Sunrise Speedway will hold a special seven-race card here tomorrow afternoon, with the first qualifying heat scheduled to take place at 2:30 p.m. Last Sunday's card was washed off the books by rain.

Extra Race

The usual stock car racing program calls for six events, but due to the holiday celebration, another grind has been added to the program.

Braves Take Measure Of Giants, 4-1

New York (AP) — Bob Elliott homered after Willard Marshall lashed a one-on triple in the first inning last night to inspire the Boston Braves for a 4-1 victory over the New York Giants. The home forces' tally was provided by rookie Willie Mays' homer, his first major league hit.

The most potent of the Tribesmen's seven hits snapped the string of 21 consecutive scoreless innings the Giants had woven against the opposition, much to the dismay of 23,101, the Polo Grounds largest floodlighted gathering to date.

Marshall's three-bagger drove in Roy Hartsfield, who had opened the game with a single.

Homer

The 19-year-old Mays, hitless on his 12 previous trips, poled over the left field roof the first time he faced southpaw Warren Spahn in the bottom of the first. Before that spectacular rookie came up, Eddie Stanky had walked and been rubbed out when "Whitey" Lockman hit into a double play.

The Braves' fourth marker came in the third, when winless Sheldon Jones was replaced by Al Gettel. Singles by Marshall and Earl Torgeson drove Jones to cover and Marshall managed to get to the plate as Elliott hit into a double play. The latter protested that ruling so violently that he was ejected.

Slumping Phillies Fall Before Dodgers, 4-3

Philadelphia (AP) — Carl Furillo's sixth home run of the season in the ninth inning gave the Brooklyn Dodgers a 4 to 3 victory over the slumping Philadelphia Phillies last night. Ralph Branca was the winning pitcher as the Phillies went down to their fifth straight defeat.

The Dodgers made ten hits off lefty Ken Heintzelman, including Gil Hodges fifteenth home run of the season. Seven of the Brooklyn hits were for extra bases with Furillo contributing two doubles in addition to his game winning home run.

Heintzelman, though hit hard when the Dodgers met the ball, struck out 11 of the hardest hitting crew in the National league. The hard luck left hander, now loser of five and winner of one, was alternately brilliant and mediocre.

Improves Picture

Branca made Manager Charley Dressen's Brooklyn pitching picture a little brighter on this damp and rainy night as the big right hander won his first starting assignment since September 26, 1950. He allowed seven hits and walked only one. A half hour delay because of rain in the bottom of the eighth failed to cool off the one time premier pitcher of the National league. It was Ralph's second win against two defeats.

The Dodgers tallied their first run in the second on a single by Gil Hodges and a double by Furillo.

The Phillies matched this with the aid of a Billy Cox error in their half. Willie Jones doubled inside third base after one out. Gran Hamner lifted to "Duke" Snider and Andy Seminick rolled to Billy Cox for what looked like the third out, but the third baseman booted the ball. Mike Goliat singled and Jones scored.

The Phillies added two more in the third when Ed Waitkus walked, Richie Ashburn singled and Del Ennis doubled both home.

Hodges picked up one of these in the fourth with his fifteenth home run. It placed him three days ahead of Babe Ruth's homer pace when the Bambino hit 60 in 1927. The Brooks knotted the count in the fourth on doubles by Jackie Robinson and Furillo.

Schoonover Undecided On Hurler

Pocono A.C. will go in search of victory number five tomorrow afternoon, when Manager John Schoonover and company stack up against West Bangor, on the latter's home field, at 2:30 p.m. Monroe county's entry in the Blue Mountain league is currently sporting a mark of four victories and one setback.

Schoonover was undecided about tomorrow's pitcher, but did announce that the choice would be either Clint Besecker or himself. Both probable pitchers are veteran right handers.

Thursday

Although Schoonover wasn't certain of tomorrow's hurler, he did announce that Ray Steele, East Stroudsburg High school student, would do the pitching against Johnsonville on Thursday, at Gordon Giffels field. This contest is listed to begin at 6:15. Steele is also a right hander.

The remainder of tomorrow's schedule will send Tatamy against East Bangor, on the latter's home diamond, while Stockertown plays at Portland and Roseto invades the home domain of Johnsonville. Each contest begins at 2:30 p.m.

Thursday's schedule also calls for West Bangor to play at Stockertown and East Bangor at Roseto. In each instance the contest begins at 6:15. All Thursday night contests are games that were rained out last Sunday.

The Tatamy and Portland contest that was washed off the books on Thursday hasn't been rescheduled as yet.

Chisox Receive Royal Welcome By Home Fans

Chicago (AP) — The Chicago White Sox thundered home yesterday on the wings of their greatest road performance in American League history to a whooping welcome by fans parched by a 32-year Pale Hose pennant thirst.

The club was accorded a hero's welcome, replete with a gladhand by the mayor who proclaimed it "White Sox Day" and told Manager Paul Richards "All Chicago is very proud" of the team's 11-straight victory sweep through five cities.

A crowd of more than 1,000 rolled cheers through the La Salle Street Station as the Sox stalwarts detrained. Thousands more along the street applauded as a police escort roared them across the Loop to the city hall.

Happy Mayor

Mayor Kennelly beamed as Richards, vice-president "Chuck" Comiskey and a dozen players marched into his chambers for hand-shaking congratulations. Orestes Minoso, fleet Negro third sacker, came late. His baggage was lost temporarily at the station. So he did a solo handshake with "hizzoner."

At the station, one little girl waved a sign proclaiming "White Sox opponents never die, they just fade away." Perhaps the loudest salvo of applause was directed at shortstop Chico Carrasquel. After visiting the mayor's office, the brilliant fielding star from Caracas, Venezuela, had an injured shoulder X-rayed at Mercy Hospital.

Five Contests On Schedule

All ten teams in the Pocono Mountain league will swing into action tomorrow afternoon, as part of the Memorial Day celebration. In each case the contest will get underway at 2 p.m.

Among the top games of the day will be the contest between Reeders and Analomink, on the latter's home field in Henryville.

Agenda

Other battles on the holiday agenda will feature West End A.C. at Kunkletown, Saylorsburg at Lake Harmony, Barrett at Pocono Lake and Tannersville will be at home with Tobyhanna.

Sunday's agenda will also contain five games, featuring Kunkletown at Tannersville, in one of the top contests. Neither team has lost as yet.

The remainder of the slate finds Reeders at Barrett, Analomink at Pocono Lake, West End A.C. at Saylorsburg and Lake Harmony at Tobyhanna. Sunday's starting time is also listed for 2:30 p.m.

Receives Recognition

Washington (AP) — Archie Hindman, president of the National Boxing Association, announced yesterday that an NBA world's championship certificate has been forwarded to Jimmy Carter.

Thirty-Three Starters Ready For Action At Indianapolis

Indianapolis, (AP) — Chet Miller, 48-year-old veteran of 14 Memorial Day auto races, gave the youngsters a driving lesson yesterday in the final qualifying session for tomorrow's 500-mile event.

In spite of a gusty wind that whipped the turns, Miller paced the last six qualifiers with a ten-mile run at 135.798 miles an hour in a Novi V-8.

Only two drivers ever turned four laps of the speedway at better speeds. Duke Nalon, driving the twin to Miller's car, earned the pole position May 12 with an average of 136.498 MPH. That was the record till Walt Faulkner broke it a week later at 136.872.

Yesterday's session, added after a rainy weekend left the field unfilled, brought out 25 drivers in spite of dangerous driving conditions. Ten of them qualified but four were quickly eliminated by faster cars.

It was a long day for Cecil Green of Houston, Tex., whose 131.892 miles an hour was the slowest time of 27 cars that qualified before yesterday. But nobody turned in a better speed after the 33-car field was filled.

Second Best

Robert K. "Blazin' Bobby" Ball of Phoenix, Ariz., had the second-best speed of 134.098 in the new Blakely's Special. Speedway oldtimers rank him as one of the best prospects who ever drove the two and one-half mile track.

First Memorial Day starts also were earned yesterday by Joe James of Van Nuys, Calif., in The added starters besides Miller, who upholsters race cars in Glendale, Calif., when he isn't driving, were dominated by first-time qualifiers.

the Bob Estes Special, at 133.919; Andy Linden of Los Angeles, the Leitenberger Special, 132.227, and Bill Mackey of Indianapolis, the Karl Hall Special, 131.473.

"Duke" Dinsmore of Dayton, O., rounded out the field, qualifying for his fifth "500" at 131.974 in the New Brown Co. Special.

Temporary occupants of the lineup were Bob Swikert of Hayward, Calif., in the Marion Engineering Special, 131.224; Frank Armi of Hanford, Calif., Ross Page Offenhauser, 130.842; Bayloss Leverett, Glendale, Calif., Safety Seal Special, 128.329, and Jimmy Bryan, Phoenix, Viking Trailer Special, 124.176.

One smashup and a half-dozen near accidents were blamed partly on the strong wind and partly on drivers "going over their heads" in attempts to match the record speeds.

"Bud" Sennett of Los Angeles lost control of his Auto Accessories Special on the southwest turn, skidded into the infield and hit a tree. His injuries appeared confined to cuts and bruises but he was taken to a hospital for a checkup.

Joseph Barzda of New Brunswick, N. J., also slid into the infield in his Barza Special but came back for a second unsuccessful attempt.

Danny Kaladis of Chicago also was unhurt when his Rearengine Trainor Chicago Special, the one-time Tucker Torpedo Special, began belching smoke. He skidded to a stop in the east straightway and the car did not burn.

Sawyer Still Picks Phillies

Philadelphia, (AP)—Eddie Sawyer, the scholarly tactician who directs the fortunes of the Philadelphia Phillies, yesterday dismissed his club's losing ways as "just one of those things" and announced firmly that the Phils are still the team to beat in the National league.

That's no empty prediction, despite the fact that the Phils have lost four in a row and ten of their last 15. Sawyer is not inclined to make bold statements in which he does not believe.

National league champions last season, the former "Whiz Kids" have looked more like "Phiz Kids" so far this season.

Example

"But we'll snap out of it," Sawyer observed with a patience rarely seen among baseball managers. "Look at the Giants. They lost 11 in a row and now they're playing better than .500 ball."

The one-time college professor admitted freely that he can't explain rationally the slump of his ball club. At various times this season, the pitching, fielding and hitting have collapsed—and sometimes all together.

"Mostly it's the hitting," Sawyer said. "I had the team out at batting practice this morning, just like I do every time I have the chance. But we don't hit, even in batting practice."

Such reliable hitters as Del Ennis, Willie Jones, Granny Hamner and Eddie Waitkus have been soft touches for opposing pitchers in the clutch. Only Richie Ashburn and Dick Sisler have maintained any consistency at the plate.

"If I knew why these men weren't hitting," Sawyer said, a bit sadly, "I could retire as a baseball manager and be a swami. Frankly, I'd rather manage a baseball team."

Title Fight Planned

New York (AP) — A welterweight title fight between champion "Kid" Gavilan of Cuba and Billy Graham of New York may be staged in Madison Square Garden, August 1.

Harry Markson, managing director of the International Boxing Club, said Graham's manager has agreed to the date.

Bout In Making

Chicago (AP) — A middleweight championship bout between Sugar Ray Robinson, the title holder, and Rocky Graziano is in the making. James D. Norris, president of the International Boxing Club, said yesterday the date will be some time in September at the Chicago Stadium, possibly September 5.

"Farming with a McCORMICK* FARMALL* CUB sure beats Mule Farming!"

*McCormick and Farmall are separately registered trade marks of International Harvester Company.

See how much work you can do with a FARMALL CUB!

JOB	Acres per day
Plowing (moldboard)	3 to 3½
Plowing (disk plow)	2 to 2½
Middlebusting or bedding	6 to 8
Disking (tandem disk)	12
Harrowing (peg-tooth)	24
Planting cotton or corn (1-row)	8 to 10
Planting cotton or corn (2-row)	15
Cultivating cotton or corn	9 to 12
Mowing	12 to 15

You name the farming job—and chances are the McCormick Farmall Cub tractor can handle it . . . and do it better and cheaper than with two or three horses or mules.

This handy, low-cost tractor for farms of 10 to 30 or 40 crop acres will do your plowing, disking, harrowing, middlebusting, planting, and cultivating faster and easier than with mules. And you ride as you work! Extra crops from the land you've had to use to grow feed for mules will soon pay for this easy-handling tractor.

Ask us for a demonstration of the Farmall Cub with matched McCormick equipment and muscle-saving Farmall Touch-Control.

Remember when 40¢ bought a pound of coffee?

It's hard to buy anything today that sells at anywhere near the 1940 price level.

But there are a few exceptions. Telephone service is one.

Although Pennsylvania families can reach many more telephones than they could 10 years ago, they are paying only a few cents a day more for it.

Even if telephone service should cost more it still would be a much smaller part of the family budget than it was ten years ago.

In Honored Remembrance

ACE—In loving memory of our son and brother, Clarence Ace, who passed away June 1, 1948.
Three years ago you left us
So suddenly that night.
God took you in his loving arms and then,
Turned out the light.
We know your soul is resting
Well guarded by His love.
And we're waiting to join you again sometime
In that heavenly home above.
MR. & MRS. DURLING ACE
AND FAMILY

ARNOLD—In memory of the late Susan E. Arnold, mother of Anna K. Arnold Snyder, who passed away Nov. 14, 1950. Sadly missed by,
ANNA K. ARNOLD SNYDER.

BARRY—In loving memory of Oscar W. Barry, husband of Lucy Barry, Stroudsburg, who passed away Nov. 2, 1950.
I cannot say, and I will not say
That he is dead—he is just away.
With a cheery smile
and a wave of the hand
He has wandered into an unknown land
and left us dreaming how very fair
It needs must be, since he lingers there.
So think of him faring on, as dear
In the love of there as the love of here:
Think of him still as the same, I say:
He is not dead—he is just away.
LUCY BARRY

DENNIS—In memory of the late Harry A. Dennis, husband of Anna M. Dennis, East Stroudsburg, who passed away March 21, 1919.
ANNA M. DENNIS.

BITTERMAN—In loving memory of our dear husband and father, Leon Miller Bitterman, who died June 6th, 1949.
If all the world was ours to give
We'd give it all and more
To see the face we loved so dearly
Come smiling through the door.
Sadly missed by
WIFE AND FAMILY

BUTTS—In honored and loving memory of Staff Sgt. Butts, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Butts, killed in action in France, Aug 1, 1944.
KNOWLES—Arthur Knowles, husband of Effie Knowles, who passed away Sept 18, 1947
WILLIAMS—Dorothy B. Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Butts, who passed away May 18, 1947.
BREWER—Horace R. Brewer, husband of Laura Brewer, who passed away Jan 24, 1950.
All sadly missed and lovingly remembered by
PARENTS, HUSBANDS, WIVES, BROTHERS, SISTERS, AND CHILDREN.

DAHL—In memory of the late Mary E. Dahl, wife of Alvin Dahl, 527 Sarah St., Stroudsburg, who passed away May 16, 1949
FRANK S. WEISS.

DICKISON—In memory of the late Miss Ruth Elaine Dickison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Dickison, of 38 Stofflet St., Stroudsburg, who passed away July 28, 1939.
MR. & MRS. C. B. DICKISON.

DUCKWORTH—In fond memory of Harvey R. Duckworth, World War I Veteran, Father of Helen Miller, East Stroudsburg, who passed on July 24, 1942
Those happy hours we once enjoyed,
How sweet their memory still.
But death has left a loneliness,
The world can never fill.
HELEN MILLER.

DUTZAR—In the loving memory of my husband, Frank Dutzar, of Mt. Pocono, who passed away Dec. 2, 1949. Sadly missed by his wife,
ANNA.

EDINGER—In loving memory of Bernita I. Edinger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lavere Werkheiser, R. D. 3, Stroudsburg, Pa., who passed away May 21, 1948
Today recalls sad memories,
Of a loved one gone to rest.
And those who think of her today
Are the ones who loved her best.
Sadly missed by,
ALL THE FAMILY.

FISH—In memory of the late Shirley Getz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Getz, R. D. 3, Stroudsburg, who passed away June 1, 1950.
Do not ask me if I miss her,
For there's such a vacant place.
Oft' I think I hear her footsteps,
Or I see her smiling face.
For she left me broken-hearted.
Friends may think the wound is healed,
But they so little know, the sorrow
That is in my heart concealed.
Gone, but not forgotten,
MOTHER, FATHER, SISTERS AND BROTHERS.

FLANAGAN—In memory of the late Anna E. Flanagan, mother of Mrs. Leonard R. Norris, Stroudsburg, who passed away May 12, 1937.
MRS LEONARD E. NORRIS.

FRANTZ—In memory of the late Clinton Carl Frantz, Sr., husband of Leora Morgan Frantz of Scotrun, who passed away Feb. 18, 1951.
LEORA MORGAN FRANTZ.

FULLER—In loving memory of Catherine Hineline Fuller, mother of Mrs. Margaret Fuller Rehm, Delaware Water Gap, who departed Feb. 2, 1940.
We think of her in silence,
Her name we oft recall.
There is nothing left to answer
But her picture on the wall.
Sadly missed by
MRS. MARGARET FULLER REHM, HUSBAND & CHILDREN

GETZ—In loving memory of our dear daughter and sister, Catherine Evelyn Getz.
The flowers we place upon your grave
May wither and decay,
But love for you who sleep beneath,
Will never fade away.
Sadly missed by
MOTHER FATHER, SISTERS AND BROTHERS.

GROLL—In memory of our Mother, Josephine Groll.
A silent thought,
A secret tear
Keeps her memory ever dear.
MRS. GERLINGER, MRS. H. SCHMITS, MRS. N. THALER

HAMMERMAN—In memory of Clarence A Hammerman, husband and father, who died May 29, 1918.
Not lost, not dead, not gone,
Not even sleeping,
Tho we have laid in the grave with weeping,
No sharp despair our chastened hearts can fill,
For he is with us still,
WIFE, SON & DAUGHTER.

HARMAN—In memory of Clara Harman formerly of 23 N. Ninth St., Stroudsburg who passed away Nov. 29, 1945
FRANK S. WEISS.

HAY—In memory of the late Harold B. Hay, son and brother, who passed away December 6, 1948.
Deep in the heart lies a picture
Of a loved one laid to rest,
In memory's frame we shall keep it
Because he was one of the best.
Lovingly remembered by
MR. & MRS. HARVEY HAY, VERONA MICHAELS, LEONA FISHER, PAUL HAY, HARVEY HAY, JR. WILLARD HAY.

HEINEY and DETRICK—In memory of the late Nelson Wayne Heiney, son, was passed away May 17th, 1948 and Van Orras Detrick, father, who passed away May 13, 1944.
If all the world was ours to give
We'd give it all and more
To see the faces we loved so dearly
Come smiling through the door.
Sadly missed by
MRS. RUTH HEINEY

HELLER—In loving memory of a dear wife and mother, Florence M. Heller, who passed away August 25, 1950.
The years go by, but memory stays
As near and dear as yesterday.
Ever remembered and sadly missed by her loving husband and son.
FLOYD E. HELLER AND EUGENE HELLER.

HELLER—In loving memory of my brother, Robert W. Heller, who passed away Nov. 13, 1950.
He is gone but not forgotten,
And as dawns another year
In our lonely hours of thinking,
Thoughts of him are always near.
Days of sadness will come o'er us
Friends may think the wound is healed,
But they little know the sorrow
That lies within the heart concealed
Sadly missed by
MRS. IRENE ALGER

HELLER—In loving memory of Robert W. Heiler, Age 24, who died Nov. 13, 1950
His passing was so sudden,
The shock so severe,
Treasured memories often bring a silent tear.
Thoughts return to scenes long past,
Time goes on but memories last,
For all he knew he did his best,
May God grant him sweet peaceful rest.
Sadly missed by his parents,
WM. E. and ADDIE L. HELLER

In loving memory of our Mother,
Away from the world of sorrow
To the home of Eternal rest.
Your sweetness Mother, will linger forever
That beautiful memory of you.
MR. AND MRS MYRON SNYDER AND LORETTA

JOHNSON—In loving memory of our beloved Daddy, John E. Johnson, who passed away January 8, 1946.
Sadly missed by children,
DALE JOHNSON,
BETH JOHNSON,
GWYNETH JOHNSON.

KLINGER—In memery of the late Victor Klingler husband of Mildred J. Klingler, of 314 Race St., E. Stroudsburg, Pa., who passed away May 1, 1940.
MRS MILDRED J. KLINGLER.

KAUL—In memory of Paul R. Kaul, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Kaul, who was killed July 6, 1944.
The flowers we place upon your grave
May wither and decay.
But love for you
Who sleeps beneath
Will never fade away.
Sadly missed by
MOTHER & DAD.

LaBAR—In loving memory of my grandmother, Mrs. Annie M. LaBar, who passed away May 2, 1950.
If all the world were ours to give,
We would give it all, and more.
To see the face we loved so dearly,
Come smiling through the door.
Sadly missed by
MRS. IRENE ALGER.

La BAR—In loving memory of Mother, Mrs. Annie M., wife of Moses LaBar, Who passed away May 7th, 1950
She went away without farewell,
She said goodbye to none,
Her willing hands to toil no more,
Her work on earth was done.
She was loving, gentle, thoughtful and true,
Always willing a kind act to do,
Sincere and kind in her heart and mind.
What wonderful memories she left behind
MRS. ADDIE L. HELLER, Daughter.

LIGHTNER—In loving memory of Jeanne Lightner born April 21, 1927, who passed away February 26, 1939.
Sadly missed by
MOTHER, FATHER and BROTHERS

McCALLEN—In memory of the late William A. McCallen, father and husband of Jean Ann and Jean McCallen Swiftwater, Pa., who passed away April 29, 1951.
JEAN ANN & JEAN McCALLEN

MERKEL—In memory of the late Sgt. William G. Merkel, brother of Carl Merkel 487 N. Courtland St., East Stroudsburg, who was killed in service March 23 1945, on Luzon.
CARL MERKEL, Brother.

MOSTELLER—In loving memory of our husband, father and grandfather, Clarton Henry Mostoller who passed away on April 12, 1950.
He went away without farewell,
He said goodbye to none,
But Heaven's gate was open wide,
And a loving voice said "Come."
Beside his grave we often stand,
Our hearts are tired and sore,
But through the gloom
There comes the words;
"Not dead, just gone before."
Sadly missed by his wife, children and grandchildren.
CARRIE MOSTELLER AND FAMILY.

MUFFLEY—In memory of the late Le Roy Robert Muffley, son of Cora Muffley, East Stroudsburg, Penna., who passed away March 2, 1951.
Just a thought of sweet remembrance,
Just a memory sad and true.
Just the love and sweet devotion of one who thinks of you.
CORA MUFFLEY

OGDEN—In loving memory of my husband, James W. Ogden, who passed away on August 21, 1950.
If all the world were mine to give,
I'd give it all and more.
To see the face I loved so dear
Come smiling through the door.
(MRS.) JAMES W. OGDEN.

ONEY, In loving remembrance of our dear father, George Oney, who passed away September 13, 1934.
All earthly ties are broken
In life we meet no more.
Our thoughts are always with you, Father
On yonder distant shore.
Sadly missed by his children
TILDEN, HARRY, HAROLD, LA ANNA, VIOLA.

PANSY—In memory of the late Grace Pansy, wife of Anthony Pansy, of Stroudsburg, who passed away March 26, 1951.
THE PANSY FAMILY.

PEECHATKA—In loving memory of Walter C. Peechatka, husband and father of Lillian Peechatka and children, who passed away June 10, 1950
In memory a daily thought,
In heart a secret sorrow.
Ever remembered by
LILLIAN PEECHATKA AND CHILDREN.

PREDMORE—In loving memory of the late Florence Predmore, mother and wife, who passed away on July 22, 1939.
She was such a dear good mother,
So patient, kind and true.
There was never a cloud so heavy or dark
But she saw the sun shine through.
Lovingly remembered by
HUSBAND and CHILDREN

RICHARDSON—In loving memory of my mother Margaret Ellen Richardson, who departed this life August 13 1935.
Her memory is as dear today
As in the hour she passed away.
Sadly missed by
MRS. EVELYN LUDWIG.

SCHIERENBECK—In loving memory of my dear mother, Anna Unger Schierenbeck, who departed this life Sept. 15th, 1945.
Long years have passed
Since God took you away,
To rest and peace at last.
Yet a smile is with me today,
Sadly missed by
DAUGHTERS ANN & ROSA

SHIVELY—In loving memory of my dear mother, Bertha Mae Shively of East Stroudsburg, who passed away February 19 1948
Dear mother you are not forgotten
Though on earth you are no more,
Still in memory you are with us
As you always were before.
Ever remembered by your daughter,
BEVERLY VAN GORDON.

SINGER—In reverent memory of Anna B. Singer, wife and mother of Morris Singer and Essie Schafer, who passed on August 3, 1950.
Dear Mom:
Lonely is the path,
We miss you more each day.
Your flowers are blooming,
To the children we say:
You're not gone,
You've just gone away.
POP, ESSIE and FAMILY.

SMITH—In memory of Chas. W. Smith, husband and father of Mary Elizabeth Smith and children of East Stroudsburg, who passed away on May 26, 1950.
Nothing can ever take away
The love a heart holds dear.
Fond memories linger every day,
Remembrance keeps him near.
Sadly missed and ever remembered by
WIFE AND CHILDREN.

SMITH—In loving memory of George Franklin Smith, husband of Marguerite Kathryn Smith, Easton, Pa., who passed on April 8, 1950.
As certain as there's an afterward, dear,
(And I'm sure that there will be)
And since you have gone on before,
Oh, please wait there for me.
One lifetime was not enough
For the deep love we shared,
And it would not be Heaven, dear husband,
Should I fail to find you there.
So please wait close by the gate,
Don't venture very far
And when I come, we will spend eternity
Beyond some distant star.
Always loved, respected and remembered by wife,
MARGUERITE.

SMITH—In loving memory of a dear daughter, Maryanne Smith, who passed away Dec 30, 1946.
In memory a daily thought,
In heart a secret sorrow.
Ever remembered by her loving
PARENTS, RUTH & WILLIAM, SMITH, SISTER & BROTHER.

STRUNK—In fond memory of Lillian Strunk, wife and mother, who departed this world February 10, 1950.
Into the sunset glow
But only for a little while.
Our loved one leaves our light
For just beyond the hill she waits,
In God's eternal light.
Sadly missed by
HUSBAND & CHILDREN.

TRACH—In memory of Clayton Trach, husband of Blanche Trach of Stroudsburg, who passed away June 14, 1950
What would I give
To clasp his hand.
His happy face to see.
To hear his voice.
To see his smile
That meant so much to me.
BLANCHE TRACH.

VAN WHY—In memory of the late Harry V. VanWhy, father of Mrs. Adelaide Labar, East Stroudsburg who passed away on July 29, 1950.
I have only your memory, dear father,
To remember my whole life through;
But the sweetness will linger forever
As I treasure the image of you.
Ever remembered by his Daughter
ADELAIDE LABAR

National Head Of Exchange To Speak Here

Judge D. Russell Bontrager

An Indiana jurist will be the guest of honor and principal speaker at the 1951 convention of Pennsylvania State Exchange clubs, scheduled for May 31-June 2 at Buck Hill Falls.

He is Judge D. Russell Bontrager, currently a member of the Indiana State Senate.

Judge Bontrager is national president of the Exchange club.

Judge Bontrager achieved success in the handling of juvenile delinquency cases while he was judge of the juvenile court and public prosecutor of Elkhart county, Ill.

By reason of his activity as a member of the Exchange club of Elkhart in setting up a youth center in his home city, he became a national figure in the movement for the control and prevention of juvenile delinquency.

Judge Bontrager was the first president of the Exchange club of Elkhart, which was formed in 1939, and served for three successive terms.

In 1944 he was appointed chairman of the Youth Study panel of the National Committee on Education. He was elected national Exchange president during the 1950 convention.

Soldier Sails For Europe

Acme Hose Co. To Conduct Memorial Rites For Swetlin

Members of Acme Hose Co., East Stroudsburg Fire department, are asked to report at 9 a. m. Wednesday at the fire house for the annual memorial service for their late comrade, Ernest Swetlin, who lost his life in action during World War Two.

All firemen are requested by Thomas Sexton, president, to wear their uniforms. Services will take place at the late Mr. Swetlin's grave in Prospect cemetery.

Appropriate memorial services will be held with Rev. William F. Wunder, pastor of Grace Lutheran church, in charge.

The ocean-bottom animal, the brittle star, has five arms which may reach two feet in length.

Choral Group To Sing At Club Meeting

Stroudsburg Rotary club members, who heard an excellent concert by Numa Snyder's Stroudsburg High school mixed chorus last week, will hear East Stroudsburg High school's boys' chorus this Thursday.

Jess Haynes, program chairman, said the chorus will feature John Eaton. Glen Snyder and Richard Van Why as soloists.

A committee is now arranging a night dinner meeting honoring District Governor Walter S. Peeney, whose term in office is now closing after an outstanding year of service. He is the only district governor out of the Stroudsburg club. Tentative date is June 28.

Congress Lays Foundation For UMT

Conferees Agree On Draft Bill

Washington (AP) — A Senate-House conference committee reached agreement on a new draft bill yesterday and laid foundation for universal military training (UMT) in the United States.

The compromise legislation would drop the minimum draft age from 19 years to 18½ and keep the Selective Service system going until July 1, 1955.

It would also set up the framework for universal military training, with the proviso that Congress shall take a second, long look at the idea before putting any program into effect.

Before the deadlock on the Senate-House bills can be broken completely, however, the compromise measure must be approved by both chambers.

Senator Russell (D-Ga), chairman of the Senate Armed Services committee, and Rep. Vinson (D-Ga), head of a similar committee in the House, expressed confidence that the machinery for UMT would be in effect by the end of this year.

The actual training program is not expected to start until the end of the Korean emergency.

The present draft law expires July 9. Dropping the draft age from 19 to 18½ makes about 500,000 more youths eligible for military service, but the conferees predicted that few younger than 19 would be inducted for a long time, if ever. The bill provides that all those available in the 19 to 26 year group must be called first.

Under the compromise, a five-member commission on National security training would have general supervision of the UMT program. This authority would not extend to the specific details of military training.

The commission would be appointed by the President, but would have to be confirmed by the Senate. Three would be civilians with not more than two from any one of the major political parties. Two would be active or retired military men.

Within four months, members of the commission would be requested to submit legislative recommendations to the Armed Services committees of both houses of Congress.

It is at this point that Congress would take its second look at UMT.

Individual UMT trainees would get their drilling either in the Army, Navy or Air Force. They would be liable for a total of eight years of service, counting time in the reserves. Thus if their training period lasted six months, as provided in the compromise bill, they would have to spend an additional seven years and six months in the reserves. Pay during training would be $30 a month.

Local draft boards would induct young men into UMT, beginning at age 18. A deferment system would be established along the lines of that now applicable to the draft.

Other points settled yesterday by the conferees involved the length of service of members of the inactive and volunteer reserves. They agreed these reserves must be released at their own request after serving 17 months if they previously had had one year's service in World War Two. The provision applies to both enlisted men and officers. It would not apply to national guardsmen and organized reservists.

These other provisions had been agreed on earlier by the conferees:

Registration of all youths at age 18. Draft boards would have to classify them before they reached 18½.

A manpower ceiling of 5,000,000 for the armed services. The Senate had voted for 4,000,000; the House bill had no limit. The present administration goal is 3,500,000.

Require draftees to serve 24 months. The present period now is 21 months.

Man, 36, Weds; Becomes His Own Grandpa

Hague, Sask, (AP)— Cornelius Friesen, 36, married his grandfather's widow Sunday night, thus becoming his own grandpa.

A crowd of more than 700 jammed the Pentecostal church at nearby Grunthal to witness the ceremony.

The bride was Mrs. Sarah Friesen, 42, whose husband died a year ago, aged 85.

Mrs. Friesen was married to her late husband — her new husband's grandfather — for 14 years and had one son, now 12, who was Cornelius Friesen's step-uncle and now becomes his step-son, too.

Army To Call Only 15,000 Men In July

Washington (AP) — The Army issued a draft call yesterday for 15,00 men in July.

This is the smallest number requested for any one month since the new Selective Service program began.

The Army drafted 80,000 men in January and the same number in February and March. It drew 40,000 a month in April and May, fixed a total of 20,000 for June and 22,000 for August of this year.

Reduced casualties in Korea and increasing volunteer enlistments, the Army said, are the main factors in the declining draft figures.

Under the present program, at the end of August, 377,000 men will have been drafted into the Army this year. The Navy, Marine Corps and Air Force have not called on Selective Service for draftees in 1951.

The Navy—the only service still calling enlisted reservists individually—said yesterday it will order up 3,000 non-rated reservists a month starting in August.

These men will get a maximum eleven weeks boot training, the Navy said, although some with prior active service will get less. They will all serve a total 21 months active duty.

Malik Blasts Peace Hopes

United Nations, N. Y. (AP) — Soviet Delegate Jacob A. Malik yesterday knocked down as "completely groundless" reports that he or the Soviet Union had put out Korean peace feelers to the United States, directly or indirectly.

In a terse comment issued through a Soviet delegation spokesman, Malik thus put the clincher on a series of denials from all sides. The rumors had persisted even though the United States, U. N. and other officials had insisted the Soviet Union and Malik were not making any peace bids.

Delegates familiar with Russian thinking speculated that Malik's action was intended to clear the way for attacks on the United States and the U. N. policies in Korea during June, when he will be president of the Security Council. They reasoned he could not logically assail the U. S. while reports were flying around that he wanted to talk peace with the Americans.

These delegates recalled that Malik tied up the Security Council during his last term as president last August. With Chinese Communist armies in retreat and the U. N. forging ahead, the delegates wondered what tack Malik would take this time in the council president's chair.

Court Okays CBS Color Television

Washington (AP) — The Supreme court yesterday upheld the color television plans of the Columbia Broadcasting system, opening the door to a new era in public entertainment.

However, legal technicalities alone could delay an actual start on color telecasting for 25 days, and it may be a considerable time before many American homes have color television.

In New York, CBS said that "within a few months (it) expects to be producing a substantial schedule of color programs." Materials shortages may prove a big damper on the new effort.

TV sets already in use will have to be adapted before they can receive CBS color telecasting, either in color or in black and white.

The supreme court, by an 8-1 vote rejected a plea by the Radio Corp. of America to set aside the approval given the CBS system by the Federal Communications commission (FCC). RCA argued its own competing system turned down by the FCC, was more in the public interest.

Under the CBS color television system, estimates are it will cost $50 to adapt present sets to receive color signals in black and white; and another $100 to receive color itself.

This was the big issue in the months-long legal battle over color TV.

RCA said its color system could be received in black and white without adjustments on present sets. But the FCC ruled RCA's color fidelity and texture were unsatisfactory. It said CBS color was "most satisfactory."

Earlier, a special three-judge federal district court in Chicago upheld CBS and the FCC by a 2-1 vote. At the same time the lower court ordered CBS to hold back actual broadcasting pending an appeal to the Supreme court.

The Supreme court continued that stay until its decision is transmitted to the district court. That takes 25 days.

Meanwhile, RCA may go before the Communications commission and claim new developments have improved its color TV. Only last May 2, RCA demonstrated a new color system in New York.

Labor Committee To Press For Ceiling Boost

Washington (AP) — The United Labor Policy committee (ULPC) indicated yesterday it would press for a boost in the wage ceiling to at least 14 per cent above the Jan. 15, 1950 levels.

The ULPC composed of union representatives, took no formal action, but labor members of the wage stabilization panel hinted that they would be pressing for upward revision of the wage formula fixed last February 16.

Labor members walked out of the first wage board on that night when public and industry members voted to fix the limit of wage increases at 10 per cent above the January, 1950, levels. The labor unions had asked for at least a 12 per cent ceiling.

Now, they said, living costs have risen almost two per cent more, and a 14 or 15 per cent formula would be justified to guide stabilization efforts of the next few months.

Tomb of Unknown Soldier, Arlington National Cemetery

Parade, Followed By Services, To Highlight Community's Observance Of Memorial Day

A six-division parade by veteran, patriotic groups, armed forces reservist units, school and Scout groups and as many musical units will march from Stroudsburg to Prospect cemetery, East Stroudsburg, starting at 9:30 a. m. tomorrow for Memorial day services honoring the dead of all wars.

In case of rain, all units will report to Stroudsburg High school for memorial services.

Howard Mount, who announced details of the parade and services, again urged all citizens and business interests to display the American Flag on Memorial day as a tribute to the veterans who have died.

Parade will form on Ann and Williams Sts., Stroudsburg, at 9 a. m. and move away promptly at 9:30 a. m., for East Stroudsburg. In that borough marchers will traverse Washington, S. Courtland, Crystal, Brown St., and Prospect to the cemetery.

Services will be held at the graveside of the late John Becker, who had been prominently identified with the American Legion, 40 et 8, Veterans of Foreign Wars. Mr. Becker had been manager of the local office of Pennsylvania State Employment Service.

Attorney Elmer D. Christine, judge advocate of the Department of Pennsylvania, Veterans of Foreign Wars, will deliver the Memorial day address.

Prior to the parade, around 8 a. m., Wednesday, American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars commanders, sergeant-at-arms and officers of the day, will place a wreath at the Doughboy monument, Court House Square, Stroudsburg. Taps will be sounded.

All Boy Scout troops, posts and cub packs are to be at the starting point for the parade Wednesday at 8:45 a. m. Robert Wilson, district commissioner, asked that all members of the groups respond.

Adonis Given Two-To-Three Year Term

Hackensack, N. J., (AP)—A red-faced Joe Adonis started a two to three-year prison term yesterday, the first in his long career as a mystery underworld figure.

"I'm not sore at anybody," the dapper Adonis said just before his sentencing for violation of New Jersey gambling laws.

Despite his lawyer's protests that he is a legitimate businessman, Superior Court Judge J. Wallace Leyden sent Adonis to jail, fined him $15,000 and suspended an additional four to five-year prison term.

Similar sentences were imposed on four of Adonis associates, all of whom were charged with operation of a $1,000,000 dice gambling setup in Bergen county, just across the Hudson river from New York.

They could have been sent to jail for 18 years and fined a total of $18,000 each on the charges.

Sentenced with Adonis were New Jerseyans:

Influence Increases

New York (AP) — More than a half billion people have come under the domination of the Soviet brand of Communism since the end of World War Two, and with the capitulation of Tibet to Communist China, Soviet Communism now dominates an area outside the Soviet Union of about 4,000,000 square miles.

Auto Dealers' Credit Terms May Be Eased

Washington (AP)— The government yesterday notified tire manufacturers they must get along on present reduced rubber rations until at least October 1.

The spare tire will not be restored to new passenger cars.

Meanwhile the nation's auto dealers won some support in a plea to Congress to ease credit terms for auto buyers.

Two members of the House Banking committee— Reps. Patman (D-Tex) and Brown (D-Ga) —spoke out in favor of more liberal credit terms after hearing complaints against the government's "regulation W."

As for rubber, the National Production authority told industry representatives that until the nation's rubber stockpiles are built up to a safe level "there can be no increase in the allocation of rubber for civilian use."

NPA also plans to issue an order not later than Thursday for controlling steel consumption by auto manufacturers in the July-August-September quarter.

The order is expected to cut steel tonnage for passenger cars and station wagons to 65 per cent of the early 1950 usage. The present order permits 75 per cent.

In another move, the government yesterday banned processors of farm products from profiting on inventories by applying the rising cost of things they add to the stocks they already have on hand.

The action by the Office of Price Stabilization is effective immediately. It applies to agricultural products selling below parity and which may rise in price. Farm products selling below parity are exempt from price control.

Reds Trail In Italy

Rome (AP)— Slowly mounting returns from Italy's municipal elections last night gave Premier Alcide de Gasperi's coalition the lead over Communists even in some sections of the northern Red belt.

Voters balloted Sunday and yesterday for town and provincial councils in 2,735 municipalities in 28 provinces, about one-third of Italy.

De Gasperi's Christian Democrat party and its allies appeared to have made substantial gains over the Reds in the biggest test of political strength in three years. At midnight, Interior Minister Mario Scelba said the Christian Democrats had won two-thirds of the first quarter of the provincial council vote counted up to that time.

The government swept the premier's native province of Trentino and was ahead in first returns from Brescia, Milan and even in Bologna—known as "the Red" because of its position as a Communist citadel.

New York Store Reacts To Law Upsetting Fair Trade Laws By Cutting Many Prices

New York, (AP) — R. H. Macy and Co., one of nation's largest department stores, last night announced price cuts of six per cent on 5,978 price-fixed items of name brand merchandise.

Approximately 1,000,000 pieces of merchandise were being marked down last night. The cuts will be effective today.

Richard Weil Jr., Macy executive, said the price cuts resulted from the May 21 decision of the Supreme court holding that nonsigners of agreements with manufacturers are not bound by fair trade laws in 45 states.

Full page advertisements appearing today will carry specific listings of over 100 widely varying items comparing the previous day's price-fixed tags with the new prices.

The price reductions will apply to nationally advertised household appliances, drugs, books, sporting goods, children's articles, cooking utensils, men's articles and many other items.

Weil pointed out that Macy's never signed a fair-trade agreement and has been traditionally opposed to the practice of price fixing.

He added that Macy's expects to have no difficulty getting additional merchandise from brand-name manufacturers as the result of the price cuts.

Weil said the Supreme court's decision on fair trade laws "removed the power to compel us to keep prices up."

He added that the price cuts do not apply to radio and television sets, but, when any competitor cuts prices, regardless of the type of merchandise "we will meet that competition."

Liquor prices, which are not governed by fair trade legislation in New York state, are not affected by the new reductions.

Desperate Stand Permits Bulk Of Reds To Escape

Tokyo, Tuesday (AP) — Allied troops trapped and destroyed two Chinese Red divisions in central Korea in the past four days, the Eighth Army reported today.

But the costly Red stand—12,974 killed or wounded, 5,028 captured—in the center may have allowed the bulk of the Communists to slip back north of the 38th parallel. Today the Reds had stopped their headlong retreat and even counter-attacked in places.

The two Red divisions were encircled and eliminated as a fighting force northwest of Chunchon 45 miles northeast of Seoul, from Friday night through yesterday.

"The enemy pocket in this area has been cleaned up except for a few scattered Communist groups," an Eighth Army officer said.

More than eight miles inside Red Korea, north of this scene of slaughter, 300 Reds were killed last night by an Allied armored force. The force attacked and drove off Reds who had rushed U.S. infantrymen from high ground north of Hwachon.

A prisoner haul of 2,558 was made yesterday by Allied forces who have driven the Reds from virtually all territory gained in the Reds' two turned-back spring offensives.

Red resistence stiffened yesterday and today on the central front near Hwachon. The Communists showed signs of standing still and trying to halt the General Allied push across the 38th parallel into North Korea.

An Eighth Army staff officer said costly Red delaying actions probably have permitted many troops to elude United Nations traps.

The Allies were hampered by mud. The Reds were able to slip up roads and trails before the sloshing Allies could cut them.

Pursuing United Nations forces were driving four to 14 miles inside North Korea across the 125-mile wide peninsula. The Allied positions were about the same they occupied just before the first Red hammer blow the night of April 22.

In one week the Eighth Army offensive has eliminated Red penetrations ranging up to 25 miles below the 38th parallel. The total Red gains were from 30 to 40 miles.

However, field dispatches said 3,000 Chinese were in action last night against U. S. troops on the central front, west of Hwachon reservoir. That was roughly seven miles north of the old political boundary.

Frontline officers believed Chinese rearguards were attempting only to slow the Allied advance. They expected nothing more than a local enemy counterattack.

Other Red rearguards including many North Koreans, tried to stop the Allied advances on both the western and eastern flanks of the battleline.

A pooled dispatch from the east-central front quoted an officer as saying "the rout phase of the Chinese retreat seems to have ended."

"The enemy," he said, "apparently has withdrawn the bulk of the Chinese troops. North Koreans are being thrown into the line and they are slowinng our advance."

Allied troops pushing northwest toward Yanggu on the eastern end of the sprawling Hwachon reservoir gained only two and one-half miles during the day. They were hit by small arms and mortor fire.

The Allies in Inje were under sharp Red artillery fire. Inje is four miles north of 38 and 28 miles inland from the east coast.

Three Chicagoans Face Contempt

Washington, (AP) — George S. May, wealthy Chicago golf club owner, was reported yesterday to have refused to answer questions before the Senate Crime Investigating committee.

Chairman O'Conor (D-Md) told newsmen he will recommend contempt of Congress citations against May and two other Chicagoans, Murray L. Humphreys and Rocco Fischetti.

Humphreys and Fischetti have been identified by the committee as top figures in the Chicago Capone mob, reputedly one of the two major crime syndicates in the nation.

Committee members said Fischetti, claiming his constitutional privilege not to answer questions which might incriminate him, refused to disclose even how he traveled from Chicago to Washington for his appearance here.

Vandenberg Sees Chance To Avoid War

Washington, (AP)—Gen. Hoyt Vandenberg told senators yesterday there's a good chance the United States can avoid another world war and also win a negotiated peace in Korea without bombing Red bases in Manchuria.

But the Air Force chief of staff tempered this optimism by saying the U. S. now has only a "shoestring Air Force" which cannot be thrown into Korea in force while there is a danger elsewhere of attack from Russia.

He urged that the Air Force be kept intact and not used in a broader war against China as proposed by Gen. Douglas MacArthur.

Vandenberg gave this testimony to the Senate Armed Services and Foreign Relations committees in their study of the reasons behind the ouster of MacArthur from his Far East commands.

He said he agreed with the other Joint Chiefs of Staff that MacArthur had to be dismissed for his opposition to administration war policy.

A short time before, Russia's Jacob A. Malik said through a spokesman at New York that talk of Russian peace feelers at this stage of the Korean war were "completely groundless."

The chief Soviet delegate to the United Nations let it be known that his denial was to apply "fully" to all reports that the Soviets want to discuss an end to the war along the 38th parallel in Korea.

Vandenberg argued the Air Force must be kept in readiness to meet any attack that might be launched by the Russians. Discussing the MacArthur proposal to bomb Red China and Manchuria, he said:

"In my opinion, we cannot afford to peck at the peripherry as long as we have a shoestring Air Force."

Again he said: "I believe there are reasonable chances of success in achieving a negotiated peace without endangering that one potential that we have, which has kept the peace so far, which is the United States Air Force."

At another point, Vandenberg stated he believes the chances for avoiding an all-out war are good "up to today." He said the atomic bomb figures in his estimate of these chances.

The Air Force chief went on to say the Air Force doesn't have the strength at this time to bomb the Red bases in the Far East and at the same time be in readiness to meet the danger of attacks at home and in other areas of the world.

Witnesses Hit Segregation Rule

Charleston, S. C. (AP) — Witnesses, White and Negro, told a panel of three Federal court judges here yesterday that they believed that under segregation in schools Negroes never can have equal educational opportunities.

They added that segregation, discrimination and racial prejudices have an adverse effect on the emotional stability of both Negroes and whites.

Although the court test applies specifically to public schools in District 22 in South Carolina's Clarendon county, the case has far-reaching implications for the state and the entire south.

The suit was filed by parents of Negro children against Clarendon school authorities.

Escapee Retaken

Pittsburgh (AP) — Police last night captured Andrew Kaczynski, escaped Western penitentiary convict. He was found hiding under a bed in a home and was suffering from a bullet wound in the knee.

To Disclose Figures

Atlantic City, N.J. (AP) — Warren R. Austin, chief U.S. delegate to the United Nations, said last night the United States would disclose soon how many troops it would earmark for use by the U.N. in future emergencies.

88-Year-Old Woman Dies

Portland — Funeral services for Mrs. Amanda Engleman, 88, widow of Horace E. Engleman, will be held at 11 a. m. tomorrow at the Horton funeral home in Johnsonville with Rev. Merritt Godshalk, pastor of the Portland Methodist church, officiating.

Mrs. Engleman, last of her family, died Saturday night in the Davis nursing home here. She had resided in the Portland area for many years, and was the daughter of the late Jonas and Louisa (Gruber) Miller.

She was a member of the Portland Methodist church. Interment will be in Portland's Riverview cemetery.

Mrs. Smith, Portland, Dies At 64

Mrs. Mary A. Smith, 64, widow of Oliver H. Smith, one-time chief burgess of the borough of Portland, died at noon yesterday in Monroe County General hospital.

Mrs. Smith resided in Portland all her life and was born there, the daughter of the late Joseph and Anna Schilling. She taught in the Portland public school for years and was a member of the Portland Presbyterian church.

Mrs. Smith was the last living member of the Schilling family, and her only survivor is a daughter, Miss Dorothy Smith, also of Portland.

Funeral services will be conducted at 2 p.m. Thursday at the Horton funeral parlor in Portland. Rev. David R. Edwards, pastor of the Portland Presbyterian church, will officiate.

Burial will take place in Portland's Riverview cemetery.

Jr. Sportsmen To See Movie Thursday Night

Junior Sportsmen, a project of Pocono Mountains Sportsmen's association, will meet Thursday at 7:30 p. m. for a special entertainment program.

Feature of the meeting will be a 40-minute film in color titled "Fishing for Fun" and narrated by Ted Husing. This action film shows an expert fly and bait caster catching rainbow trout, bass, bonefish, tarpon and sailfish.

Meeting will be held in the Wyckoff recreation hall. All members of Junior Sportsmen are invited. They may bring guests to the session. The entire program is free.

Change Meeting Date

Meeting of Sunday school teachers and officers of St. John's church will be held tonight instead of Wednesday night, due to the holiday. Plans for the annual picnic and other matters will be discussed.

Bangor Pays Final Tribute To Hoffman

Bangor — Funeral services for John N. Hoffman, 78, prominent Slate Belt resident and a former State assemblyman for Northampton county, were held yeterday at the Stoddard funeral home, Bangor.

Rev. B. P. Giesske, pastor of the First United Evangelical church, officiated.

Other clergymen participating in the service were Bishop John Smith, Allentown; Rev. P. K. Cressman, former Bangor pastor now at Tamaqua, and Rev. George H. Seidel, of Easton, all of the United Evangelical church.

Interment was in St. John's cemetery. Pallbearers were Francis Spry, N. M. Male, Merlin L. Parsons, Clarence Doney, Arthur Pennington and Lionel Parsons.

Lions Club To Entertain School Band

Portland — The local school band will be entertained by the Lions club here at 6:15 p. m. Thursday at a meeting in the Columbia hotel.

The band will play a special series of numbers for club members.

Arrangements will also be made for placing trash cans ordered by the club for Portland, Mt. Bethel and Columbia.

Educational Workshop To Open June 25

The second annual seminar workshop for elementary teachers and supervisors will begin at East Stroudsburg State Teachers College June 25.

It will continue for three weeks with both morning and afternoon sessions.

Dr. Nathan G. Meyer, head of the department of education, is again acting as coordinator.

He explained the college this year is trying to make the workshop as varied and diverse as possible. Miss Josephine B. Kerns and Miss Marie C. Brown will serve on the regular instructional staff and 20 guest specialists and consultants will participate.

Dr. Meyer said there will be three additional points of credit given for permanent teacher certification.

Thus far, applications have arrived from the Stroudsburgs, Mount Bethel, Milford, Honesdale, Jermyn, Clarks Green, Ithaca, N. Y., and Atlantic City, N. J.

Pfc. Ocher With Army In Korea

Pfc. Robert E. Ocher, now stationed in Korea, has written relatives he is anxious to hear from all his friends in the Stroudsburgs.

He is the son of Mrs. Mary Ocher, 179 S. Courtland St., East Stroudsburg and was formerly employed by Pocono Textile Prints.

Ocher enlisted in the Army Engineers in August 1950 and received his basic training at Fort Knox, Ky. His address is:

Pfc. Robert E. Ocher, RA 13354481, Co. B., 8th Engineers, 1st Cavalry Div. (C) Bn., APO 201, c-o Postmaster, San Francisco, Cal.

Judge Delays Execution Of War Criminals

Washington (AP)— Federal Judge Walter M. Bastian yesterday stayed the execution of seven condemned Nazi war criminals until Tuesday, June 5.

In announcing the action, he said he had received a "few threats" because of a five-day stay he issued last Thursday. Yesterday's action extended the previous order.

Bastian granted the stay while he considers the question of whether his court has jurisdiction to review the case. The government contends it does not since the Nazis were convicted by a military court. Their attorney argued they cannot be executed since the West German constitution forbids capital punishment.

The seven Nazis are in prison at Landsberg, Germany.

Three Couples Seek Licenses

Three more couples have applied for marriage licenses here at the Monroe county court house office of Prothonotary Claude E. Metzgar, bringing the total number of applications filed in the first 28 days of May to 18.

Latest applicants are James Walter Becker, Bangor, and Doris Ann Gagnon, East Stroudsburg; Rudolph Montbellier, Fort Lee, N. J., and Martha Muriel Ridgeway, Philadelphia; Richard K. Snyder, Portland, and Elizabeth Jean Wagner, East Stroudsburg.

The roofing on the Portland Presbyterian Church which was so badly damaged in last Nov. storm is now completed and the work on the belfry is nearing completion. The belfry will be capped with an iron cross of a modified Formee type.

Thirty-two dollars was collected in the envelopes for the International Christian University in Japan by the Presbyterian of the Mt. Bethel and Portland charges. This was not a stated offering of the Churches but simply voluntary contributions to the great cause. Mt. Bethel is credited with 15 dollars and Portland with 17 dollars.

Mrs. Blair Rusling returned to her home on Saturday after being a patient at the General Hospital at East Stroudsburg.

The V. C. C. Card Club met on Friday night at the home of Mrs. E. Randall Carpenter on Delaware Ave. Bridge was enjoyed and prizes won by Mrs. Arthur Bartron and Mrs. Jay Quick. Refreshments were served to: Mrs. Lela Williams, Miss Agnes Williams, Mrs. William Smith, Mrs. Arthur Bartron, Mrs. Ray Transue, Miss Ruth Jones, Mrs. Harry Morgan, Mrs. Jay Quick, Mrs. Bert Transue, Mrs. Peter Tozzi, Mrs. Ethel Seeley, and the hostess, Mrs. E. Randall Carpenter.

Mrs. Mabel Collins, of Miami, Florida, will arrive at the home of Mrs. Lela Williams on Sat. and will be the guest of Mrs. Williams for sometime.

John Wernett Candidate For County Auditor

John W. Wernett

John W. Wernett, West End civic leader and resident of Saylorsburg, last night announced that he is seeking a Republican nomination for the office of county auditor in the July 24 primary elections.

He drew attention to the fact that he was one of four filing petitions for county auditor nominations before the May 21 deadline.

Mr. Wernett is president of the Hamilton Education group, justice of the peace in Hamilton township, secretary of the West End Lions club, secretary of the Pocono Mountain Baseball league since 1947, and he also served as district president of the Patriotic Order of Sons of America for several terms.

For the past 18 years, he has been an associate of J. Arthur Warner and Co., New York, N. Y. He holds degrees in law and accounting, and served in the U. S. Navy during the First World War. He was with the tank and artillery sections of the Ordnance department during the second world conflict.

Kirk Unaware Of Peace Talks

Paris, (AP) — Adm. Alan G. Kirk, U. S. ambassador to Russia, said yesterday he knows of no change in Russia's attitude toward negotiations with the west.

An embassy spokesman said Kirk had not seen Prime Minister Stalin before leaving on his current two-week visit in European capitals.

The spokesman quoted Kirk as saying he is "not aware that Moscow is any more willing to negotiate now than before."

Interpretation Of 7,911 Chest X-ray Films In Progress After Close Of County Project

Interpretation of 7,911 chest X-ray films is well on its way following the close of a mass X-ray project co-sponsored by Monroe County Medical society and Pennsylvania Department of Health with the cooperation of Monroe County Tuberculosis society.

Final X-rays were taken Saturday—a clean-up for all persons who had missed previously scheduled visits of either of the two mobile X-ray units sent here from Harrisburg. Some 387 persons were X-rayed at that time.

Success of the mass X-ray project goes to the hundreds of volunteers who made the door-to-door contacts to explain the free chest X-ray project and urge people to take advantage of the opportunity to have a chest X-ray.

The interpretation is being handled by Dr. William R. Levering, Dr. Paul H. Shiffer and Dr. Horace Butler of the General hospital staff.

Cards will be issued to all persons whose X-rays are determined to be "negative" of tuberculosis. Those which have positive pathological findings will be referred to the family physician of the individual with arrangements to immediate follow-up work.

These cases will involve re-X-ray to confirm interpretation. Others will require re-X-ray for technician reasons, such as a jewel, buttons or other obstruction left on the person at time of X-ray and left showing in the X-ray photography.

It is estimated that about two per cent of the 7,911 persons X-rayed will have to be re-X-rayed.

Notification will also go out in sealed letter form to individuals believed to have positive pathological findings of TB.

Other ailments or ills of the chest disclosed by the X-ray of course will be passed on to the family physician who will inform the patient.

However, the TB society, which is carrying out the follow-up work, is concerned solely with positive pathological findings of tuberculosis, and will concentrate all its efforts strictly in that field.

Georgia Taxes And Business

Anybody interested in saddling Pennsylvania with an income or sales tax should take a long look at Georgia. And profit thereby.

Georgia's new three per cent sales tax went into effect April 1. Industry must pay the levy on all new machinery purchased.

As a result, the state has lost at least two big factories and probably more will be scared off. This is anything but good news to Georgia, largely an agricultural state that has been trying to attract industry.

One of the companies that refused to go to Georgia said the sales tax would cost it $60,000 on purchase of machinery.

This is just another example of the way high taxes, new taxes and just plain taxes often curb business activity. And to curb business in such a manner is to cut production and employment.

Pennsylvania is one of a handful of states with neither an income nor sales tax. And that fortunate position has been a great help to Pennsylvania in inducing new industries to locate here.

It relieves companies of economic disadvantages like those caused by the Georgia sales tax. It also offers a lighter tax burden for employes and executives of those companies, who can get more take-home pay in Pennsylvania on the same wages.

We think these advantages are worth preserving. Certainly, we do not believe they should be thrown away unless there is an urgent necessity for large new State revenues. And no such necessity has yet been proved.

The way to preserve Pennsylvania's happy freedom from income and sales taxes is to sweat down Governor Fine's $1,220,000,000 proposed budget. That can be done, any time the Legislature decides to do it.

Principle In RFC

"I'm not certain what he did was illegal, but I'm dead sure it was improper."

W. Stuart Symington, new administrator of the Reconstruction Finance Corp., said that. He was explaining why he had fired the manager of the Government's lending agency's Minneapolis office.

According to Mr. Symington, the manager learned from an Agriculture Department employe that the Government was seeking space to store dried eggs and powdered milk; passed the information to a friend; was given 40 per cent of the stock in a warehouse company organized by the friend to rent space to the Government, and got more than $35,000 profit on the deal.

"Any other RFC official found involved in a deal of this character—that is, making money aside from his salary out of the Government—will be summarily dismissed," Mr. Symington added.

His attitude is admirable. The mess which the RFC got into, and which Mr. Symington is laboring to clean up, could have been avoied if his predecessors in the management of that agency and other responsible Government officials had adhered to his principle that, illegal or no, improper conduct must not be tolerated.

Try And Stop Me

By Bennett Cerf

Every year, several big city newspapers raise funds to give underprivileged youngsters a two-week vacation in the country. One of the kids had never seen a cow or a haystack before in his life. To complete the wonder of his first day away from city streets, there was a flash thunderstorm, followed by a perfect rainbow. The city kid gazed on it with wonder and exclaimed, "It sure is pretty, but what is it supposed to advertise?"

"Why did you assault this poor man?" a judge demanded of a college student near the tag-end of a football weekend. "Well, judge," explained the student, wriggling in the grasp of the cop who had haled him into court, "I was in a phone booth innocently conversing with my girl when this bohunk opens the door and heaves me out of the booth." "And that incensed you?" prompted the judge. "Mildly," admitted the student, "but what really made me see red was when he reached in for my girl and heaved her out, too."

Hollywood

By Gene Handsaker

Hollywood—A thought or two by Michael Rennie on the old argument: Who produces the better pictures, Hollywood or Britain?—

"Here I think you do musicals better," said the towering, slender Yorkshireman. Americans are getting to know him in Britain's "Trio", in which he and Jean Simmons are patients in love at a sanitarium, and in Hollywood's "The Thirteenth Letter."

"Also," he continued, "you do any kind of spectacle better. 'King Solomon's Mines'—we can't touch a thing like that. Maybe we do better the sincere, intimate, human drama: "Brief Encounter," "The Third Man." I can't think why.

"We're lucky in one respect. The theater and film industry are geographically in the same place. In making a picture, we can go to the theater for any one of a dozen very fine actors Earning 25 or 30 pounds a week in the theater, he's happy to earn 50 or 100 pounds a day in a film.

"Here you can't draw on that source. It's unprofitable for an actor in a Broadway play to come 3,000 miles for two days work."

Rennie is playing a man from another planet in "The Day the Earth Stood Still."

"I love it here," he said. He wants to stay "as long as they'll have me." With his actress wife, Margaret McGrath, he has taken a house in fashionable Brentwood.

Rennie is 41 years old, 6 feet, 4, and weight "12 stone 4," which, he rapidly calculated, is 172 pounds. His ancestry is Scottish. His narrow face, with high cheek bones, sunken cheeks, and deep-set blue eyes, has been described as "early American." Someone once suggested he had an American Indian look about him.

He worked for a time in his father's woolen mill and his uncle's rope factory. During the war he was an RAF instructor attached to the U. S. Air Force at Macon, Ga.

Acting, he finds, is "sort of adventure unlimited." He'd like to play Captain Cook, the explorer, or act in a western.

Does he prefer British or Hollywood leading ladies? "That's a stinker of a question, isn't it!" he chuckled. "They're equally charming. Is that what Solomon would have said?"

Every other day for the past three years, a U. S. medium bomber has made a round trip weather observation flight over the North Pole from Fairbanks, Alaska.

These Days — By George E. Sokolsky

The Puzzling Message of March 20

It has been made to appear that on March 20, Gen. MacArthur received from President Truman or somebody a set of instructions; that on March 24, he cribbed those instructions and issued them, with threats, against the Chinese Communists.

In a British chronology of world events, I find an item of March 27 that the State department was understood to have handed a "major policy statement aimed at clarifying the U. N. objectives in the war," to our 13 Allies, but this is three days after General MacArthur's threatening speech to the Chinese Reds.

General Marshall in his testimony before the Russell committee said that there had been negotiations among the nations which were stopped because of the threatening speech of General MacArthur of March 24. In fact, he said that the Joint Chiefs of Staff had sent a message to General MacArthur dated March 20.

This is the message that General MacArthur said was sent:

"State is planning a presidential announcement shortly that with the clearing of the bulk of South Korea of aggressors .The United Nations now preparing to discuss conditions of settlement in Korea. The United Nations feeling is that further diplomatic efforts toward the settlement should be made before any advance with major forces north of the 38th parallel. Time will be required to determine diplomatic reactions and permit new negotiations that may develop. Reasoning is that parallel has no military significance. State has asked Joint Chiefs what authority you should have (General MacArthur) to permit sufficient freedom of action for next few weeks to provide security for United Nations forces and maintain contact with the enemy. Your recommendations are desired."

But this is not the world-shaking, new policy message from which General MacArthur is supposed to have cribbed his speech of March 24. General MacArthur has not received such a message and the Marshall note can only be interpreted as serving notice on him that something is in the wind.

Members of the Russell committee have interrogated General Bradley about this because the dismissal of General MacArthur is now attributed to his having stymied the State department's peace negotiations by his threats of March 24. General Bradley also has never seen the presidential message of March 20, but he goes back to the Marshall message quoted above, which was obviously only a warning of things to come.

Senator Wiley made the point:

"Senator Wiley:—Have you got evidence that General MacArthur ever got it? A. (Bradley) —Well, I am sure he did. I can check the message for the acknowledgment of it, but I don't believe he has ever denied he received it."

Actually at that point, General Bradley was speaking of two different messages. The Marshall message, MacArthur did receive; the presidential message, setting forth a new policy to end the war, he did not receive and there is no evidence that such a message was ever sent. Yet, MacArthur is accused of cribbing his March 24 speech from the second, not the first message. A reading of his speech will establish that.

The presidential message was supposed to deal with a political basis for a cease-fire. But a cease-fire is a military action that must be carefully planned by the commander in the field. How could the President deal with a cease-fire without discussing its nature with the commander in the field? The Marshall message has nothing to do with that and the other message—the one that is supposed to have resulted in dismissal—is still invisible.

General Bradley's statement that General MacArthur has never denied receiving the March 20 message of policy is incorrect. Actually General MacArthur made such a denial and it was published in "Newsweek" magazine on April 16. He said:

"The statement contained in your issue of April 2nd to the effect that prior to the issuance of my statement on March 24 of the military situation in Korea I had been furnished a copy of a policy statement by the President cleared by the governments having military forces in Korea is entirely without basis in fact. I have never seen such a statement and do not know if it even exists. Please publish this in the interest of truth."

It was obvious all through that General Bradley did not know whether the presidential plan had been sent to MacArthur nor that he, Bradley, ever saw it. The Marshall message was obviously a subterfuge to give an impression where no message actually existed.

Washington Report

By Fulton Lewis Jr.

Washington — During the period when our State department was fixing it up so the Communists could take over China, Earl Browder was in and out of the White House so much FBI agents referred to him as "Old Yo-Yo."

Nobody ever kept an exact count on how many times Browder actually visited home base here in Washington, but we have his own word for it that it was often and usually about China. On most of his White House visits he was ushered in the back door after dark. Now, of course, since the Kremlin started using him as a punching bag he hasn't had a single invitation, after dark or otherwise.

I've always been interested in learning who it was over at the White House that set up the appointments, as I imagine you have. Now we stand a good chance of finding out, although it's going to be a long trolley ride before we put the finger on the right guy.

Two congressional committees are now sorting over papers relating to the sell-out of China. Both are anticipating the arrival of a star witnes, Maj. Gen. Chas. Wilioughby, a tough intelligence officer from Tokyo, who is full to his ears with what the Communist creeps did to us in Asia.

Willoughby will arrive in the U. S. in a few days, and unless the administration gags him somehow, he'll drop in on the House committee on un-American activities and the Senate Internal Security sub-committee. Things will warm up around Washington when he gets here.

Browder knew a lot about China. The Communists kept their underground railroad between Shanghai and Washington well greased in the not-too-long ago. In fact, Eugene Dennis, general secretary of the Communist party, U. S. A., once bragged to reporters that he traveled to China during the war a number of times via the underground. He said he was doing a little fighting against the Japs, but he was never very clear about where and when he did the shooting.

Willoughby put the finger on Browder and Dennis in 1945. He had just squeezed all the data out of a confession made by Richard Sorge, the Kremlin's best espionage agent. Sorge used American, British, Japanese and German agents in his spy net and Willoughby was naturally curious about them. I'll give you a sample of what the general has in mind when he gets here. This is from one of his reports to the Pentagon:

Most of the old wheelhorses of the Communist party have served in Shanghai, in one period or another, the professionals of the clandestine fraternity, as well as the accolytes, the dupes, flirting with the Red menace. There is Earl Browder, Eugene Dennis, Gerhart Eisler, Harry Berger, Sam Darcy, Ernest Ewert and many others.

"The cumulative documentation (from the Sorge case) contains over 180 identities, surnames, aliases and code designations, derived from authenticated court records."

Willoughby maintains that the Sorge spy ring with its American agents was more important and successful than the Kremlin net exposed in Canada. Listen to this:

"In the Sorge case, just as in the later Canadian spy case, numerous non-Russians, including Americans, quickly and readily agreed to betray their countries for the Soviet Union. Their common bond was Communist, hence Soviet, sympathy, rather than party membership."

In fact, from Sorge on down, not a single one of the 180 involved was a Russian citizen. Yet they all worked for Moscow, and two of them were hanged for their devotion, although both believed Moscow would rescue them before the 7th inning stretch.

Sorge will become a household word within the next few weeks, so don't stray too far from the reservation. You'll hear a lot of names and get a fill in on who pulled the trigger on us in China.

Looking at Life

By Erich Brandeis

Brandeis

A man from the "wide open spaces' of Texas criticizes me severely for the "sentimental drivel" I have written about General MacArthur.

He takes three pages to tell me where MacArthur is all wrong and President Truman all right.

Then, just so that there may be no misunderstanding, he assures me that he is a Democrat and that history will repeat itself in 1952 with Truman's reelection.

Whether or not MacArthur is right in his stand on the Korean war is something which I am not qualified to judge.

As a matter of fact, it seems to me that no one at this time is qualified to do that—and so there is just a lot of talking, much of it foolish and irresponsible.

But whether MacArthur is right or wrong, one cannot help but admiring him as an American and as a human being.

It was that which made me write about the great impression he made on me and all those within my eye-and-ear-shot when he addressed Congress.

It was that which made me say —and I saw it with my own eyes —that many hard-boiled legislators and others who listened to him had tears in their eyes. And I was not ashamed to admit to mine.

It is the "sentimental drivel" part of my Texas man's letter that riled me.

I hope to God that I shall never, as long as I live, cease being sentimental.

"Sentiment," according to Webster, is "the mental attitude, thought or judgment permeated or prompted by feeling or emotions."

Such a "mental attitude, thought or judgment" is the very foundation of American life.

Without them there could be no love, no charity, no freedom.

Without feeling or emotions all our judgment, all our actions would be the same as the cold, commercial, cruel calculations of the Soviet Union and other dictatorships.

Without feeling or emotions there could be no religion.

In many phases of our history our country could have made decisions that would have brought us much more gain, more territory, more advantages if we had laid emotions and feelings aside.

In every war we fought and won, emotions and feelings sat at the council table. At every such council table these two were the co-signers of the peace treaty.

Unfortunately "sentiment" is often misunderstood for weakness by those who have none of it themselves.

The opposite is true.

Only the strong can afford to be sentimental.

The weak must pose as strong. So they substitute cruelty for compassion; coldness for warmth of heart; brutality for tenderness.

They may be strong physically or powerful at arms.

But the typical American is just enough of a sentimentalist to believe in the invincible power of the human soul and in the irrefutable fact that only RIGHT makes lasting MIGHT.

It really all comes down to the Golden Rule: "As ye would that men should do to you, do ye also to them likewise."

But do not let us be like the fellow about whom William Blake wrote:

"He has observ'd the golden rule,
Till he's become the golden fool."

Golf Opponent Makes Good

A former golf opponent of ours has soared to the heights. On Sunday, June 3, he will be signally honored in a way all men might envy. We were at times critical of him (particularly from a bunker or trap), but he had a confidence that was inspiring. Later we found that no advice we could offer would help and learned to keep our mouth shut and know greatness when we saw it. He is a clergyman straight out of the movie "Going My Way," 50 years in the church and who in his seventies can still play close to par golf, throw a knuckle ball and swim a fast hundred yards. He is Monsignor Thaddeus W. Tierney and his golden jubilee in the priesthood is at hand.

We first met him some years ago when he wanted advice about some modest Thanksgiving contributions on New York's East Side. We last saw him when he was teaching us humility on a golf links, and not even trying. To us he will always be plain Father Tim, but on the record he is Monsignor Tierney, now of St. Raymond's Church away up north in the Bronx, New York, but for most of his life stationed in the teeming East Side of Manhattan.

It's hard to think of him as a Monsignor, which is away up close to the top, where a good deal of dignity, formality (and a reasonable degree of stiffness) are required. For "Father Tim" is the jovial, informal "just folks" type. It's his instinct to mix, to serve the poor, to meet the man in the street, to get close to the people in the home, the shop, the office and the ball park. Barry Fitzgerald made the role of a Catholic priest glow in the movie that fascinated all America, "Going My Way," but "Father Tim" would be more convincing in the part than Barry was.

He comes from Scranton, Pa., and as a kid wanted to be a pro ballplayer. He covered third base for the Honesdale, Pa., nine. Cristy Mathewson and Hugh Jennings were in the same league at the same time. He was an all-around athlete. We don't know anything about his baseball, but in our book, had he gone in for golf instead of the priesthood, he would have made the Hagens and Sarazens hustle. This is no fanciful statement. In his sixties he could play the toughest courses in the mid-seventies, and did. His drives were close to 300 yards without exception, his short game was the envy of all opponents and you could concede him a 15-foot putt.

"Ever play golf?" he said to us that day when we first wandered into his parish in the Thanksgiving season. He was well along in his fifties then and we thought to ourselves, "It would be pretty terrible tagging around a course with this old fellow." So, we took a runout powder with the reply, "Oh, once in a-while. Yeah, I'd be glad to play with you some day," quick to evade what struck us as an encounter most unfair to him.

Later we got into a foursome with him and went forth confident, puffed up and full of self-satisfaction. We have never been the same since.

We were to learn later that "Father Tim" was a wonder of the links whenever his tough routine as an East Side priest permitted him to set aside the shepherd's crook for the driver and brassie. We once offered to join the Church if he would take three strokes off our game. After a season he called us out of a trap and sagely delivered his verdict: "Listen, my lad, you had better stay in whatever faith you're in. This is too much of a job."

When his Fourteenth Street Church, down in the late Al Smith's district, was torn down, Father Tim was sent to St. Raymond's. It is much handier to the golf areas, but we understand his high duties limit his backswings. We will back him, however, regardless of age, to break 78 any day in the week. In the Heaven from which we hope the ineligibility clauses will not bar us, we hope to meet "Father Tim" as a great friend, a great priest and a rare human being. But not as a golf opponent in a tight match.

Jose Ferrer admits his name was linked with numerous Red-front groups, but swears that he had no idea they were Communistic. He also says that only recently did he know that May Day celebrations were Communistic. Come, come, Cyrano, you must use your nose more!

Shudda Haddim missed "Bandleader" at 10 to 1. "I didn't think he was tuned up for it," he says. (Shudda also failed to bet "Circle" at $6.40 to place, even after putting a circle around it on the program!)

The drunkard's match, introduced in 1882, was treated with chemicals to extinguish itself when the flame reached mid-way down the stick, thus reducing the number of burned fingers among bonvivants.

First Bids On Tobyhanna Depot Project To Be Opened June 12

Construction Divided Into Three Phases

Bids on the first phase of construction of the U. S. Army Signal Corps depot in Tobyhanna will be opened in offices of the Philaphia district, U. S. Army Engineers in Philadelphia on June 12, Rep. Francis E. Walter (D-20th District) said yesterday in Washington, D. C.

Yesterday, Congressman Walter said, was the first that plans and specifications for the first phase of the giant $30,000,000 installation became available at the Philadelphia office of the Army Engineer Corps.

First phase of the project will deal with grading, including excavations and fills and the complete drainage and general piping system for various underground utility installation required by the 1,400-acre depot.

The second phase of bidding and construction will involve railroad tracks and yards, foundations for structures, electric utility installations, sanitary sewage system, etc.

Final phase of the bidding, expected to come this fall will be on superstructures — the huge warehouses, central heating structure, administration building and all other buildings required by the Signal Corps Depot.

In all cases announcements, similar to those issued by Corps of Engineers in Philadelphia yesterday, regarding availability of plans and specifications with an opening date for bids will be made in ample time to permit contractors to prepare and submit their bids.

Engineers and architects for the entire project are Gilboy, O'Malley and Stopper, of Scranton.

The depot will be a complete city unto itself when completed Tentative completion date is early in 1953.

Up to that time Tobyhanna and vicinity will be the center of activity by thousands of construction workers. Hiring for the 5,000 civilian posts on the reservation is expected to start fairly early next year .

Meanwhile, Clifton Rogers, Rochester, Pa. planning consultant and his staff, are proceeding to develop a master municipal plan for the Tobyhanna communtiy and Coolbaugh township generally to meet the impact of an industry which will employ 5,000 persons.

While the plan to let the contract in three separate units will lessen somewhat the strain on current facilities of Tobyhanna, nevertheless the region faces an unusual problem on housing, supply eating places and similar facilities for any large force of construction workers.

VFW Women To Remember Fighting Men

Plans for Memorial day and for remembrances for fighting men and veterans were discussed last night at the Veterans of Foreign Wars auxiliary meeting held at the VFW home with Mrs. Evelyn Tweedie presiding.

Mrs. Tweedie requested every member able to parade to report to the VFW home on Wednesday morning, dressed in white dress, white shoes and gloves. Caps will be furnished at the VFW home.

The auxiliary adopted a new project—sending cigarets to the soldiers in Korea, which would bear the auxiliary name. They also voted to send $5 to the patriotic instructors fund and $5 toward the department president's gift.

Members were asked to remember Ralph Sommers, hospitalized at the Valley Forge hospital, Phoenixville, with cards. A memorial service was held for the young member of the auxiliary who died during the year, Miss Etta Ransberger.

Two new members, Mrs. Blanche Trach and Mrs. Virginia Katlin were initiated. The attendance prize was awarded Lydia Christianson, and the floral centerpiece to Mrs. Flossie Stiff.

Following the meeting a white elephant sale was held with all proceeds to go to provide luxuries for veterans in hospitals.

Canadensis members of the auxiliary served as hostesses. The next auxiliary meeting will be held June 11.

Evidence has been found that sheep were domesticated in the stone ages.

Local Delegates At Convention In Atlantic City

A delegation of 20 members from the Pocono Forest, Tall Cedars of Lebanon, and the Cedarettes spent the weekend in Atlantic City where they attended the national convention activities.

The convention opened Friday night with a reception at the Warner Brothers theatre, followed by a stage show. Saturday saw the colorful Tall Cedars parade lasting 2 hours on the board walk, and a reception at Convention Hall on Saturday night in honor of the new Supreme Tall Cedar, John H. McFall of Baltimore, and his staff. followed by a dance.

On Saturday, the delegates were guests at the First Presbyterian church service when Rev. Elmer T. Baker, assistant chaplain of Baltimore Forest was the guest speaker and the T. C. L. Chanters of Baltimore sang three numbers.

The 1952 convention will also be held in Atlantic City, it was announced.

Local people who attended were Supreme Tall Cedar Edgar Van Why and Mrs. Van Why, Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Altemose, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Kimball, Ernest Younkin, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Van Why, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Seip, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Kintz, Ed Weber, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Neilson.

Bangor Woman's Club Installs New Officers

Bangor — Mrs. Vernon Hester was installed as president of the Bangor Woman's club at the luncheon which closed their club year on Saturday in the Christ Evangelical Reformed church.

Mrs. E. L. Rosenberry, past president of the club and of the Northampton county federation, was the installing officer. Others to take office were: Mrs. Robert Youlton vice president; Mrs. William Metzgar, treasurer; Mrs. O. W. Ackerman, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Charles Ralph, assistant; and Mrs. Harry Laveton, recording secretary.

Mrs. Hester named the following committee chairmen for the new year: Mrs. Clark Hahn, flower committee; Mrs. Asher G. Abel, finance; Mrs. Homer McEwan, reception; Mrs. Glen Price, membership; and Mrs. Herbert Spangenberg, clubwoman chairman.

Mrs. Clarence Steinmetz retiring president was toastmaster for the dinner, and the entertainment included vocal solos by Mrs. Harriet Mertz, of Easton; and dramatic readings by Mrs. Norman Ralph, of Phillipsburg.

Guests included Mrs. Bert Transue, president of the Portland Woman's club; Miss Estelle Wertz of the Hellertown club; Mrs. Lee MacMillan of the Easton club and Mrs. Cornell Wallwork, president of the Bangor Junior Woman's club.

Motor Club Proposes To Change Name

A movement was started at the meeting of the Board of Governors of the Monroe County Automobile club at the Penn-Stroud hotel last night to get the sentiment of the club members in connection to changing the name of the organization to the Pocono Mountains Automobile club.

A committee was appointed by R. LeRoy Dengler, president, to frame a letter to be sent to all club members giving reasons for the change and also include a postcard on which members will vote "yes" or "no" to be mailed back to the club to get an idea of their sentiment in the matter. The committee is composed of Layton Rhodes, H. A. Ahnert, and A. F. Everitt.

There are eight known Monroe counties in the country, while there is but one Pocono Mountain section, it was brought out in the discussion. In addition, the Pocono Mountains Chamber of Commerce and its affiliated groups are conducting a widespread publicity campaign, which, it was pointed out, would prove beneficial to the Motor club if it carried the same name. The letter will be presented for discussion and action of the board at the next meeting.

Announcement was made that the Lackawanna County Automobile club had requested the Pennsylvania Motor federation to have Pike county territory allocated to that club. The local governors went on record to oppose such action, Pike county being included in the area covered by the Monroe county club for many years.

The board will make an effort to secure garage service cooperation especially during the heavy tourist season. M. E. Leffler, club contact man, will personally call on garage owners in an effort to formulate a plan which will assure service at night during weekends particularly.

The board completed the reorganization for the coming year by re-electing A. F. Everitt secretary and George Costenbader treasurer.

It was decided to have the office at the Penn-Stroud hotel open Saturday afternoons from 1 to 5 with Miss Elizabeth B. Martin in charge from Saturday, June 2, to Labor day, for the convenience of traveling motorists.

The board gave its hearty approval of the proposed Laurel Blossom ball at Shawnee inn Wednesday night, June 20, when a queen will be crowned surrounded by a galaxy of princesses from all sections of the area. It was stated efforts are being made to secure a prominent actress as queen and a prominent personage to do the crowning. This is preliminary to a renewal of an elaborate celebration next year. Walter Fossa is head of the committee in charge.

President Dengler welcomed H. G. Sanborn, Stroudsburg, and H. A. Ahnert Jr., Bushkill, as new members of the board. John M. Crandall, Pocono Manor, the other new member was unable to attend.

Mrs. Cynthia Watt, secretary-manager of the club, reported 1,223 members enrolled, the largest number in the club history. That figure included 44 new members elected last night.

There were 30 responses for emergency road service for foreign members and 11 local costing $163 during the month of May.

Belgium's vast equatorial empire, the Belgian Congo, is 77 times the size of the mother country.

Price Township Directors Vote Raises In Per Capita, Property Levies For 1951

Price township school board last night unanimously voted a $5 tax be levied in addition to the present $5 per capita tax.

The tax was suggested and approved by township voters at a previous public meeting.

The proposal to raise the tax millage from 30 to 35 mills was also unanimously approved by the board during its meeting at the home of Dr. Frank E. Halstead, East Stroudsburg RD 2.

A spokesman for the board explained the tax increases were brought about because of a $2,500 deficit which accumulated over the past two years and now has to be met.

Directors agreed the school house and all school property be sold to help defray the debt. Students will be transferred to East Stroudsburg and Stroud township.

Township school bus routes will be reviewed and possibly revised, it was reported. The board also voted to apply for membership in the State School Board association.

Atty. Elmer D. Christine was appointed solicitor for the board. Next meeting will be held in two weeks.

County Superintendent John C. Litts and all members of the board were present for the meeting.

Arrival Of High Pressure Area Will Bring Pleasant Weather For Memorial Day

Weatherman Michael F. Hannon was spreading some good news around last night.

He came up with a good answer to the question about Memorial day weather: "You can go out and buy your hot dogs and hamburger . . . it's going to be sunny, fair and warmer."

Hannon wasn't taking any chances, though. He's depending upon the arrival of a high pressure area here to bear out his predictions.

"If everything goes according to Hoyle," he added, "Memorial day will be nice with a maximum temperature in the upper 70s."

The "deep trough" of low pressure that's been hanging around here the past few days is slowly moving eastward toward the ocean. It has been the cause of the damp, dreary weather lately and the influx of cool, Canadian air.

Today, according to Hannon, will be the last of this type of weather for a while at least.

Although it is expected to be cloudly this morning, showers will probably end by daybreak. The heavy clouds will begin beaking up in the afternoon, some sunshine will break through and the temperature will get up in the middle 70s.

Temperatures will sink into the lower 60s tonight.

Yesterday temperatures ranged from a high of 71 to a low of 50. Mean was 62 degrees. Humidity was 52 per cent.

McNulty Rites Conducted Here

Funeral services for William T. McNulty, were held yesterday morning. Rev. H. G. Durkin officiated at high requiem mass in St. Matthew's Catholic church.

Rosary services were also held Sunday night by the Altar and Rosary society at the Daniel Warner funeral home, Stroudsburg. Rev. Durkin was in charge.

Pallbearers were P. A. Rockefeller, Miles Bossard, Willard Stettler, Harry Bolich, John Gallagher, Paul Whelan. Interment was in the Gates of Heaven section of Laurelwood cemetery.

Students Of ESHS Start Final Exams

Technical and commercial students began final examinations yesterday at East Stroudsburg High school.

Academic students will begin their exams Friday and continue through Monday and Tuesday morning.

East Stroudsburg Junior High school students will also begin exams on Friday and continue through Monday and Tuesday.

Tuesday, June 5, all East Stroudsburg High school choruses will have their annual outing at Saylors lake. On Wednesday, June 6, East Stroudsburg seniors will hold their annual banquet and outing at Mountain Lake house. Marshalls Creek.

Traffic Check Scheduled For Twin Boroughs

Pennsylvania Highway department yesterday assured residents of the Pocono Mountains area that Stroudsburg and East Stroudsburg will be designated as one of eight summer traffic check points.

According to the announcement made yesterday, roadside and home interviews will begin next month in Stroudsburg - East Stroudsburg, Coatesville, Chester, Butler, Washington, the Ohio and Beaver river valleys in the Pittsburgh and Beaver Falls sections; at Ambridge, and in an area southwest of Pittsburgh embracing Carnegie, Mount Lebanon township and Dormont.

In referring to the eight traffic check points, Highway Planning Survey Chief H. G. Van Riper said that all survey personnel will be recruited locally with the exception of key men and supervisors.

He said a representative 10 percent sampling of the populations here and at other check points will be polled.

Explaining the questions which will be put to wage earners and housewives in the twin boroughs, Van Riper said the survey representatives will seek information about every trip the interviewed persons made on the day before the interview. "That includes automobiles, trucks, buses, in fact everything but motorcycles and pedestrians," the survey chief declared.

Called origin and destination surveys, the studies are designed to give Highway department experts a complete picture of the travel habits and needs of an area.

They provide information for traffic analyses upon which location and size of future roads are based.

Plans for the State Highway O&D survey here this summer were first disclosed last fall when State engineers revealed the department's plans to Stroudsburg's borough council.

The council, at that time, was seeking a concrete method by which to meet the borough's recurring summer traffic problems.

Some 5.8 per cent of all accidents to the person happen to the eyes, it is estimated.

Sheeler Says Cops Forced His Confession

Philadelphia (AP) — Rudolph Sheeler, who was freed from prison four weeks ago after serving 12 years for a crime he did not commit, yesterday accused five police officers of beating him up to get a "confession" from him.

Sheeler testified that Assistant Police Superintendent George F. Richardson was not present when other officers beat him in 1939 to get a "confession" that he had killed a policeman. Sheeler was under cross examination by counsel for the six officers suspended because of his case.

The slim, 35-year-old Philadelphian testified at a hearing before the city Civil Service commission, which is inquiring into charges against the policemen of "conduct unbecoming an officer."

Sheeler was subjected to intense cross-examination by John Patrick Walsh, an attorney for the policemen. At one time during the cross-examination, Sheeler asserted: "Someone must speak up for the common man's rights, even if it's for a felon like myself."

He told the commission he took part in about 10 holdups and 35 purse snatchings before 1935.

He said he "confessed" to taking part in a robbery in 1936 in which he said that an accomplice, Jack Howard, killed Patrolman James Morrow. In his appeal to be released from prison, he said he knew nothing of Morrow's death nor of any attempted robbery on that day.

The police "slapped me around," Sheeler said. He testified that they began beating and kicking him soon after his arrest in 1939 in an attempt to get him to "confess" to the Morrow slaying.

The six policemen face dismissal from their jobs if they are convicted of the charge. They are George Richardson, assistant superintendent of police; Capt. James A. Kelley, head of the homicide squad; Detectives Joseph M. Geonnotti, Charles S. Steinberg and James A. Kelly, and Sgt. Louis Cherkas, Mayor Bernard Samuel's chauffeur. All have been suspended from the police force.

Tibet Treaty May Increase Reds' Pressure On India

Hong Kong, (AP)—Communist China's "treaty" giving it control of remote Tibet is expected to increase Red pressure on India, which is right next door.

That lofty, craggy and mysterious land of the Lamas—or priestly ruling class—had its mystery deepened by the iron curtain.

By the treaty signed in Peiping on May 23 and announced Sunday night, Red China takes over Tibet's national defense, foreign affairs and trade.

Observers point out that Tibet gives the Communists a base not so much for military action against India but for propaganda, infiltration and concessions. Tibet is too mountainous for military purposes.

These observers believe that India soon will feel Communist pressure in many forms and, one day, will regret it did not take a firm stand for a free and independent Tibet.

A large body of Far East opinion holds that India was the only nation that might have deterred Peiping. India chose not to act.

Plane Spotters Plan Exercises June 23, 24

Newburgh, N. Y. (AP)—The Eastern Air Defense Force announced yesterday that 210,000 civilian volunteer members will receive night training in plane spotting on June 23 and 24.

The defense force at Stewart Air Force base here will direct the exercise in 19 of 23 states. Volunteers will man about 8,000 observation posts and 26 filter centers in the Northeast, Great Lakes and West coast regions.

The Western Air Defense force, with headquarters at Hamilton Air Force base, San Rafael, Cal., will direct operations in California, Oregon and Washington. The newly organized Central Defense Air Force in Kansas City will direct the work in Minnesota and Michigan.

These three forces operate under Air Defense command which will direct the over-all exercises from Ent Air Force base, Colorado Springs.

In the Northeast training will begin at 9 a.m. Saturday, June 23, and end at 6 p.m. Sunday, June 24.

The main purpose of the exercises will be the visual detection of low-flying aircraft.

USAF planes will make special flights throughout the areas where observation posts are situated.

The observation posts are about eight miles apart and each is manned by a minimum of 25 civilian volunteers. These spotters telephone their reports to filter centers where the information is plotted on a grid map. The watchers try to estimate the altitude of the plane, direction of flight and the number of planes.

Fighter interceptors are sent up to identify the planes as friendly or unknown.

Presbyterians Take Steps To Ease One-Year Wait Before Divorced Person May Remarry

Cincinnati (AP)— The Presbyterian Church in the USA which does not allow its members to remarry until a year after divorce, took steps yesterday to soften the rule.

The church's general assembly approved a proposed law which would allow a committee of a Presbytery (regional governing body) to excuse a person from waiting a year.

The assembly, however, coupled this with another proposed law imposing more restrictions on the guilty party in a divorce who wants to remarry.

He would have to show penitence and demonstrate that he sincerely desired to do better in his nex marriage.

The assembly ordered the proposals sent down to the Presbyteries for ratification. If the church's members, through their Presbyteries, endorse them, the changes will be written into the directory for worship, a part of the Presbyterian constitution.

The move to relax the one-year-wait law is an "honest approach to a problem which has vexed Presbyterian clergymen, said Dr. Albert G. Butzer, of Buffalo, N. Y. He is chairman of a special commission which drafted the changes.

Some ministers, through misinterpretation of the constitution, have disregarded the one-year-wait rule. This has aroused the concern of other pastors who adhered strictly to the prohibition.

One of the new laws endorsed yesterday would require Presbyteries to set up a "committee on Christian marriage." This committee, at a pastor's request, would investigate the case of any person whose right to remarry was questionable.

Dr. Eugene Carson Blake, pastor of the Pasadena, Calif., Presbyterian church, was nominated for stated clerk of the General assembly.

Dr. Blake's name was the only one offered for the $12,000 a year office and his election today to a five-year term is considered a mere formality.

The stated clerk is the executive officer of the church's national administrative organization. Dr. Blake would succeed Dr. William Barrow Pugh of Philadelphia, who was killed in an automobile accident last year.

Iran Rejects World Court As Arbitrator

Tehran, Iran (AP)— Iran yesterday spurned the World court and made ready a secret plan for taking over Anglo-Iranian Oil Co. fields and the Abadan refinery from the British.

The oil company (AIOC) applied to the International Court of Justice at the Hague Saturday for appointment of an arbitrator under its 60-year contract with the Iran government.

But yesterday Deputy Prime Minister Hossein Fatemi declared Iran would ignore any proceedings before the World court and would send no representative to plead her case.

Pearson Notes Dominance By United States

Friends and well-wishers packed East Stroudsburg State Teachers College auditorium yesterday morning to watch the 114 members of the graduating class receive their diplomas.

They also heard Leon Pearson, columnist and NBC news analyst, put forth his suggestions on "how the people of America can rise to meet their new unprecedented task."

Pearson, a veteran newsman who has covered Big Four meetings in Europe declared "it's amazing the dominant position the United States has came into."

"I'm not saying America wants to dominate the world," he added, "but it has come into a position where it easily can."

He gave as illustrations America's policy of re-arming Germany over the objection of France, American insistence the Chinese Communists be branded as aggressors in Korea after the war had gone on for months and the occasion U. S. economic experts in France told the government they would have to raise their subway fare if they were to balance the budget and stop inflation.

"We have gone so far since 1920, when Congress turned Woodrow Wilson and the League of Nations down, it is hardly recognizable we are the same country," he asserted.

"We not only turned our back on isolationism, we became involved in war in Asia and are threatened by its outbreak in Europe."

Pearson questioned "have we got the stuff to lead the world?" He described the present situation as a "teenage leadership of an old world."

"If we're to lead," he went on, "we must emerge from our immoral deep freeze. Let's not have the blind leading the blind, the weak leading the week, but a strong America leading the world back to its former self."

Pearson was introduced by Dr. Joseph F. Noonan, college president. He reminisced that he and Pearson's father, Dr. Paul Pearson, had been intimately acquainted during their early educational careers 30 years ago.

Dr. Noonan remarked both Leon and Drew Pearson, his brother, "ably carry on the tradition of an illustrious father—bringing important information to the attention of the public."

EVERYBODY'S TALKING, but what most of them are saying can probably be summed up in one word: "Congratulations." This is the scene the Daily Record photographer was confronted with outside the college auditorium yesterday morning after commencement exercises. First group of the approximately 1,000 persons who attended the graduation are seen emerging from the exits. Commencement speaker Leon Pearson spiced his short address with many a humorous anecdote. Said the news analyst: "You graduates right now probably aren't too concerned with the affairs of the world; your biggest concern is undoubtedly your own personal lives." (Daily Record photo)

Weak Relief-Welfare Laws Encourage Squalor, Poverty, Auditor General Charges

Harrisburg, (AP)—Auditor General Weldon B. Heyburn charged yesterday that weak relief and welfare laws are forcing Pennsylvania taxpayers to subsidize "squalor, poverty and degradation" in destitute communities.

Heyburn made the charge on the basis of an investigation into what he termed "unbelievable and shocking" living standards at Brier Hill, a tiny Fayette county mining village.

Heyburn turned a report of the investigation over to the General Assembly along with a request for "immediate corrective" action.

The State official said the Brier Hill investigation, disclosing "tragic squalor," represents a "capsule example" of conditions existing in similar poverty-ridden communities whose life-line is State aid.

Heyburn said that despite State aid, sanitary facilities in Brier Hill are "completely primitive" and that "nearly half of those living in the squalor described are children." He added:

"It would seem that the laws which make assistance, sanitation, health and welfare possible provide no positive minimum standard to protect this form of investment by the taxpayers in the dignity of man."

The auditor general made no specific recommendations for improving relief and other State laws; instead, he said he was merely presenting the facts for the Legislature to use as it sees fit.

Heyburn said he ordered the investigation into living conditions at Brier Hill in his capacity as legal watchdog over expenditures by the State.

He said that although some $120,000 in State aid was poured into the destitute Fayette county community last year, living conditions were found to be "unbelievably bad."

He said nearly all the homes were without modern plumbing with "sink and bath water draining into the basements and left to stagnate there."

"The teachers estimate that at least 40 per cent of the children have head lice and that 70 per cent are improperly clothed and attended to," Heyburn stated in the report.

The report said the community is in the center of a worked-out mining area with most of its some 800 inhabitants unemployed.

Meanwhile, Robert P. Wray, deputy public assistance secretary, commenting on the report, said his agency has no direct jurisdiction over determining how families on relief spend their assistance checks.

He emphasized however that in cases where parents are found to be neglecting their children, they can be referred to county courts for action.

CAP Hopes To Fly With Aid Of Cakes, Pies

There's more than one way to fly an airplane, but the Stroudsburg unit of the Civil Air patrol came up with a still new method yesterday.

The local cadets, believe it or not, are going to become airborne via the cake and pastry route.

In fact, they're going to sell the aforementioned tempting morsels at a sale to be held at the Wyckoff store on Saturday.

In case you're wondering what frosted cupcakes have to do with air speed, altimeters and check flights, the CAP cadets will set you straight pronto!

It's simple, they say. The flight's single craft, used in cadet training, is now grounded in need of repairs. To get it—and the cadets—back in the air, the patrol is raising funds with which to pay mechanicals' bills.

As one enthusiastic cadet said: "What could be more natural than to keep 'em flying by letting them eat cake?"

Doe Season May Precede Buck Hunting

Harrisburg, (AP)—The State Game commission was asked yesterday to set a special doe season to follow the regular buck shooting instead of preceding it as it did last year.

The recommendation came from the Pennsylvania Sportsmen's club board of directors which met at Fishermen's Paradise near Bellefonte over the weekend. The group will present their resolutions at the Friday meeting of the commission to hear ideas on 1951 hunting dates and limits.

The commission's two-day antlerless deer season caused a storm of protests last year from hunters who maintained the concentrated gunfire would drive the bucks into the hills.

"If a doe season is needed this year to control the deer herd, it (should) be set for two days at the end of the buck season," the resolution said.

Another change proposed by the federation, which claims a membership of 200,000 Pennsylvania hunters and fishermen, urged extension of the season on quail and grouse from 12 to 15 days, beginning November 1.

Other recommendations included:

Groundhogs — season to begin June 1, 1952 instead of July 1 as it does this year.

Ducks — Split season of 40 days.

Snowshoe rabbits — season from Christmas to New Year's day.

Squirrels and rabbits — four a day and 20 a season.

Raccoons — Five a day and 40 a season between Oct. 16, 1951 and Feb. 1, 1952.

Bear—one-week season as last year with a week between the end of bear season and the opening of deer season.

The commission usually is guided by the recommendations of the federation. However, it will hear all recommendations at its Friday meeting.

Storm Sash Now Made For Casements

Casement windows now can be given the protection of storm sash made especially for them. An easily-installed aluminum sash for this purpose has been put on the market by a Cincinnati, Ohio, manufacturer.

Windows of the casement type, opened and closed on hinges with ventilating handles on the inside, are not suitable for enclosure with the ordinary type of sash, designed for double-hung, conventional windows.

With windows of this sort the new sash is removable from the inside. This is an advantage of special interest where windows in tall structures are concerned, as it eliminates ladder work. Tempered stainless steel weather stripping seals the outer sash when it is closed, keeping out cold air.

Timber Survey Completed At Ross Common

Ross Common — Completion of a cooperative timber survey of the 400-acre Ross Common tract owned by Lehigh University was announced here yesterday by Arlington W. Martin, secretary of the Monroe county soil conservation district.

Three agencies, the soil district, the Department of Forests and Waters, and the Interstate Commission on the Delaware Valley Basin (Incodel) participated in the survey along with conservation authorities at Lehigh.

Martin explained that the purpose of the survey was to select and mark trees for removal on a planned basis in order to preserve the productive capacity of the soil and the moisture retaining capacity of the woodland areas.

Retention of water in wood lots provides dry season relief for surrounding and other nearby cropland, the district secretary added.

Many of the trees marked for removal had been damaged or already blown down in the near hurricane storm last November.

The crew making the survey comprised Atlee F. Rebert, U. S. Soil Conservation service consultant for the Monroe district; Paul Drury, service forester with the Stroudsburg office of the Department of Forests and Waters; H. R. Frantz, engineer from Incodel's Bethlehem office; Prof. George Jenkins, of Lehigh, and eight of the college's conservation class students.

Before each tree marked for removal was tabbed with a blaze of yellow paint, each was measured at breast height (four and one half feet). The height in 16 foot logs was also computed, so that the log yield was known as soon as the timber cruise was completed.

The crew said the total will amount to 95,360 board feet, including both the windblown and standing timber.

In addition to the breast marks, base marks were painted at the foot of each standing tree so that the owners may check the timber cutters after the harvesting.

Trees marked for cutting included a quantity of hemlock, white pine, pitch pine and also maples, oaks and birches.

Lehigh's tract, a part of the former Brodhead holdings, was willed to the university and includes both woodlands and cultivated areas. The farm land is rented to individual farmers in the region.

AWOL Soldier Found Living Life Of Hermit

Lock Haven (AP) — "I wanted to get away from people . . . live in the woods . . . observe nature."

That's the way a 30-year-old soldier from McKeesport, Pa., was quoted yesterday by State police. The soldier, George Philip Frankovich, had lived the life of a sleeping bag hermit in the woods for a month.

Armed with a German pistol, Frankovich was picked up near here after police received complaints from nearby residents that he acted suspiciously. His retreat was a clump of woods almost surrounded by a swamp.

When he was found, he was carrying $830 worth of travelers' checks. State Police Cpl. Joseph Hefferon said Frankovich was AWOL from the Army in Germany. He was taken to Pittsburgh by military police.

Size Of Dining Room Important

If a separate dining room is provided in a home, its shape and the size are largely dependent on the necessary furniture and space for serving persons at the table.

At least one unbroken wall space should be provided for a sideboard and sufficient wall space elsewhere to care for extra chairs. The tendency has been, in small quarters, to eliminate large dining rooms in favor of dining alcoves. Often opened into the living room, they permit a varied use of the dining space, provide an effect of spaciousness, and give added light and ventilation to the living area.

In many instances dining space in kitchens is appropriate, as well as dining space in living rooms. Poor practice is involved where an unlighted entrance foyer serves for dining.

Sound Investment Urged For Owners

A home should be planned as a sound, permanent investment. Good planning pays dividends in comfortable, gracious living and creates high resale value in case of future sale.

After a floor arrangement is selected that will provide the greatest comfort and convenience for the various members and interests of the family, careful planning should continue with the use of first-rate building materials and equipment. Many new materials have been developed and old standbys vastly improved since the war. Only by use of the highest grade materials does a home builder get the fullest value from his dollar.

New ideas of architects and designers should be considered and used if they will add to the family's enjoyment of the home.

Chestnuthill Properties Change Hands

Sale of two properties in Chestnuthill township to a Long Island, N. Y., man was filed here yesterday at the office of Register and Recorder Floyd Butz.

Lillian M. and Edward Frank, of Chestnuthill township, transferred title to the two properties to Hedwig Prochnow, of Glendale, N. Y. One of the properties includes a tract of approximately 65 acres.

Arthur L. and Mary J. Yetter, Smithfield township, conveyed title to a lot in Paradise township on a back road near Henryville to Carl H. and Frances E. Lilius, of Paradise township.

John N. and Ida M. Belcher and Edward L. and Helen E. Belcher, all of Stroud township, transferred title to a lot in that township to Charles D. Waltz, of 798 Ehler St., while Milton and May Singer, Jackson township, gave title to a tract on the McMichaels road in Jackson township to George A. and Ada M. Bisbing, Chestnuthill.

Woman Driver Gets Offender's License Number

Fairmont, W. Va. (AP) — Police Sgt. L. M. Napple asked a woman driver, "Did you get the other car's license number?"

"You're doggoned right I did," snapped the woman, who said that her vehicle was struck by a man backing his car from a parking lot.

"And here it is," she added, tossing a battered license plate onto the sergeant's desk.

The woman told officers that the other driver, when accused of striking her car, muttered a harsh invective and gave her a shove which knocked her to the pavement.

The woman, in climbing to her feet, simply grabbed the license plate of the other car and tore it loose, she reported.

Pocono Playhouse Announces Productions For Fifth Year

Mountainhome—The curtain will rise to open the fifth season of the popular Pocono Playhouse, in Mountainhome, on Monday night, June 18, according to an announcement yesterday by Rowena Stevens, producer-manager.

Situated in the heart of the Pocono Mountains, 15 miles north of Stroudsburg, the playhouse has taken top place among the summer theaters in the East for the quality of its productions which have featured outstanding Broadway and Hollywood personalities, supported by all-professional casts, in the great Broadway plays.

Mrs. Stevens will present as the first production this season, George Bernard Shaw's lively comedy "Candida," starring Hollywood's great dramatic actress Olivia de Havilland, twice winner of the Motion Picture Academy award. The play, written in Shaw's inimitable style, is considered one of the wisest and finest of all modern comedies and tells the story of a young woman with brains and compassionate understanding who must make a choice between her husband and an adolescent poet who has fallen in love with her. The delightful manner in which the situation is handled can only emanate from the pen of Shaw.

Mrs. Stevens also announced that among the plays scheduled throughout the season include "The Royal Family," starring Ruth Hussey; "Rain" with Lawrence Tibbett; "Second Threshold," with John Loder; "Junior Miss" starring Margaret O'Brien; "Here Comes Mr. Jordan" with Dane Clark; "Susan and God," starring Joan Bennett.

Richard Bender and John O'Shaughnessy, both of whom are well known to playhouse audiences will share directional duties during the season.

The box office at the Pocono Playhouse opened yesterday under the supervision of John Staley, of Yale University, and LaMar Clark.

Season tickets are again available for the convenience of playgoers and may be ordered by calling Cresco 8401 or by letter addressed to the playhouse.

Patients, Visitors, Staff Find Hospitality In New Shop At General Hospital

The Hospitality Shop at the General hospital is earning its title in the few weeks it has been opened to the public. Tucked into one of the rounded bay windows of the new wing of the hospital, it is a cheerful room, done in shades of blue and peach, with blonde furniture, the soda fountain, two tables and matching chairs, and the gift counters.

The hostesses come dressed in shades of peach, too, in the uniform for the sixty-some volunteers who assist the regular staff in serving patients, hospital personnel and guests who make use of the shop.

And they are making use of it in many ways. Light lunches provide breakfasts, luncheons and suppers for the families and friends of the patients, for the nurses on special duty, for the Grey Ladies on volunteer duty.

The fountain, too, has proved popular with doctors finished with their rounds, with members of the staff going off duty, and with visitors generally at the hospital.

Then there's the gift corner with cards, stationery, baby clothing, toys for children, and a stock of personal items which many a patient has forgotten in the rush to get to the hospital. There are nailfiles and toothpaste and shaving cream and razor blades and shoe strings and a number of other items.

For the convenience of the patients, two hospitality carts, stocked with the items most desired by the patients will be wheeled through the hospital each day by volunteers from the Junior Woman's club, one of the many organizations cooperating in providing volunteers for service.

Mrs. George Hauser, chairman of volunteers, has a list of about sixty women, and the list is still incomplete, who wish to help in the shop.

The Hospitality shop is open from 10:30 a.m. to 8 p.m. on weekdays and from 1 p.m. to 8 on Sundays. All of the help is volunteer with the exception of the staff, comprised of Mrs. Gilbert Barthold and Mrs. Park Rockwell, who add volunteer hours to their regular schedule.

Among the local women who have been serving during the opening weeks have been Mrs. Henry Reader, Mrs. Russell Imbt, Mrs. David Katz, Mrs. Alice Smith, Mrs. Nathan Kunkle, Mrs. Nevin Dorshimer, Mrs. Albert Scavo, Mrs. Paul Dellaria, Mrs. Gordon Savage, Mrs. George Rung.

Mrs. Samuel Perla, Mrs. Leon Koster, Miss Bess Gardner, Mrs. Edwin Dexter, Mrs. Eli Travis, Mrs. Fred Davis, Mrs. Thomas Breitwieser, Mrs. Harold Edwards, Mrs. Joseph Noonan, Mrs. F. Lynn Lantz, Mrs. Charles Grace, Mrs. Dorian Jaggard, Mrs. M. Ellsweig.

Mrs. Harold Meixell, Mrs. Samuel Snyderman, Mrs. Montgomery Crowe, Mrs. Edward G. Kenney, Mrs. Ralph Scheirer, Mrs. John Teisher, Mrs. Harold Stiff, Mrs. William Gorman, Mrs. LeRoy Bush, Mrs. Albert Buenzli, Mrs. John Moore, Mrs. Nathan Meyer, Mrs. Herman Muranski.

Mrs. Bernice Lemishow, Mrs. Carrie Slutter, Mrs. Dudley King, Mrs. Hugh Brannum, Mrs. Henry Tucker, Mrs. Harry Alberts, Miss Frances Everitt, Mrs. Dolores Cohen, Mrs. George Marsh, Mrs. Joseph Andre. The list is still to be completed.

Mrs. Hauser expects when the schedule has been fully set up to have each volunteer serve one shift one day a week. The morning shift runs from 10:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. and from 3:30 to 8 on weekdays and on Sunday from 1 to 5 and from 5 to 8.

Hoffstadts Celebrate Silver Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. John Hoffstadt who are today marking actual anniversary of their wedding twenty-five years ago, were the guests of honor at an informal party on Sunday afternoon at their home when about fifteen friends and relatives helped them celebrate their silver anniversary.

They received many gifts and a picnic supper was served. They were married May 29, 1926, in the historic Memorial Reformed church by Rev. John Diefenderfer of Easton.

Guests on Sunday included relatives and friends from Easton, and their daughter-in-law, Margaret Kemmerer Hoffstadt. Earlier they received a gift from their son, Pvt. Gene Hoffstadt, now stationed at the Sampson Air Force base.

Wilson Lees Observe 30th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson D. Lee celebrated their 30th wedding anniversary on Saturday, May 26, which also marked Mrs. Lee's birthday. Relatives and friends had been invited to help them celebrate.

Games and refreshments were enjoyed and they received many gifts. Those attending were: Mr. and Mrs. Wilson D. Lee, Ida Lee, John Lee, Mr .and Mrs. George E. Slutter, Mr. and Mrs. Philip D. Lee and daughter, Martha Ann, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Lockard, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lockard, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Lockard and children, Lanette Lockard and Robert Beehler, Mrs. Alfred Lee and son, Daniel, Mrs. Emmett Slutter, Mrs. Rod Kitchen, Miss Fern Kresge and Earl Huff.

Just Between Us

—By Bobby Westbrook

The celebrations for mothers this year are sort of stretching out longer than usual, which makes a happy situation, like getting a delayed Christmas present after New Year's.

First thing you know, though, they'll be coming up against Expectant Father's day. I thought it was a joke at first, but it's a very serious organization according to the announcement I received. Going to be celebrated nationally on June 16, and you're supposed to give them gifts and all.

What will they think of next? But around these parts, just now, every day seems to be children's day. More picnics and special outings than you can point a marshmallow stick at. And if all the hotdogs they've been eating were laid end to end, we could have that new bridge between the boroughs, and enough left over for a railing.

However, just for the record, tomorrow is Memorial day, and not to be confused with all these lesser "Days" that spot the calendar like measles.

Memorial day should be a day when we examine our hearts to see if we're worthy of the centuries of human courage and suffering and sacrifice that brought us here.

Junior Music Club Holds Election

The Junior Music Study club last night elected Charlotte Bach as its new president at the meeting held at the home of the retiring president, Ora Sutton, Prospect St., East Stroudsburg.

Other officers elected included Kathryn Ann Hickey, vice president; Marlene Michelfelder, recording secretary; Jane Lipe, corresponding secretary; Charlotte Herman, treasurer.

Miss Bach named the following committees to serve next year: scrapbook, Kathryn Palmer; membership, Marlene Michelfelder and Charlotte Bach; program, Ruth Tarr, Rochelle Sasi; publicity, Ann Fleming; Kelly fund, Charlotte Bach; radio, television and movies, Emily Ebert; magazine, Charlotte Bach.

Following the business meeting, a program was given based in large part on Chopin, whose life Miss Bach reported. Miss Herman played as piano solos his "Waltz in G flat major" and his "Funeral March".

Other music included a clarinet duet by Carol Carpenter and Ann Fleming, "Air" from Rigoletta", by Ferdi; and Glenn Snyder sang "Be My Love" and "Blue Moon". The program closed with a piano solo of one of Beehoven's sonatas played by Marlene Michelfelder.

Dirigo Class Has Party For Mothers, Guests

Dirigo class of the Zion Reformed church last night held its annual Mother and Daughter dinner at the church where the large number of mothers and guests were entertained. Small plants were presented to each guest, and after the supper a program of games was held.

Mrs. Kenneth Risley, president, presided at the meeting. Mrs. Alberta Yutz won the lucky chair game, and Mrs. Clara Heller, Mrs. Russell Bush, Mrs. Bertha Risley and Marie Altemose took part in a story game.

Mrs. Alberta Yutz in a soprano solo sang "O Mother of Mine" with Mrs. Dorothy Dunn as her accompanist.

Miss Mildred Bauer, Bible club leader, was the chief speaker giving an address of inspiration, which was followed by "The Lord's Prayer" sung by Mrs. Yutz.

Mothers Are Entertained By Youngsters

The children of the combined second and third grades at the Clearview school taught by Mrs. Esther Frisbie entertained their mothers at a party at the school on Friday, May 25. The program included songs, poems, plays and dances and was followed by refreshments served from a table decorated in yellow and white.

There were a number of preschool children among the guests. Mothers present included Mrs. David Shiffer, Mrs. Ernest Horn, Mrs. Hazel Custard, Mrs. Elwood Smith, Mrs. Russell Bush, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Cyriax, Mrs. Repsher, Mrs. Walter Weber, Mrs. Robert Marley, Mrs. Robert Ford, Mrs. John Baird. Principal Clarence Transue was also a guest.

Men's Council Launches Program Of Church Aid

Balancing practical and spiritual sides of laymen in church work, the Men's Council of the Stroudsburg Presbyterian church last night laid plans to help in renovating the church and heard a panel discussion by three of the members on "The Incomparable Book."

Walter McClelland, president of the council, was in charge of the business meeting when stress was put on the "Every Man" goal of the organization. The men also voted to adopt the proposition put by the trustees of the church to do actual work on the church building with supplies to be provided by the trustees.

Jonas T. May and Homer Heller were named delegates to the Presbytery election to be held June 6 in Easton.

Working from a program prepared by Mr. McClelland, Hayden Jones and Edward Williams joined him in a panel discussion on every-day application of the Bible to common experiences of life and the amazing accuracy of its prophecies and their fulfillment.

The meeting followed a supper at Wyckoff Recreation rooms.

Numismatist Honored

Fred Meitzler, of Stroudsburg, won an honorable mention for a large collection of gold at the first annual convention of the Tri-County Coin club held at Bossard's hotel, Lehighton, over the weekend. Coin collectors from Panther Valley, Lehigh and Monroe counties participated and displays, estimated at $50,000 worth, ranged from ancient Roman coins to modern dollar bills.

The couple has one son, Russell, of Pen Argyl, and three grandchildren, John and Peter Frable, and Mrs. William Brown, daughter of the late Walter Frable and Mrs. Evelyn Hess of Bangor.

Mr. and Mrs. Frable, who have resided in Pen Argyl for the past 50 years will hold open house Wednesday from 2 to 5 p. m. and from 7 to 9 p. m. A dinner for the immediate family will be held at noon at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Frable, 501 Pennsylvania Ave., Pen Argyl.

Senator Capehart To Speak At Republican Day In Monroe

Speaker at the Republican Day banquet on June 12 at Shawnee Inn will be U. S. Senator Homer Capehart, it has been announced by Mrs. J. Russell Custard, president of the Monroe council, which with the Barrett and Mount Pocono councils, is sponsoring the big celebration.

Senator Homer Capehart

Mr. Capehart, a native of Indiana, first won national prominence through his sponsorship of the Republican "cornfield conference" in 1938 held on his farm near Washington, Ind. In 1940 he directed the arrangement for the notification of Wendell Willkie, and in 1944 was elected to the United States Senate and reelected in 1950.

He is a member of the Senate Interstate and Foreign Commerce committee and is ranking Republican member of the Senate Banking and Currency committee.

A manufacturer, farmer as well as U. S. Senator, Capehart has been active in civic, political and patriotic drives and received the VFW distinguished service medal in 1942.

He is a member of the American Legion, Chamber of Commerce, Masonic order, 32nd degree, and a Shriner; a life member of the Loyal Order of Moose, as well as a member of the Eagles and the Elks.

He has three children, Homer Earl Capehart Jr., an attorney in Indianapolis; Thomas, an engineer and manufacturer, and a daughter, Patricia, who is a student at Maryland University.

Also to be featured at the banquet will be the crowning of a Mr. and Miss Republican from a group of teen-age candidates. Essays of contestants will be judged this next week and prizes awarded the winners. On addition the candidates are planning a quick but intensive electioneering campaign leading up to the election on Wednesday, June 9, at the YMCA when Mr. and Miss Republican will be selected, by majority vote. Some of the youngsters have had electioneering cards printed and will be doing door-to-door canvassing for votes. Winners of the contest will be given a trip to Harrisburg where they will be luncheon guests of the Governor, and tour the capital and other points of interest.

Some tickets are still available for the banquet for which dress will be optional, Mrs. Custard announced.

Miss McFall President Of Bangor BPWC

Bangor — Miss Beulah McFall was last night elected president of the Bangor Business and Professional Woman's club at a dinner meeting held at the Colonial hotel. She will succeed Miss Ruth Frederick, retiring president who presided at the meeting.

Other officers elected included Mrs. Marion Pritchard, first vice president; Miss Lottie Jewell, second vice president; Mrs. Adele Van Syckle, recording secretary; Miss Kathryn Shanahan, corresponding secretary; Miss Evelyn Rimel, treasurer.

Miss McFall was appointed delegate to the state convention to be held in Philadelphia on May 22.

It was reported that 82 street markers, special project of the club, had been erected in Bangor to date.

J. W. Yoder, of Huntingdon, Pa., was the guest speaker having as his topic "Amish Life and Culture." The entertainment also included three soprano solos by Miss Jean Fratelle Pinto with Miss Leila Flory as her accompanist.

Girl Scouts Have Cook-out

Troop 32, East Stroudsburg Girl Scouts, yesterday held a picnic supper meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Hartman, Cherry Lane, when they cooked their supper over a fire, and learned to lash sticks together to make outdoor cooking equipment and camp.

Plans were made for a swimming party and camping trip on June 11. Mrs. Harry Heller, troop leader, was assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Hartman and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Repsher.

Susan Harmon Heads Youth Group

Susan Harmon was elected moderator of the Junior Youth Fellowship of the Stroudsburg Presbyterian church at a picnic supper meeting held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Turner on Sunday afternoon.

Other officers elected for the coming year included Nancy Westbrook, vice moderator, and Martha Williams, clerk.

Finely shredded carrot added to a green salad helps to give it attractive color.

Around The Stroudsburgs

Mrs. Hattie Mack, of North Hills, Philadelphia who was formerly the wife of the late Rev. A. W. Buck, of Keokee Chapel, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Charles Neyhart, of 70 Smith St., Stroudsburg, over the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Setzer, of 425 Normal St., East Stroudsburg will celebrate their 15th wedding anniversary on Decoration day, Wednesday, May 30.

Mrs. Nelson T. Beers, of Sarah St., Stroudsburg, is entertaining as her guests Amy Beers, R. N., former vice president of the American College of Hospital Administrators, and retired superintendent of the Hackley hospital, Muskegon, Mich., and Adelaide P. Beers, R. N., B. S., director of the Burlington Protestant hospital, Burlington, Iowa.

Only two members of the 22-man University of Florida basketball team live out of the state.

Borough Mails Tax Notices At Portland

Portland — The tax bills for the borough and the county of Northampton were mailed during the past week by the local tax collector, Mrs. Gwladys Carpenter.

The borough millage of 15 mills and the county millage of 11½ mills remained the same as last year, as does the place of collection and the date for collecting on Mondays from 5 p. m. to 8 p. m.

The discount period of 2 per cent runs to July 31, the net period to September 30. After October 1 a five per cent penalty is added to the bill. All occupation taxes that remain unpaid on October 1 are subjected to a wage attachment.

The school taxes will be mailed on July 1 and the millage of 18 mills and $5 per capita remains the same as last year. School taxes are two per cent period to September 1, net period to November 1, and penalty period of five per cent thereafter.

Wage attachments are the same as the county and borough after November 1.

Urges Fuel Hoarding

Washington (AP) — Secretary of the Interior Chapman asked in the name of defense yesterday that industries and homeowners buy their fuel for next winter as early as possible this summer.

Lancaster Cattle

Lancaster, (AP)—Cattle 2377, good grade fat steers sold at steady prices. Other grades 25 to 50 cents lower than last week. Calves 472, all grades steady. Hogs 1350, market barely steady. Bulk of sales $22.50, sheep 525, lambs are scarce, all grades sold slowly at barely steady prices. Market will close all day Wednesday.

Blast Injures Four Men On River Project

Livingston Manor, N. Y. (AP)— A premature dynamite blast yesterday injured four workers in a tunnel in the Delaware river water supply project.

Seriously hurt were Vance Coffey, 26, and Thomas Devaney, 29. Coffey's brother, Lee, 24 and Andrew Kurpil, 28, suffered less serious injuries.

All four men live at Liberty, and were taken to the Maimonides hospital there.

Joseph Aspenleiter, safety engineer for that part of the reservoir project, said several other men, slightly hurt by the blast, were treated by a doctor here.

Car Thief Gets Poisonous Cargo

Philadelphia (AP) — The thief who stole a blue Ford on Sunday night acquired some dangerous cargo.

In the trunk compartment of the car were several jars of biscuits and peanut butter containing a deadly poison.

The car belongs to George S. Brehm, president of the Hygienic Sanitation Co.

6,000 gallons, more or less, of bituminous material, Type C-1 or C-2 and 1,130 gallons, more or less, of bituminous material, E-1 or DL-2 applied to township roads as required, and 64 tons, more or less, of 1-B stone and 170 tons, more or less of 2-B stone, f.o.b. plant, for construction and 200 tons, more or less, No 2 or 2-B for maintenance as required.

Proposal forms, Specifications, Form of Contract and Instructions to Bidders may be obtained at the home of, or by writing to Arlie W. Kresge, Secretary, Board of Supervisors, Saylorsburg R.D. 1, Pennsylvania.

Road Materials specified herein, shall meet the Standard Specifications of the Pennsylvania Department of Highways.

The successful bidder, when awarded the contract, shall furnish a bond with suitable, reasonable requirements, guaranteeing the (work to be done) or (delivery to be made) with sufficient surety amounting to 50 per centum of the amount of the contract.

All proposals must be upon the form furnished by the undersigned.

The supervisors reserve the right to reject any or all proposals.

ARLIE W. KRESGE,
Secretary of Board.

NOTICE TO COAL DEALERS

The Board of School Directors of the School District of the Borough of East Stroudsburg, East Stroudsburg, Monroe County, Pennsylvania, will receive sealed proposals for contracts for delivery of approximately four hundred (400) tons of No. 1 or Grade A Fresh Mined Buckwheat Coal, 2,000 lbs to the ton; deliveries to be made to respective bins in the High School building on North Courtland Street and the Junior High School building on East Broad Street, all in the said Borough of East Stroudsburg, at any time previous to actual time of receipt of requirements as may be indicated by weather conditions during the coming Fall and Winter months and as storage space becomes available in the aforesaid buildings.

All bids must give the following information:

1. Commercial name of coal.
2. Name of mine.
3. Location of mine.
4. Name and address of operator of mine.

Coal must not contain an undue amount of moisture, slate, stone, bone or dirt and no washery coal will be accepted.

All deliveries are to be weighed by a representative of the School Board and upon such scales as he may designate, payments for coal deliveries to be based upon such weights.

The successful bidder is required to enter into a written contract with the School District and to furnish a performance bond in the amount of one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) within ten days after the contract has been awarded, and upon failure to execute a contract or to furnish such bond within such time, the previous award shall be void.

All bids are to be in the hands of the Secretary of the Board not later than 5:00 o'clock P. M., Friday, June 8, 1951.

The Board of School Directors reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

BOARD OF SCHOOL DIRECTORS,
Borough of East Stroudsburg, Penna.
H. S. ECKERT, Secretary.

NOTICE TO BIDDERS

Sealed bids will be received by the Borough of Stroudsburg for painting the Sluge Drying House at the Stroudsburg Sewage Treatment Works.

Copies of the specifications may be examined at the office of the Borough Secretary in the Municipal Building, Stroudsburg, Pa.

Each proposal shall be accompanied by a certified check in the amount of $100.00 drawn in favor of the Borough of Stroudsburg. The certified check will be retained as liquidated damages in case the successful bidder shall neglect or refuse to enter into a contract in accordance with his bid.

The successful bidder is required to furnish a Performance Bond in the amount of fifty per cent. (50%) of the contract and a Labor and Material Bond in the amount of one hundred per cent. (100%) of the contract within ten days after the contract has been awarded and shall submit evidence of compliance with the Workmen's Compensation Laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and upon failure to execute a proper agreement or to furnish the bonds within such time or to submit the evidence of compliance with the Workmen's Compensation Laws, the previous award shall be void.

No bidder may withdraw his bid within thirty days after the actual date of opening thereof.

Sealed bids must be in the hands of Harold M. Snyder, Borough Secretary, Municipal Building, Stroudsburg, Pa., not later than 7:30 o'clock P. M. (E. D. S. T.) June 6, 1951, at which time said bids will be opened and read in open meeting of Council in the Council Room of the Municipal Building.

The Borough reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

By Order of the Borough Council
HAROLD E. SNYDER

Here is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 6. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your keynumber. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters give you.

Charles Meets Maxim For Heavy Title

By Jerry Liska

Chicago (AP)—Light-heavyweight champion Joey Maxim will try to wrest the heavyweight crown from the man who beat him last, favored Ezzard Charles at the Chicago stadium tomorrow night.

The fourth meeting between these two lithe punchers, who'll be separated by only a pound or two in the low 180's, marks the eighth title defense by Charles. Both battlers ended conditioning yesterday, lean, healthy and ready for the fray.

Charles probably will tip 182 or 183 and Maxim about 181 at tomorrow's noon weigh-in.

Maxim, who likely will be a nine to five underdog at the opening bell (10 p. m. EST) still claims he beat Charles in their last bout more than two years ago. That was a 15-rounder at Cincinnati on February 28, 1949 won by fast-finishing Charles on a split decision. When both were fuzzy-chinned, youths, back in 1942, Charles won two ten-rounders from Maxim.

Last Defeat

The Cincinnati 15-rounder marked Maxim's last defeat. Since then, he has had a dozen bouts. Only two are worth mentioning. Joey claimed the American light heavy title by Gus Lesnevich in May, 1949. On January 24, 1950, Maxim knocked out England's Freddie Mills in the tenth round at London for the world light heavy crown.

Charles has lost only five fights in his entire career, bowing last four years ago in a ten rounder with Elmer Ray July 25, 1947, at New York City.

But Charles didn't bounce onto fightdom's glory until he whipped aged Jersey Joe Walcott for Joe Louis' vacated heavyweight crown at Comiskey park, June 22, 1949.

Then followed successful title defenses against Lesnevich, Pat Valentino, Freddy Beshore, Louis, Nick Barone, Lee Oma and Walcott. Charles' second meeting with Walcott was his last start, a 15-rounder that made the champion hustle for a decision at Detroit, March 7.

The two principals tonight are almost as well matched in age as in weight. Maxim is 29. Charles will be 30 on July 20.

Feller Blanks Tigers, 9-0

Detroit (AP) — Veteran Bob Feller pitched his second straight shutout last night as the Cleveland Indians battered the Detroit Tigers 9 to 0. The Indians got 15 hits off three Detroit pitchers and ended a four game losing streak.

Feller, who shut out Washington with two hits his last appearance, gave up six hits in winning his sixth game against one defeat. The big righthander also smashed a double and two singles to drive in two runs.

Circuit Smash

Cleveland's Luke Easter blasted his first home run as the Indians handed Ted Gray his fourth loss. Gray has one victory.

Every Cleveland starter except Larry Doby hit at least once. Snuffy Stirnweiss smacked three hits. Ray Boone and Jim Hegan each drove in a pair of runs.

Feller, the 32-year-old fireballer from Van Meter, Ia., has given up only 11 earned runs in 60 1-3 innings. He walked only two men and was in trouble only in the last two innings last night when two runners reached base each time.

Bangor High Finishes Season

Bangor — Bangor High school will wind up its baseball season this afternoon, when the charges of Coach Dave Thomas invade the home domain of Belvidere, N.J., High school, at 4 p.m.

Revenge

Belvidere won an early season decision over Bangor early in the present campaign, but the Slaters are hopeful of evening matters tomorrow.

Glenn Raph, righthander, is scheduled to do the pitching for the Bangor contingent.

Trips People's Coal In Little League

Stroudsburg Security Trust opened the Stroudsburg Little League baseball season with a bang last night by scoring a 15-2 victory over People's Coal Co. at Stroudsburg Playground. In the vicinity of 300 people were on hand to see "Super" Phillips retire 14 batters on strikes and lead his team to the decision with four base hits.

Phillips was the center of attention during the opening contest of the campaign as he retired the first six men to face him on strikes, while allowing only three hits during the five innings he worked. Charley McNeal hurled the last frame for the winning contingent.

Paul Frailey hurled well, but the Security Trust club scored three times in the first inning and held the upper hand the remainder of the distance. However, Frailey did account for two of the three hits registered by the losing club.

Security Trust added to its three-run first inning total with one in the third, two in the fourth and nine fat counters in the bottom of the fifth.

Runs

Tonight's schedule calls for the First Stroudsburg National Bank to meet the Penn-Stroud Hotel, also at Stroudsburg Playground, at 6:30. There will be no game tomorrow.

Last night's program opened with a parade of players and interested parties from court house square to the playground, with the Stroudsburg High school drum and bugle corps adding to the color. Officers of the league also joined in the march.

Hal H. Harris, chief burgess of Stroudsburg, threw the first ball from the pitching mound, to officially open the campaign.

Twenty-Five Cars To Race On New Track

Delaware Valley Speedway will open as scheduled tomorrow, Memorial Day, at 2 p.m., with six events featuring the opening day card at the newest automobile racing track in Monroe county. More than 25 cars are scheduled to take part in the opening day festivities.

The dust proof track is a half-mile oval with a hard clay base and is expected to be in near perfect condition by starting time. The track will feature stock car racing only.

At the present time the seating capacity is somewhere around 1,000, but when the stands are complete they will seat in the vicinity of 2,500 paying customers.

Program

Three qualifying heats are listed on the agenda for tomorrow, with a consolation grind, a semi-final race and a final event to be run off in rapid succession.

Art "Lou" Williams, one of the track directors, announced that cars must meet safety specifications and those not up to specifications won't be allowed to race.

The track is located at the Stroudsburg - East Stroudsburg airport, on Route 209, about three miles from East Stroudsburg.

In addition to Williams, those behind the track are Junior King and Bill Howell.

White Sox Keep Rolling

Chicago, (AP) — The Chicago White Sox rode their twelfth straight victory into first place in the American League by defeating the St. Louis Browns, 4-2, before 23,138 persons here last night.

Pitcher Saul Rogovin, making his second start for Chicago, surrendered just two hits, both singles to earn his second victory as the rampaging White Sox raced to their eighteenth triumph in the past 20 games.

Two Markers

The White Sox mixed three hits, all singles, with a walk and Jimmy Delsing's throwing error for their first pair of runs in the first inning. Eddie Robinson's hit powered the first run, and Eddie Stewart scored the other on Delsing's miscue.

St. Louis loaded the bases with two walks and Rogovin's throwing error in the fifth. Then Hank Arft got across with a hit-less run after Bob Young flied out.

Cards Advance By Downing Pirates

St. Louis (AP) — The St. Louis Cardinals took over second place in the National League by defeating the Pittsburgh Pirates 6-5 last night with "Red" Schoendienst driving in the winning run with a single in the tenth inning.

Stan Musial hit a three-run homer for the Cardinals, and Ralph Kiner, George Metkovich and pitcher Cliff Chambers homered for the Pirates.

Tenth

Peanuts Lowry tripled to left center to start the Cardinal tenth. Two men were purposely walked and, after two Redbirds were forced at the plate, Schoendienst lined a single past David Bell with Del Rice scoring the deciding run. Bell apparently lost the ball in the park lights. The contest drew 9,757 fans.

The Pirates sent the game into the extra inning with a run in the ninth. Wally Westlake singled, advanced to third on a single by Danny Murtaugh, and scored on George Strickland's lazy roller to Schoendienst.

Sewell Hit By Flu

Cincinnati (AP)— The intestinal flu, which laid the St. Louis Cardinals low, struck at Manager Luke Sewell of the Cincinnati Reds yesterday.

He said he had picked up a flu germ, apparently while in St. Louis.

Life of Riley

By JIM RILEY
Sports Editor

East Stroudsburg State Teachers College received two of the best gifts it could ever hope for, when the 1951 graduating class presented the school with $904.36 at the Alumni dinner on Saturday night, with the instructions that the money be used by the school to obtain a new football scoreboard and a public address system for the gymnasium, two items that have been conspicuous by their absence in recent years. It was also fitting that the check should be presented by Alma Corson, one of the two three-letter athletes in the school during the past campaign.

Pocono A. C. is planning an outstanding schedule of exhibition games for the coming summer months, if they can arrange to have the lights turned on, or rather arrange for money or someone to go a $300 note for the organization. As mentioned previously, all the money will be returned providing the local Blue Mountain league meets each and every payment on the lights at the stipulated time. A game has already been arranged with the Endicott-Johnson Shoe Co. team, while plans have been prepared to play host to the House of David and the Kalamazoo Klowns.

The Monroe county entry in the Blue Mountain league has also prepared a nifty program, to be distributed during the remainder of the season, starting at Thursday's home clash with Johnsonville. The program will be passed out free of charge. Frank Radler's entry in the Florida State league is currently in second place but has been alternating with Leesburg between the number two and three spots. Evansville, Ind., the team with which Harry Warner, Reeders, plays first base, is currently tied for third place in the class "B" Three I league.

Irv Fortune, manager of the Nazareth Barons, North Atlantic league, last year, was named to pilot the Enterprise entry in the class "D" Alabama-Florida league last week. Lou Hummell, field general of the Berwick club, also of the North Atlantic league, early last year, left the Port Arthur team, of the Gulf Coast league, last week for his home in Pennsylvania. The Gulf Coast circuit is of class "B" caliber.

There was more than one member of both the Blue Mountain and Pocono Mountain leagues that wished they could do something about the weather on Sunday. All but one game of the nine scheduled in the two leagues was postponed on Sunday morning, when the rain was falling plenty hard. However, around noon the skies cleared and the sun came out brightly, drying everything until after 5 p. m., when it rained again. However, virtually all the clubs wished that they didn't have to call their games off at noon, as they could have easily played the contests.

However, research has failed to provide anyone who can do anything about the weather, especially on such short notice. Thursday has been listed as makeup day in the Blue Mountain league, while the four unplayed contests in the Pocono Mountain circuit will undoubtedly be held as part of doubleheaders at a later date. Although Stroudsburg's Little League season got under way last night, East Stroudsburg's circuit won't open until next week. Mayor Hal Harris' first toss at last night's Little League opener was a wild heave past the catcher.

The bleachers for the Little League field were taken from along the first and third base lines at Gordon Giffels field. However, there are still plenty of bleacher facilities for those who will watch Pocono A. C. in action the remainder of the season. At least one bleacher section still remains on both the first and third base lines at the full sized ball yard. Chet Lucki will be unable to pitch for Pocono A. C. for the next couple of games, due to a foot injury.

Stan Dudas, former member of the Shawnee Country club professional staff, is now at Fort Meade, Md., as a member of Uncle Sam's Army. Art Youngken, one of the mainstays on the Pocono High school baseball team during the past campaign, has signed to play with Tannersville, of the Pocono Mountain league, for the remainder of the season.

Sommers Hurls No-Hitter For Junior High

Jack Sommers hurled a no-hit, no-run game yesterday afternoon as East Stroudsburg Junior High school brought its 1951 season to a close with a 7-0 victory over Portland, on the winning team's home grounds.

Sommers was in complete control of the contest from start to finish, retiring eight batters on strikes in addition to hurling hitless ball.

Early Lead

East Stroudsburg took a one run edge at the end of the first inning, picked up one more in each of the third and fifth frames and then put the contest in the bag with four big markers in the bottom of the sixth frame.

Five of the seven East Stroudsburg runs were earned.

Bill Pensyl hurled a five-hitter for Portland, with Sommers and Counterman leading the way with two each. The big blow of the game was Counterman's triple in the sixth frame.

Pirates Acquire Maguire

Pittsburgh (AP)— The Pittsburgh Pirates yesterday obtained Jack Maguire, reserve outfielder for the New York Giants, on waivers.

The 26-year-old outfielder played in 29 games for the Giants last season and batted .175. To stay within the 25-player limit, Pirate officials said they would option Dale Long to one of their minor league clubs.

Red Sox Continue Streak By Nipping Yanks On Doerr's Hit

Boston, (AP)—Bobby Doerr's one-on homer enabled Mel Parnell to best Allie Reynolds last night as the Boston Red Sox gained their eighth straight victory by topping the championship New York Yankees, 3-2. Both of the New York runs were unearned. Rookie Gil McDougald impressed the 31,902 crowd by bashing four consecutive singles for the Yanks.

The Red Sox were limited to six hits, the last of which was a single that extended Dom DiMaggio's hitting streak to 16 consecutive games. Dom, however, was nailed when he tried to stretch it into a double.

The first Boston safeties were a Vern Stephens' single and Doerr's four-bagger in the second frame. It was his sixth of the season and it cleared the left field wall.

Deciding Tally

The deciding Boston tally came in the third, when Billy Goodman singled, advanced on Lou Boudreau's grounder and romped in from second base on Stephens' second and final hit.

Southpaw Parnell kept nine New York hits fairly well scattered and his own wild heave gave the Yankees their first run. It came in the sixth inning when McDougald slammed his third hit before Phil Rizzuto beat out a bunt. Parnell fielded it and McGougald came all the way around to the plate when the Boston pitcher threw wide to first base.

In the ninth, after Joe DiMaggio beat out a slow roller for his only safety in four tries, the Yankee Clipper moved to third on a pair of infield outs and then scored when first baseman Walt Dropo bobbled Gerry Coleman's hard roller.

Special Program At Blakeslee

Blakeslee — Pocono Sunrise Speedway will hold a special seven-race card here tomorrow afternoon, with the first qualifying heat scheduled to take place at 2:30 p.m. Last Sunday's card was washed off the books by rain.

Extra Race

The usual stock car racing program calls for six events, but due to the holiday celebration, another grind has been added to the program.

Racing will return to this half-mile dirt oval on Sunday, with the usual weekend program.

Braves Take Measure Of Giants, 4-1

New York (AP) — Bob Elliott homered after Willard Marshall lashed a one-on triple in the first inning last night to inspire the Boston Braves for a 4-1 victory over the New York Giants. The home forces' tally was provided by rookie Willie Mays' homer, his first major league hit.

The most potent of the Tribesmen's seven hits snapped the string of 21 consecutive scoreless innings the Giants had woven against the opposition, much to the dismay of 23,101, the Polo Grounds largest floodlighted gathering to date.

Marshall's three-bagger drove in Roy Hartsfield, who had opened the game with a single.

Homer

The 19-year-old Mays, hitless on his 12 previous trips, poled over the left field roof the first time he faced southpaw Warren Spahn in the bottom of the first. Before that spectacular rookie came up, Eddie Stanky had walked and been rubbed out when "Whitey" Lockman hit into a double play.

The Braves' fourth marker came in the third, when winless Sheldon Jones was replaced by Al Gettel. Singles by Marshall and Earl Torgeson drove Jones to cover and Marshall managed to get to the plate as Elliott hit into a double play. The latter protested that ruling so violently that he was ejected.

Slumping Phillies Fall Before Dodgers, 4-3

Philadelphia (AP) — Carl Furillo's sixth home run of the season in the ninth inning gave the Brooklyn Dodgers a 4 to 3 victory over the slumping Philadelphia Phillies last night. Ralph Branca was the winning pitcher as the Phillies went down to their fifth straight defeat.

The Dodgers made ten hits off lefty Ken Heintzelman, including Gil Hodges fifteenth home run of the season. Seven of the Brooklyn hits were for extra bases with Furillo contributing two doubles in addition to his game winning home run.

Heintzelman, though hit hard when the Dodgers met the ball, struck out 11 of the hardest hitting crew in the National league. The hard luck left hander, now loser of five and winner of one, was alternately brilliant and mediocre.

Improves Picture

Branca made Manager Charley Dressen's Brooklyn pitching picture a little brighter on this damp and rainy night as the big right hander won his first starting assignment since September 26, 1950. He allowed seven hits and walked only one. A half hour delay because of rain in the bottom of the eighth failed to cool off the one time premier pitcher of the National league. It was Ralph's second win against two defeats.

The Dodgers tallied their first run in the second on a single by Gil Hodges and a double by Furillo.

The Phillies matched this with the aid of a Billy Cox error in their half. Willie Jones doubled inside third base after one out. Gran Hamner lifted to "Duke" Snider and Andy Seminick rolled to Billy Cox for what looked like the third out, but the third baseman booted the ball. Mike Goliat singled and Jones scored.

The Phillies added two more in the third when Ed Waitkus walked, Richie Ashburn singled and Del Ennis doubled both home.

Hodges picked up one of these in the fourth with his fifteenth home run. It placed him three days ahead of Babe Ruth's homer pace when the Bambino hit 60 in 1927. The Brooks knotted the count in the fourth on doubles by Jackie Robinson and Furillo.

Schoonover Undecided On Hurler

Pocono A.C. will go in search of victory number five tomorrow afternoon, when Manager John Schoonover and company stack up against West Bangor, on the latter's home field, at 2:30 p.m. Monroe county's entry in the Blue Mountain league is currently sporting a mark of four victories and one setback.

Schoonover was undecided about tomorrow's pitcher, but did announce that the choice would be either Clint Besecker or himself. Both probable pitchers are veteran right handers.

Thursday

Although Schoonover wasn't certain of tomorrow's hurler, he did announce that Ray Steele, East Stroudsburg High school student, would do the pitching against Johnsonville on Thursday, at Gordon Giffels field. This contest is listed to begin at 6:15. Steele is also a right hander.

The remainder of tomorrow's schedule will send Tatamy against East Bangor, on the latter's home diamond, while Stockertown plays at Portland and Roseto invades the home domain of Johnsonville. Each contest begins at 2:30 p.m.

Thursday's schedule also calls for West Bangor to play at Stockertown and East Bangor at Roseto. In each instance the contest begins at 6:15. All Thursday night contests are games that were rained out last Sunday.

The Tatamy and Portland contest that was washed off the books on Thursday hasn't been rescheduled as yet.

Chisox Receive Royal Welcome By Home Fans

Chicago (AP) — The Chicago White Sox thundered home yesterday on the wings of their greatest road performance in American League history to a whooping welcome by fans parched by a 32-year Pale Hose pennant thirst.

The club was accorded a hero's welcome, replete with a gladhand by the mayor who proclaimed it "White Sox Day" and told Manager Paul Richards "All Chicago is very proud" of the team's 11-straight victory sweep through five cities.

A crowd of more than 1,000 rolled cheers through the La Salle Street Station as the Sox stalwarts detrained. Thousands more along the street applauded as a police escort roared them across the Loop to the city hall.

Happy Mayor

Mayor Kennelly beamed as Richards, vice-president "Chuck" Comiskey and a dozen players marched into his chambers for hand-shaking congratulations. Orestes Minoso, fleet Negro third sacker, came late. His baggage was lost temporarily at the station. So he did a solo handshake with "hizzoner."

At the station, one little girl waved a sign proclaiming "White Sox opponents never die, they just fade away." Perhaps the loudest salvo of applause was directed at shortstop Chico Carrasquel. After visiting the mayor's office, the brilliant fielding star from Caracas, Venezuela, had an injured shoulder X-rayed at Mercy Hospital.

Five Contests On Schedule

All ten teams in the Pocono Mountain league will swing into action tomorrow afternoon, as part of the Memorial Day celebration. In each case the contest will get underway at 2 p.m.

Among the top games of the day will be the contest between Reeders and Analomink, on the latter's home field in Henryville.

Agenda

Other battles on the holiday agenda will feature West End A.C. at Kunkletown, Saylorsburg at Lake Harmony, Barrett at Pocono Lake and Tannersville will be at home with Tobyhanna.

Sunday's agenda will also contain five games, featuring Kunkletown at Tannersville, in one of the top contests. Neither team has lost as yet.

The remainder of the slate finds Reeders at Barrett, Analomink at Pocono Lake, West End A.C. at Saylorsburg and Lake Harmony at Tobyhanna. Sunday's starting time is also listed for 2:30 p.m.

Receives Recognition

Thirty-Three Starters Ready For Action At Indianapolis

Indianapolis, (AP) — Chet Miller, 48-year-old veteran of 14 Memorial Day auto races, gave the youngsters a driving lesson yesterday in the final qualifying session for tomorrow's 500-mile event.

In spite of a gusty wind that whipped the turns, Miller paced the last six qualifiers with a ten-mile run at 135.798 miles an hour in a Novi V-8.

Only two drivers ever turned four laps of the speedway at better speeds. Duke Nalon, driving the twin to Miller's car, earned the pole position May 12 with an average of 136.498 MPH. That was the record till Walt Faulkner broke it a week later at 136.872.

Yesterday's session, added after a rainy weekend left the field unfilled, brought out 25 drivers in spite of dangerous driving conditions. Ten of them qualified but four were quickly eliminated by faster cars.

It was a long day for Cecil Green of Houston, Tex., whose 131.892 miles an hour was the slowest time of 27 cars that qualified before yesterday. But nobody turned in a better speed after the 33-car field was filled.

Second Best

Robert K. "Blazin' Bobby" Ball of Phoenix, Ariz., had the second-best speed of 134.098 in the new Blakely's Special. Speedway oldtimers rank him as one of the best prospects who ever drove the two and one-half mile track.

First Memorial Day starts also were earned yesterday by Joe James of Van Nuys, Calif., in Glendale, Calif., when he isn't driving, were dominated by first-time qualifiers.

The added starters besides Miller, who upholsters race cars in the Bob Estes Special, at 133.919; Andy Linden of Los Angeles, the Leitenberger Special, 132.227, and Bill Mackey of Indianapolis, the Karl Hall Special, 131.473.

"Duke" Dinsmore of Dayton, O., rounded out the field, qualifying for his fifth "500" at 131.974 in the New Brown Co. Special.

Temporary occupants of the lineup were Bob Swikert of Hayward, Calif., in the Marion Engineering Special, 131.224; Frank Armi of Hanford, Calif., Ross Page Offenhauser, 130.842; Bayloss Leverett, Glendale, Calif., Safety Seal Special, 128.329, and Jimmy Bryan, Phoenix, Viking Trailer Special, 124.176.

One smashup and a half-dozen near accidents were blamed partly on the strong wind and partly on drivers "going over their heads" in attempts to match the record speeds.

"Bud" Sennett of Los Angeles lost control of his Auto Accessories Special on the southwest turn, skidded into the infield and hit a tree. His injuries appeared confined to cuts and bruises but he was taken to a hospital for a checkup.

Joseph Barzda of New Brunswick, N. J., also slid into the infield in his Barza Special but came back for a second unsuccessful attempt.

Danny Kaladis of Chicago also was unhurt when his Rearengine Trainor Chicago Special, the one-time Tucker Torpedo Special, began belching smoke. He skidded to a stop in the east straightway and the car did not burn.

Sawyer Still Picks Phillies

Philadelphia, (AP)—Eddie Sawyer, the scholarly tactician who directs the fortunes of the Philadelphia Phillies, yesterday dismissed his club's losing ways as "just one of those things" and announced firmly that the Phils are still the team to beat in the National league.

That's no empty prediction, despite the fact that the Phils have lost four in a row and ten of their last 15. Sawyer is not inclined to make bold statements in which he does not believe.

National league champions last season, the former "Whiz Kids" have looked more like "Phiz Kids" so far this season.

Example

"But we'll snap out of it," Sawyer observed with a patience rarely seen among baseball managers. "Look at the Giants. They lost 11 in a row and now they're playing better than .500 ball."

The one-time college professor admitted freely that he can't explain rationally the slump of his ball club. At various times this season, the pitching, fielding and hitting have collapsed—and sometimes all together.

"Mostly it's the hitting," Sawyer said. "I had the team out at batting practice this morning, just like I do every time I have the chance. But we don't hit, even in batting practice."

Such reliable hitters as Del Ennis, Willie Jones, Granny Hamner and Eddie Waitkus have been soft touches for opposing pitchers in the clutch. Only Richie Ashburn and Dick Sisler have maintained any consistency at the plate.

"If I knew why these men weren't hitting," Sawyer said, a bit sadly, "I could retire as a baseball manager and be a swami. Frankly, I'd rather manage a baseball team."

Title Fight Planned

New York (AP) — A welterweight title fight between champion "Kid" Gavilan of Cuba and Billy Graham of New York may be staged in Madison Square Garden, August 1.

Harry Markson, managing director of the International Boxing Club, said yesterday the date will be some time in September at the Chicago Stadium, possibly September 5.

Bout In Making

Chicago (AP) — A middleweight championship bout between Sugar Ray Robinson, the title holder, and Rocky Graziano is in the making. James D. Norris, president of the International Boxing Club, said yesterday the date will be some time in September at the Chicago Stadium, possibly September 5.

"Farming with a McCORMICK* FARMALL* CUB sure beats Mule Farming!"

*McCormick and Farmall are separately registered trade marks of International Harvester Company.

See how much work you can do with a FARMALL CUB!

JOB	Acres per day
Plowing (moldboard)	3 to 3½
Plowing (disk plow)	2 to 2½
Middlebusting or bedding	6 to 8
Disking (tandem disk)	12
Harrowing (peg-tooth)	24
Planting cotton or corn (1-row)	8 to 10
Planting cotton or corn (2-row)	15
Cultivating cotton or corn	9 to 12
Mowing	12 to 15

You name the farming job—and chances are the McCormick Farmall Cub tractor can handle it . . . and do it better and cheaper than with two or three horses or mules.

This handy, low-cost tractor for farms of 10 to 30 or 40 crop acres will do your plowing, disking, harrowing, middlebusting, planting, and cultivating faster and easier than with mules. And you ride as you work! Extra crops from the land you've had to use to grow feed for mules will soon pay for this easy-handling tractor.

Ask us for a demonstration of the Farmall Cub with matched McCormick equipment and muscle-saving Farmall Touch-Control.

Remember when 40¢ bought a pound of coffee?

It's hard to buy anything today that sells at anywhere near the 1940 price level.

But there are a few exceptions. Telephone service is one.

Although Pennsylvania families can reach many more telephones than they could 10 years ago, they are paying only a few cents a day more for it.

Even if telephone service should cost more it still would be a much smaller part of the family budget than it was ten years ago.

In Honored Remembrance

ACE—In loving memory of our son and brother, Clarence Ace, who passed away June 1, 1948.
Three years ago you left us
So suddenly that night.
God took you in his loving arms and then,
Turned out the light.
We know your soul is resting
Well guarded by His love.
And we're waiting to join you again sometime
In that heavenly home above.
MR. & MRS. DURLING ACE AND FAMILY

ARNOLD—In memory of the late Susan E. Arnold, mother of Anna K. Arnold Snyder, who passed away Nov. 14, 1950 Sadly missed by,
ANNA K. ARNOLD SNYDER.

BARRY—In loving memory of Oscar W. Barry, husband of Lucy Barry, Stroudsburg, who passed away Nov. 2, 1950.
I cannot say, and I will not say
That he is dead—he is just away.
With a cheery smile
and a wave of the hand
He has wandered into an unknown land
and left us dreaming how very fair
It needs must be, since he lingers there.
So think of him faring on, as dear
In the love of there as the love of here:
Think of him still as the same, I say:
He is not dead—he is just away.
LUCY BARRY

DENNIS—In memory of the late Harry A. Dennis, husband of Anna M. Dennis, East Stroudsburg, who passed away March 21, 1919.
ANNA M. DENNIS.

BITTERMAN—In loving memory of our dear husband and father, Leon Miller Bitterman, who died June 6th, 1949.
If all the world was ours to give
We'd give it all and more.
To see the face we loved so dearly
Come smiling through the door.
Sadly missed by
WIFE AND FAMILY

BUTTS—In honored and loving memory of Staff Sgt. Butts, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Butts, killed in action in France, Aug 1, 1944.
KNOWLES—Arthur Knowles, husband of Effie Knowles, who passed away Sept 18, 1947
WILLIAMS—Dorothy B. Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Butts, who passed away May 18, 1947.
BREWER—Horace R. Brewer, husband of Laura Brewer, who passed away Jan 24, 1950.
All sadly missed and lovingly remembered by
PARENTS, HUSBANDS, WIVES, BROTHERS, SISTERS, AND CHILDREN.

DAHL—In memory of the late Mary E. Dahl, wife of Alvin Dahl, 527 Sarah St., Stroudsburg, who passed away May 16, 1949
FRANK S. WEISS.

DICKISON—In memory of the late Miss Ruth Elaine Dickison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs C. B. Dickison, of 38 Stoffiet St., Stroudsburg, who passed away July 28, 1939.
MR. & MRS. C. B. DICKISON.

DUCKWORTH—In fond memory of Harvey R. Duckworth, World War I Veteran, Father of Helen Miller, East Stroudsburg, who passed on July 24, 1942
Those happy hours we once enjoyed,
How sweet their memory still.
But death has left a loneliness,
The world can never fill.
HELEN MILLER.

DUTZAR—In the loving memory of my husband, Frank Dutzar, of Mt. Pocono, who passed away Dec. 2, 1949. Sadly missed by his wife.
ANNA.

EDINGER—In loving memory of Bernita I. Edinger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lavere Werkheiser, R. D. 3, Stroudsburg, Pa., who passed away May 21, 1948
Today recalls sad memories,
Of a loved one gone to rest.
And those who think of her today
Are the ones who loved her best.
Sadly missed by,
ALL THE FAMILY.

FISH—In memory of the late Shirley Getz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Getz, R. D. 3, Stroudsburg, who passed away June 1, 1950.
Do not ask me if I miss her.
For there's such a vacant place.
Oft' I think I hear her footsteps,
Or I see her smiling face.
For she left me broken-hearted.
Friends may think the wound is healed,
But they so little know, the sorrow
That is in my heart concealed.
Gone, but not forgotten.
MOTHER, FATHER, SISTERS AND BROTHERS.

FLANAGAN—In memory of the late Anna E Flanagan, mother of Mrs. Leonard R. Norris, Stroudsburg; who passed away May 12, 1937.
MRS LEONARD E. NORRIS.

FRANTZ—In memory of the late Clinton Carl Frantz, Sr., husband of Leora Morgan Frantz of Scotrun, who passed away Feb. 18, 1951.
LEORA MORGAN FRANTZ.

FULLER—In loving memory of Catherine Hineline Fuller, mother of Mrs. Margaret Fuller Rehm, Delaware Water Gap, who departed Feb. 2, 1940.
We think of her in silence,
Her name we oft recall.
There is nothing left to answer
But her picture on the wall.
Sadly missed by
MRS. MARGARET FULLER, REHM, HUSBAND & CHILDREN

GETZ—In loving memory of our dear daughter and sister, Catherine Evelyn Getz.
The flowers we place upon your grave
May wither and decay,
But love for you who sleep beneath,
Will never fade away.
Sadly missed by
MOTHER, FATHER, SISTERS AND BROTHERS.

GROLL—In memory of our Mother, Josephine Groll.
A silent thought,
A secret tear
Keeps her memory ever dear.
MRS GERLINGER, MRS. H. SCHMITS, MRS. N. THALER

HAMMERMAN—In memory of Clarence A Hammerman, husband and father, who died May 29, 1948.
Not lost, not dead, not gone,
Not even sleeping.
Tho we have laid in the grave with weeping.
No sharp despair our chastened hearts can fill,
For he is with us still.
WIFE, SON & DAUGHTER.

HARMAN—In memory of Clara Harman formerly of 23 N. Ninth St., Stroudsburg who passed away Nov. 29, 1945.
FRANK S. WEISS.

HAY—In memory of the late Harold B. Hay, son and brother, who passed away December 6, 1948.
Deep in the heart lies a picture
Of a loved one laid to rest,
In memory's frame we shall keep it
Because he was one of the best.
Lovingly remembered by
MR. & MRS. HARVEY HAY, VERONA MICHAELS, LEONA FISHER, PAUL HAY, HARVEY HAY, JR. WILLARD HAY.

HEINEY and DETRICK—In memory of the late Nelson Wayne Heiney, son, was passed away May 17th, 1948 and Van Orras Detrick, father, who passed away May 13, 1944.
If all the world was ours to give
We'd give it all and more
To see the faces we loved so dearly
Come smiling through the door.
Sadly missed by
MRS. RUTH HEINEY

HELLER—In loving memory of a dear wife and mother, Florence M. Heller, who passed away August 23, 1934.
The years go by, but memory stays
As near and dear as yesterday.
Ever remembered and sadly missed by her loving husband and son.
FLOYD E. HELLER AND EUGENE HELLER.

HELLER—In loving memory of my brother, Robert W. Heller, who passed away Nov. 13, 1950.
He is gone but not forgotten,
And as dawns another year
In our lonely hours of thinking,
Thoughts of him are always near.
Days of sadness will come o'er us.
Friends may think the wound is healed,
But they little know the sorrow
That lies within the heart concealed
Sadly missed by
MRS. IRENE ALGER

HELLER—In loving memory of Robert W. Heller, Age 24, who died Nov. 13, 1950
His passing was so sudden,
The shock so severe.
Treasured memories often bring a silent tear.
Thoughts return to scenes long past,
Time goes on but memories last.
For all he knew he did his best.
May God grant him sweet peaceful rest.
Sadly missed by his parents,
WM E. and ADDIE L. HELLER

In loving memory of our Mother.
Away from the world of sorrow
To the home of Eternal rest.
Your sweetness Mother, will linger forever
That beautiful memory of you.
MR. AND MRS MYRON SNYDER AND LORETTA

JOHNSON—In loving memory of our beloved Daddy, John E. Johnson, who passed away January 8, 1946.
Sadly missed by children,
DALE JOHNSON,
BETH JOHNSON,
GWYNETH JOHNSON.

KLINGER—In memory of the late Victor Klingler, husband of Mildred J. Klingler, of 344 Race St., E. Stroudsburg, Pa., who passed away May 1, 1940
MRS MILDRED J. KLINGLER.

KAUL—In memory of Paul R. Kaul, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Kaul, who was killed July 6, 1944
The flowers we place upon your grave
May wither and decay.
But love for you
Who sleeps beneath
Will never fade away.
Sadly missed by
MOTHER & DAD.

LaBAR—In loving memory of my grandmother, Mrs. Annie M. LaBar, who passed away May 7, 1950.
If all the world were ours to give,
We would give it all, and more.
To see the face we loved so dearly,
Come smiling through the door.
Sadly missed by
MRS. IRENE ALGER.

La BAR—In loving memory of Mother, Mrs. Annie M., wife of Moses LaBar, who passed away May 7th, 1950.
She went away without farewell,
She said goodbye to none.
Her willing hands to toil no more,
Her work on earth was done.
She was loving, gentle, thoughtful and true.
Always willing a kind act to do.
Sincere and kind in her heart and mind.
What wonderful memories she left behind
MRS. ADDIE L. HELLER, Daughter.

LIGHTNER—In loving memory of Jeanne Lightner born April 21, 1927, who passed away February 26, 1950.
Sadly missed by
MOTHER, FATHER and BROTHERS

McCALLEN—In memory of the late William A. McCallen, father and husband of Jean Ann and Jean McCallen Swiftwater, Pa., who passed away April 29, 1951.
JEAN ANN & JEAN McCALLEN

MERKEL—In memory of the late Sgt William G. Merkel, brother of Carl Merkel 487 N Courtland St., East Stroudsburg, who was killed in service March 23, 1945, on Luzon.
CARL MERKEL, Brother.

MOSTELLER—In loving memory of our husband, father and grandfather, Clayton Henry Mostoller who passed away on April 12, 1950.
He went away without farewell,
He said goodbye to none,
But Heaven's gate was open wide,
And a loving voice said "Come."
Beside his grave we often stand,
Our hearts are tired and sore,
But through the gloom
There comes the words;
"Not dead, just gone before."
Sadly missed by his wife, children and grandchildren.
CARRIE MOSTELLER AND FAMILY.

MUFFLEY—In memory of the late LeRoy Robert Muffley, son of Cora Muffley, East Stroudsburg, Penna., who passed away March 2, 1951.
Just a thought of sweet remembrance,
Just a memory sad and true.
Just the love and sweet devotion of one who thinks of you.
CORA MUFFLEY

OGDEN—In loving memory of my husband, James W. Ogden, who passed away on August 24, 1950.
If all the world were mine to give,
I'd give it all and more.
To see the face I loved so dear
Come smiling through the door.
(MRS.) JAMES W. OGDEN.

ONEY, In loving remembrance of our dear father, George Oney, who passed away September 13, 1934.
All earthly ties are broken
In life we meet no more.
Our thoughts are always with you, Father
On yonder distant shore.
Sadly missed by his children
TILDEN, HARRY, HAROLD, LA ANNA, VIOLA.

PANSY—In memory of the late Grace Pansy, wife of Anthony Pansy, of Stroudsburg, who passed away March 26, 1951.
THE PANSY FAMILY.

PEECHATKA—In loving memory of Walter C. Peechatka, husband and father of Lillian Peechatka and children, who passed away June 10, 1950
In memory a daily thought,
In heart a secret sorrow.
Ever remembered by
LILLIAN PEECHATKA AND CHILDREN.

PREDMORE—In loving memory of the late Florence Predmore, mother and wife, who passed away on July 22, 1939.
She was such a dear good mother,
So patient, kind and true.
There was never a cloud so heavy or dark
But she saw the sun shine through.
Lovingly remembered by
HUSBAND and CHILDREN
MRS. GRACE TANNER
MRS. ROBERTA OTTO
ROBERT M. PREDMORE,
MR. LUKE PREDMORE

RICHARDSON—In loving memory of my mother Margaret Ellen Richardson, who departed this life August 13 1935.
Her memory is as dear today
As in the hour she passed away.
Sadly missed by
MRS. EVELYN LUDWIG.

SCHIERENBECK—In loving memory of my dear mother, Anna Unger Schierenbeck, who departed this life Sept 15th, 1945.
Long years have passed
Since God took you away,
To rest and peace at last,
Yet a smile is with me today.
Sadly missed by
DAUGHTERS ANN & ROSA

SHIVELY—In loving memory of my dear mother, Bertha Mae Shively of East Stroudsburg, who passed away February 19 1948
Dear mother you are not forgotten
Though on earth you are no more.
Still in memory you are with us
As you always were before.
Ever remembered by your daughter,
BEVERLY VAN GORDON.

SINGER—In reverent memory of Anna B Singer, wife and mother of Morris Singer and Essie Schafer, who passed on August 3, 1950.
Dear Mom:
Lonely is the path,
We miss you more each day.
Your flowers are blooming,
To the children we say:
You're not gone.
You've just gone away.
POP, ESSIE and FAMILY.

SMITH—In memory of Chas. W. Smith husband and father of Mary Elizabeth Smith and children of East Stroudsburg, who passed away on May 26, 1950.
Nothing can ever take away
The love a heart holds dear,
Fond memories linger every day,
Remembrance keeps him near.
Sadly missed and ever remembered by
WIFE AND CHILDREN.

SMITH—In loving memory of George Franklin Smith, husband of Marguerite Kathryn Smith, Easton, Pa., who passed on April 8, 1950.
As certain as there's an afterward, dear,
(And I'm sure that there will be)
And since you have gone on before,
Oh, please wait there for me.

One lifetime was not enough
For the deep love we shared,
And it would not be Heaven, dear husband,
Should I fail to find you there.

So please wait close by the gate,
Don't venture very far
And when I come, we will spend eternity
Beyond some distant star.
Always loved, respected and remembered by wife,
MARGUERITE.

SMITH—In loving memory of a dear daughter, Maryanne Smith, who passed away Dec. 30, 1946.
In memory a daily thought,
In heart a secret sorrow.
Ever remembered by her loving
PARENTS, RUTH & WILLIAM, SMITH, SISTER & BROTHER.

STRUNK—In fond memory of Lillian Strunk, wife and mother, who departed this world February 10, 1950.
Into the sunset glow
But only for a little while,
Our loved one leaves our light
For just beyond the hill she waits,
In God's eternal light.
Sadly missed by
HUSBAND & CHILDREN.

TRACH—In memory of Clayton Trach, husband of Blanche Trach of Stroudsburg, who passed away June 14, 1950
What would I give
To clasp his hand,
His happy face to see,
To hear his voice,
To see his smile
That meant so much to me.
BLANCHE TRACH.

VAN WHY—In memory of the late Harry V. VanWhy, father of Mrs. Adelaide LaBar, East Stroudsburg who passed away on July 29, 1950.
I have only your memory, dear father,
To remember my whole life through:
But the sweetness will linger forever
As I treasure the image of you.
Ever remembered by his Daughter
ADELAIDE LABAR

WERKHEISER—In loving memory of our son and brother, LeRoy A. Werkheiser.
This being your birthday (May 29th)
Brings loving thoughts of you.
Sadly missed by
MOTHER BROTHER, SISTERS.

WERKHEISER—In memory of Harry A. Werkheiser, husband and father of Edith M. Werkheiser and children, of Sciota, Pa., who passed away Nov. 29, 1945

National Head Of Exchange To Speak Here

Judge D. Russell Bontrager

An Indiana jurist will be the guest of honor and principal speaker at the 1951 convention of Pennsylvania State Exchange clubs, scheduled for May 31-June 2 at Buck Hill Falls.

He is Judge D. Russell Bontrager, currently a member of the Indiana State Senate.

Judge Bontrager is national president of the Exchange club.

Judge Bontrager achieved success in the handling of juvenile delinquency cases while he was judge of the juvenile court and public prosecutor of Elkhart county, Ill.

By reason of his activity as a member of the Exchange club of Elkhart in setting up a youth center in his home city, he became a national figure in the movement for the control and prevention of juvenile delinquency.

Judge Bontrager was the first president of the Exchange club of Elkhart, which was formed in 1939, and served for three successive terms.

In 1944 he was appointed chairman of the Youth Study panel of the National Committee on Education. He was elected national Exchange president during the 1950 convention.

AT LAST! a home permanent that's specially created to "take" on young, hard-to-wave hair!

Richard Hudnut
HOME PERMANENT

So safe, so gentle, so easy to give ... now every child can have curly hair. Kit includes a new, milder, gentler Special Creme Waving Lotion and Special Liquid Neutralizer plus the Special Children's Home Permanent Conditioner—to make baby-fine, limp, young hair "take" a wave better, easier, faster. Leaves hair soft, lustrous, manageable—like naturally curly hair. Use any plastic curlers ... but we especially recommend the new Richard Hudnut Whirl-A-Wave curlers for ease, speed, and smoother waves. Like all famous Richard Hudnut Hair Preparations, the Children's Home Permanent has been laboratory and salon tested and proven safe, even for toddlers' hair.
